

PRESIDENT WILSON QUIETLY MARRIED

Ceremony Minus Music at Home of Bride, Mrs. Galt.

Hour of Event Held Secret to Last

Couple Go for Honeymoon to Hot Springs, Va.—Episcopal Ring Service Used in Wedding.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt were married here at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night, with a simple ceremony spoken in the bride's home in the presence of fewer than 30 guests, virtually all of whom were relatives.

They left soon afterward for a two-week honeymoon in the South, at Hot Springs, Va.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the President and Mrs. Wilson entered a waiting White House automobile and moved to Alexandria, Va., across the Potomac, to take their private car there and avoid a crowd at the railroad station in this city.

The President dined as usual at the White House at 7 o'clock with his daughters and afterward drove to his bride's home, about a mile from the executive mansion. A cold, driving rain, which swept the city all day, cleared off at sunset and the evening was cool and pleasant.

Because the wedding arrangements and the hour of the ceremony had been kept a close secret, there were few on the streets about the White House, but near the bride's home the crowd was held back by the police lines spread during the afternoon.

Everything was in readiness for the ceremony when the President arrived and it proceeded without music. Neither the President nor Mrs. Galt had any attendants and there were no ushers or flower girls. Neither the army, the navy nor the diplomatic corps was represented and the occasion was essentially what both had wished it to be—a home wedding.

On the first floor of the bride's home, in two communicating rooms, a wedding dinner had been arranged with a background of furbys and maidens, hair ferns, which extended from the floor to the ceiling.

Overhead there was a canopy of green in the form of a shell lined with Scotch heather. In the background and at the center was placed a large mirror, framed with orchids and reflecting the scene.

Mrs. William H. Bolling, the bride's mother, gave her away. The President stood to the right of the clergyman and the bride stood on their left.

At once Dr. Smith began the words of the Episcopal marriage service, the President making his responses first, and then the bride making hers. After the bride pronounced to "love, cherish and obey," the President placed the wedding ring, a plain band of gold, on her finger and then, after a prayer and while the couple clasped their right hands together, Dr. Smith declared them husband and wife. The brief and simple ceremony was over.

The entire party then turned to the dining room, where a buffet supper was served.

MISS MARGHERITTA TILLMAN

Miss Margheritta Tillman, daughter of Commander M. Tillman, U. S. N. and Mrs. Tillman, has just been formally introduced to Washington society. She has been one of the leaders of the younger set in the national capital.

Just what authority has been given Baron Zwiadnik by his government has not been made known. It was recalled here that relations between the United States and Germany were seriously strained when the German ambassador took virtually a free hand to conduct the negotiations, which prevented the situation from becoming more serious than it at one time was.

Friend of President Wilson on Secret Mission to Theater of War

New York—Colonel E. M. House, confidential advisor of President Wilson, said Wednesday that he would shortly sail for Europe at the request of the President.

Colonel House declared the sole purpose of his trip would be to deliver to certain American ambassadors information regarding this government's attitude on various international matters now pending. He denied emphatically that his trip will in any way be a peace mission.

"I am going to Europe at the request of the President and the Secretary of State, for the purpose of talking information to some of our ambassadors," he said, "in order that they may have more intimate knowledge of this government's attitude regarding certain phases of international questions and in order to obtain from their point of view on these matters."

"It is not advisable to bring home at this time any of our ambassadors from the belligerent countries. It has been found impossible to convey or obtain by cable or correspondence quite the correct atmosphere."

Gotham Can Now Eat Horseflesh.

New York—Sale of horse meat for food will be permitted in New York after January 1, the board of health announces. Commenting on the revocation of the section of the sanitary code which prohibited the use of horse meat, Mr. Emerson said that, while the Health department does not exactly recommend it, no harm can be seen in its use. "The horse never has tuberculosis, and almost never has communicable or malignant disease to human beings," he said. "Hereafter old horses will be fattened for meat."

French Call Off Cruiser.

Washington, D. C.—French embassy officials, although lacking official word of the activity of the cruiser Descartes in West Indian waters, believe that she has been ordered to cease searching American ships on the high seas, and that no further search or seizure would be made until diplomatic correspondence over the Cosmo, Carolina and San Juan incidents is closed. They point out that the American note probably was not delivered in time to reach the Descartes before French Admiral Gault was taken from the Boringuen.

Big War Melon Is Out.

Cleveland, Ohio—Directors of the Grasselli Chemical company Wednesday cut a war melon by declaring an extra cash dividend of 5 per cent and a stock dividend of 10 per cent, in addition to the quarterly dividends of 3 per cent on both common and preferred stocks.

The combined dividends on both common and preferred shares, including the special dividends, have a cash value of approximately $3,000,000.

