Entered at the postoffice at Weston, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

For some reason left off the Good-year automobile map, Weston will have to be content with the blue route signs on its electric light poles.

With New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania defeating equal suffrage; Ohio turning down prohibition and New York refusing a new constitution, the West is entitled to point with greater pride than ever to its own political regeneration.

The Hudson Bay News, published at Vincent by Griswold & Shely, is the latest addition to Umatilla county's family of newspapers, and should get along nicely if it maintains the standard set by its initial number. Umatilla county now boasts of a dozen newspapers. Time was, about a third of a century ago, when it had but three—the East Oregonian, the Pendleton Tribune and the WESTON LEADER.

DREAMING IN SERBIA.
Germany continues to bemuse herself with the notion that she has the Allies licked and that they ought to make peace on her own terms. These are, according to a prominent German newspaper:

Austria to annex the greater part of Serbia.
France to be deprived of her fortified places.
Roussin to lose Finland, the Baltic provinces, Bessarabia, Poland, the Crimea and portions of the Caucasus.
England must abandon her Mediterranean possessions as well as Egypt and practically all of her colonies, India to become a semi-independent state under German protection.

Meanwhile the Allies are in better case because clearer visioned. They are well aware they haven't Germany licked and are under no illusion with respect to an early peace favorable to themselves. They expect an indefinite prolongation of the bitter struggle and intend to make the most of their clear superiority in men and resources until they wear down their powerful foe in the bloody mills of Mars. There is no sign of yielding, no talk of peace, in the several capitals of the entente powers.

It would be interesting to compare what Germany now wants with what she gets when the war is over.

It was with a pardonable degree of pride that this old-time burg celebrated Weston Free Day, as the town carries larger stocks and puts up a better "front" than at any time in its history. Even in pioneer days when it was a lively frontier town and the hub of several stage routes, it could not have made so good a showing. Competition is now keen in a number of lines that were formerly "dead ones," and the result is seen in bright and handsome shops and stores, prepared to meet every community need. Population is increasing and houses are at a premium. One property owner who had much trouble in filling her houses a year ago is now turning applicants away, as every dwelling she owns is occupied by a desirable tenant.

HALLOWEEN—1915.
(Rex Lampman in Oregon Journal)
What is it drifts athwart the moon That swings so round and red? Is it a witch astride her broom, Her cone-cap on her head? I look again and see it is A Zeppelin instead.

I peer into the midnight's depths Through purring autumn rain. To see some goblin shape loom up. Grow big and fade again: It comes, a goblin shape, indeed— A whirring aeroplane.

They bob for apples in a tub This merry Halloween. And, maybe, in the water there A skulking sprite is seen (The tub becomes the ocean's bowl. The sprite a submarine.)

What is this jack-o'-lantern That has but one bright eye, With such a restless glance that goes So swift from low to high? I look again—what do I see? A searchlight sweeps the sky!

I hear a tick-tack strumming Upon my window sill; I listen—lo! it is the guns Behind a shot-torn hill; Above the myriad rifles' crash, The shrieking shrieking shrill.

Upon this night, old legends say, The future's scroll appears, And girls may learn with whom they'll wed And live the happy years; The boys crouch in the trenches, The girls weep bitter tears.

Young maidens gazed in mirrors In years ago, 'tis said, And there they glimpsed their true love's face. Before the spell was sped; But this year—ah, they are not look, For fear their love be dead!

The boys and girls they play at shooting. While forms go flitting by: They grow into a cloud that fills The space 'twixt earth and sky; I know they are the ghosts of men Who did not want to die.

ODD BITS OF NEWS.
Bardonia, Ky.—Mildred Gilmore Hall came into the world ready for the dinner table. She had two fully developed teeth in her lower gum.
Hartford, Michigan.—An admirer bought the editor of the Day Spring a freak fruit—half peach and half apple. The dividing line is straight and well defined. The specimen grew on a peach tree.
Meadville, Miss.—For the first time in its history 75 years, this town has a church. The town was the headquarters for many years of the famous Newman-Byrd feud, which ended with the killing of all the feudists.
New York, N. Y.—According to Robert R. Rieppel, who returned from a tour of inspection in Germany recently, four dummy kaisers ride along the lines in different sections of the country daily. The dummies ride in cars like that of the emperor and are selected from soldiers who look most like the kaiser. In this way the life of the kaiser is better protected.
Paris, France—Alcide Verd, 73 years old, is the oldest soldier in the French army. He saw service at Sedan, and is now with the 47th territorial regiment in the line of trenches.
Monroe, Wis.—This town was said to be the "smelliest" town in America when the annual cheese day was held. Two tons of hamburger, swiss and other cheeses were given away in sandwiches.

ARE YOU EDUCATED?
A professor of the University of Chicago has evolved a series of test questions for the educated which, he avows, are the best evidence of a real education. If you can answer "yes" to all the questions you are truly educated, the professor says. Here are the questions:
Has education given you sympathy with all the good causes and made you espouse them?
Has it made you public spirited?
Has it made you a brother to the weak?
Have you learned how to make friends and keep them?
Do you know what it is to be a friend to yourself?
Can you look an honest man or pure woman in the eye?
Do you see anything to love in a little child?
Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?
Can you be high-minded and happy in the meanest drudgeries of life?
Do you think that washing dishes and hoeing corn is just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?
Are you good for anything yourself?
Can you be happy alone?
Can you look out on the world and see anything but dollars and cents?
Can you look into a mud-puddle by the wayside and see a clear sky?
Can you see anything in the puddle but mud?
FOR WESTON PEOPLE
Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adier-Jala, the appendicitis preventative, drains so much foul matter from the body that ONE SPOONFUL relieves sour stomach, gas and constipation AT ONCE. The QUICK action is astonishing. H. Goodwin, druggist.
