

Music in Your Home

Have you a Piano, a Player Piano or a Phonograph in your home? If so, is it satisfactory? If not, don't you often long for music to satisfy a longing in your own heart, for the children's sake or to help you entertain your friends?

When we added a Piano Department we introduced a new way of selling Pianos—marking them in plain figures at the lowest possible prices, the same to all—no jockeying, no juggling.

Here are guaranteed new pianos at $150, $197, $205, $235, $265, and up to the glorious old Chickering at $535 to $735. Guaranteed Players with high grade free-from-trouble, up-to-the-minute actions from $395 up. Convenient terms of payment if wanted.

Then, Phonographs—no one need be without good music, or any kind of music preferred. Here are the famous Victorias, $15 to $100; Edison Amblers, $20 to $75, and the matchless New Edison Diamond Disc Phonographs, $85 to $250.

See or write for further information.

Nature's Food

For horses and cattle is the grass that grows on meadow and hill. The next best thing is sweet, clean, hay and feed that comes from our mill. When you need rolled grain of the right sort for keeping your livestock in fine fettle, look for our sign and the good things for your dumb servants stored in our bins. We handle Steam Rolled Barley, Oats and Wheat; Hated Hay, Millet and Chicken Feed. We're local agents for Pesceok Flour and Blatchford's Calf Meal. Phone 281.

A social dance is announced for tomorrow (Saturday) evening at Weston opera house, with music by Keen's orchestra.

Mrs. B. A. Benton of Walla Walla, was a guest of Mrs. Lillian Fredricks for several days during the first of the week.

Ed Powell, who did a thriving bootlegging business at Athena with stolen liquor, was sentenced Monday to a term of one to seven years in the penitentiary.

According to the Athena Press, the road leading down Thoren Hollow to the Umatilla river is utterly impassable and reported to be beyond the stage of repair.

After spending the winter in the Walla Walla valley, Edward Tucker and family have returned to their home on the mountains. They motored over Saturday with J. B. Hart.

Mrs. E. C. Price is under the care of Dr. Smith with a serious illness at the Price homestead north of town. Miss Gwin, a trained nurse from Walla Walla, is in attendance.

R. H. King and family have moved to the Reed and Hawley uplands, where Mr. King has leased the Ruff place from its present owner, E. E. Mayer, for a term of five years.

Mr. Jacob Farr and Mrs. Marja Stranberg, residents of the Reed and Hawley uplands, were united in marriage Friday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. N. D. Wood.

J. N. Burgess, who lately resigned as state senator, has announced his candidacy as delegate to the republican national convention. He favors the nomination of Justice Hughes.

R. A. Barnes was at Stanfield Friday night assisting in the institution of a new lodge of Odd Fellows in the irrigation town, with 48 members. Mr. Barnes was accompanied by H. L. Hedrick and Dr. Sempert.

With Landell and Duncan as their battery the Weston second team defeated the Milton second team in a ball game at Milton Sunday by a score of five to four. All of Milton's runs were made in a ninth inning rally.

Miss Hortense Baker, who has been undergoing treatment at Pendleton for appendicitis, was at home this week for a few days' visit. Miss Baker is much improved and her early recovery is expected.

It is possible that the democrats will have nearly a full county ticket this campaign. Among the party's candidates, present and prospective, are Barney Anderson of Pendleton and George Crosby of Hamilton for county commissioners; Oliver Dickerson of Athena for treasurer; J. N. Scott of Athena for state senator to succeed J. N. Burgess; W. T. Reeves of Stanfield and Louis Hodgra of Freeewater for the lower house; G. H. Bishop of Freeewater district attorney; W. D. Chamberlain of Pendleton for clerk; W. C. Howard of Stanfield for school superintendent; and Dr. Henderson of Pendleton for coroner. Prominent in the list, also, are those two old standbys and tried and true officials, T. D. Taylor for sheriff and C. P. Strain for assessor.

A distressing accident on the main street of Freeewater Sunday resulted in the death of a 10-year-old boy named Fred Lacey. He was riding a man's bicycle which he could not handle well wheeled in front of an automobile slowly driven by J. H. Coffman, a prominent Dry creek farmer living near Weston. The auto passed directly over the boy's body, and he died half hour later from internal hemorrhage. Both Mr. Coffman and his wife, who was with him, are said to have fainted, and it was some time before the former could be restored to consciousness. Although in no way responsible for the accident, Mr. Coffman is said to have given the boy's parents $200 to defray the funeral expenses.