Canned Milk to Advance.

Portland—The statement was made recently by a man closely associated with the canner milk business that he would not be surprised if there was an advance of 60 cents a case in price in the near future. He based his opinion on the fact that the demand at the moment is exceeding the supply, and manufacturers are facing a hard game.

It is said that 180,000 cases of canned milk have been shipped recently to France and that one Eastern manufacturer who puts out a brand of milk under his own name is in the market for 60,000 cases. It is presumed this is wanted to fill an export order. Up to the present time it is believed no fewer than 250,000 cases have gone abroad.

All jobs are now asking $3.10 for Marigold milk. The advance of 15 cents was made some time ago, but was not adhered to by the entire trade, for various reasons.

Country Creameries Unite.

Eugene, Ore.—That the Eugene Farmers' creamery will unite with other co-operative creameries of the state to protect themselves and assist in marketing products of the plants was the sense of a meeting of the shareholders of the local plant. The meeting was similar to others held in different parts of the state where there are located co-operative creameries. It is the outcome of discontent and charges that the butter market of Portland has been manipulated in some manner. S. Schrock, representative of the state dairy and food commissioner's office, and G. F. Frevert, of the United States department of agriculture, were present at the meeting. It is the plan to hold a big meeting of the representatives of all the co-operative creamery associations in the state in the near future.

Bearish Wheat Reported.

Chicago—Heavy profit-taking by long who asserted that the government crop report was likely to prove bearish, wiped out the greater part of a lively advance secured Thursday in the wheat market here. The close was heavy at a net gain of 3c to 1 1/2c, with December at $1.16; and May at $1.17; @1.17.

The setback that ensued from the top level of the session was most apparent in the May option, December contracts remaining comparatively firm owing to fears that a strike in progress on the Chicago Belt railway might interfere with current deliveries.

Wheat Goes to New York.

Pendleton—For the first time in the history of wheat raising in this county shipments are now being made directly from local warehouses to the New York markets.

It took this week from his warehouse to New York. There is not much left of the present local supply of wheat which will be acceptable in New York for the reason that the Atlantic port calls for A1 quality. There are no facilities for cleaning wheat on the Atlantic seaboard as here.

Sales of Cider Never So Large.

Tacoma—More cider has been sold this season than ever before, as far as Tacoma is concerned, say merchants. Retail dealers are laying in big supplies for Christmas and New Year's and are anxious to know if there is any chance of a scarcity should their supplies not be large enough. Commission men inform them that there will be plenty on hand. The varieties offered are Jones Brothers and Schultz Oregon ciders, said to be equal to any made. Fresh ranch eggs are now wholesaling at 40@45 cents a dozen.

TURKS IGNORANT OF WITHDRAWAL OF BRITISH FORCE FROM GALLIOLI

London—Operations in other sectors of the front on the Gallipoli Peninsula than those from which troops were announced Tuesday to have been withdrawn, are to be continued, it is intimated in an official statement issued here. The withdrawal was effected without the knowledge of the movement of the part of the Turks, it is declared.

The British troops at the Bulva and Anzac districts of the Gallipoli Peninsula were officially reported to have been withdrawn.

"Further details of the evacuation of the Anzac and Bulva zones have been received," says the official statement. "Without the Turks being aware of the movement a great army has been withdrawn from one of the areas occupied on the Gallipoli Peninsula, although in the closest contact with the enemy. By this, contraction of the front at other points of the line will be more effectively carried out."

QUEEN OF BULGARIA

The queen of Bulgaria, whose ability as a nurse has been manifested time and time again since she established in Sofia one of the finest and best equipped hospitals, has again taken actively to the work which she loves so dearly. She is devoting her time and attention to nursing the sick orphans in the orphanage of her country.

Ferris Water Bill Will Be Rushed Through Congress

Washington, D. C.—That the Ferris water power bill is to be railroaded through the house of representatives is indicated by the fact that the public lands committee of that body expects to report it favorably.

The committee discussed the bill at some length Tuesday and decided to give no hearings whatsoever, but it was decided to make several minor changes which will not alter the general character of the measure, and if these can be perfected at once the report will then be ordered, and it is planned to call up the bill in the house as soon as congress reconvenes next month.

The bill in its present shape is not at all satisfactory to Representatives Sinnott, Oregon; Smith, Idaho, and La Follette, Washington, but Chairman Ferris let it be known he has enough Democratic votes to report the bill.

Chinese to Rebel.

San Francisco—Tong King Chong, president of the Chee Kung Tong, or Chinese Republic association, received a cablegram from Shanghai, China, which stated that five Chinese provinces had declared their independence against the rule of Yuan Shi Kai. The provinces concerned in the revolution were, according to the cablegram, Kwang Tung, Kiangsi, Yunnan, Kweichow and Szechuen. Mr. Tong, who has presided recently at several Chinese mass meetings, said he believed the action would be followed by many.

Woman Attaches Garb.

Sacramento, Cal.—The filing of an attachment on a lot in the city cemetery owned by Harry Ditman Harms, a rancher residing near Union House, to force payment of alimony and divorce costs proves almost anything can be attached. The attachment is posted at the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Harms, the second wife of Harms, and it encumbers all of the graves in the plot with the exception of the one occupied by Mrs. Mary Harms, the first wife. The amount of the alimony alleged to be due is $225.

Huge Taxes in Prospect.

Berlin, via London—Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the Imperial treasury, announced in the Reichstag that the next budget cannot be balanced without additional income, and that proposals for new taxation are now being drafted for submission to the Reichstag. The secretary declared that no matter how large a war indemnity was received, the war would impose a colossal burden of taxation on the Germans.

What He Told Them.

"This is a nice time of night to be coming home."

"Yes, my dear, but I tried to get away earlier."

"Tried to get away earlier, indeed! Those men haven't any strings on you, have they?"

"No, my dear, I even wanted to break up the game at 11 o'clock, but they insisted on playing another hour. So what could I do?"

"Do? You could have told them I was alone, and you had to come home."

"I did, my dear, I even told them what a nag you were, and how you'd make life miserable for me."

"You told them that? The very idea! If that isn't just like you to blame me when you know you wanted to get to bed yourself. I want you to understand that if you can't think of any better excuse than that for coming home you can stay as long as the rest do."—Detroit Free Press.

Not Scientific.

Scientific Parent (on a stroll)—You see out there in the street, my son, a simple illustration of a principle in mechanics. The man with that cart pushes it in front of him. Can you guess the reason why? Probably not. I will ask him. Note his answer, my son.

To the coaster—My good man, why do you push that cart instead of pulling it?

Coaster—"Cause I ain't a boss, you old thickhead."—Titbits.

Matter of Opinion.

"Mary!" Father's voice rolled down the stairs and into the dim and silent parlor.

"Yes, papa, dear."

"Ask that young man if he has the time."

A moment of silence.

"Yes, George has his watch with him."

"Then ask him what is the time."

"He says it is 11:48, papa."

"Then ask him if he doesn't think it about bedtime."

Another moment of silence.

"He says, papa, the silvery voice announced impersonally, "he says that he rarely goes to bed before 11, but it seems to him that it is a matter of personal preference merely, and that if he were in your place he would go now if he felt sleepy."—Harper's Bazar.

On the Water Wagon.

The Alfalfa delegate was paying his first visit to a city of any size. Standing along the sidewalk, he chanced to see a sprinkling cart coming down the street, and no sooner had he set eyes on the thing than he began to laugh like the boy at a minstrel show. "Say, old pal," he remarked hilariously, punching a cop in the ribs, "don't that just beat all!"

"Don't that beat all!" responded the wondering cop. "What's the joke?"

"Just look at that fellow on that wagon!" replied the alfalfa party, pointing to the sprinkler. "That dervish chump won't have a drop of water left by the time he gets home!"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

As Judge Saw Them.

One day while out walking with a friend in San Francisco a professor and his friend became involved in an argument as to which was the handsomest man of the two. Not being able to arrive at a settlement of the question, they agreed, in a spirit of fun, to leave it to the decision of a Chinaman, who was seen approaching them. The matter being laid before him, the Oriental considered long and carefully; then he announced, in a tone of finality, "Both are worse."

One of Those Friends.

"Wombat, I'm a friend of yours and I must tell you that today Flubbub was saying some very mean things about you."

"If you are a friend of mine why did you stand there and listen to him?"

"Well, I'm a friend of his, too."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Behind the Times.

"John was a good man," said the disconsolate widow, "but he was so old-fashioned to the last."

"How so?" asked the sympathetic friend.

"Why, he got killed by a runaway horse."—Albany Argus.

Check.

Lord Reading said at a dinner in New York, apropos of Germany's proposal to get back from the allies in the shape of a war indemnity all her war expenditure:

"That proposal savors of the impudent. It reminds me of the son to whom his old father said: 'Yes, George, I've decided to retire from active life and turn the business over to you.'

"But, father, can't you work a few years longer, and then we can retire together?"

Could Use Shovel.

There was a sudden rush of work and the foreman was short of laborers. Going out into the road he found a muscular looking tramp leaning at the curb. Here was a possible recruit.

"My man," said he genially, "do you want work?"

"What sort of work," asked the tramp cautiously.

"Well, can you do anything with a shovel?"

The tramp suddenly beamed at the speaker.

"I could try a slice of bacon on it," he said eagerly.