Omer E. Smith, candidate for the republican nomination for district attorney, who has been pretty well over the county and was here Friday, says that he finds the sentiment strongly in favor of the prohibition law and also many of the other laws on the statute books which have been neglected in the past. The people everywhere, regardless of past preferences, are now strongly in favor of the most rigid enforcement of the new law and they want to see it carried out in both the letter and spirit. It is the one big item, he says, in the present campaign.

The dead bodies of Mary Hawn, 18, a student of St. Vincent's academy, and of C. M. Frazier, 45 or 50, the step grandfather of the girl, were found lying on the bed in a room at the Grand Hotel, Walla Walla, Monday night. The man had shot himself, muffled his revolver with a blanket, and the girl is supposed to have taken poison. Both left notes, shedding no light on the mystery, which is thought to have been the result of a suicide pact. On the preceding Sunday night, Alice Wells committed suicide at Walla Walla by taking carbolic acid.

The Ladies Guild held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. E. M. Warren. After routine business had been disposed of the members passed a time very pleasantly with needle work and social chat, and a delectable collation was served by the hostess. The guild's next meeting will be held the first Monday after Easter, when the annual election of officers will be held. Mrs. Harry Beattie and Mrs. Frank Skinner will be the hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Skinner.

Weston has its local carpenters back again, much to its relief—as their is no other in the town. Headed by J. M. Ashworth, they returned Saturday from the neighborhood of Washtucna, where they built a story-and-a-half farm house, a large barn and a concrete cistern for Watts & Rogers on the land occupied by Will Ross. As for Ashworth, the party included Charles Van Hor, Henry Schroeder, Will Graham and Ralph Stagg.

Weston people may be interested in knowing that the information has been received here in a letter from W. J. Babington, county clerk and recorder at Missoula, Montana, that "Joseph St. Dennis of Roman, Mont., aged 38, was issued a marriage license to marry Nellie Mitchell of Weston, Ore., aged 38, on the 8th day of December, 1915." Nellie Mitchell was formerly Mrs. Nellie Killgore.

J. M. Ashworth, Weston's only entry this campaign in the political arena, now has two opponents for the republican nomination as county commissioner—T. M. Hurlbert of Stanfield and W. M. Slusher of Pendleton. As "Jim" Ashworth is fond of carrying, he is in no wise cast down by this opposition, and is going out after votes with his usual alertness.

The Epworth League held their monthly business and social session at the church last Friday evening. The Misses Read, Barnes and Price entertained at the piano and James Kirkpatrick gave two readings. The Junior League presented a very pleasing program of music, songs and recitations and served a lunch. The little folks cleared $5.70.

Headed by Dr. Y. C. Blalock, one of the most prominent Masons in the Northwest, Masonic delegations visited the local lodge Saturday evening from Walla Walla and Milton. Fred M. Pauly, a Weston business man in early years, was among their number. An interesting talk was given by Dr. Blalock concerning the York and Scottish rites.

Bayles Baker, one of the several sons of Merritt A. Baker of this city who have met with considerable success after "striking out for themselves," has been promoted to the position of dispatcher on the Missoula division of the Milwaukee, with headquarters at Missoula. He was former agent at Saltese, Montana.

Rain fell here all of Monday night with exceeding copiousness, but as the farmers now have most of their grain in no way was heard to grumble. It does seem, however, as though the weather man is determined to bestow all of its annual rainfall upon the Weston country during March and April.

A future railroad man was born Saturday to Agent and Mrs. S. S. Nelson at the O. W. B. & N. depot. He weighed 11 1/2 pounds, and every pound of him is a source of delight to the young parents. The stork in these parts is now assured of free transportation whenever he wants to travel by rail.

Twenty ladies from the Civic Improvement Club of Milton are expected to attend tomorrow's meeting of the Saturday Afternoon Club at the home of Mrs. F. D. Watts. The occasion is the local club's "Reciprocity Day."

Truman Tucker is back at his upland store and farm from Pendleton, where his duties ended Saturday as grand jury foreman.

Mrs. W. R. Affleck and children of Orofino, Idaho, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick.

Colonel E. G. Lucas, Weston's leading realty operator and baseball magnate, left this week on a fortnight's business trip. He will visit several cities in Montana, and may go to Alberta.

Jim Ritchey is here from Forest Grove, visiting Joe Hodgson and other old-time Weston friends. Jim informs The Leader that he hasn't modified his attitude on the county bonding question, and is still "fermat it."

Next Tuesday is the last day for registration. Of the 700 voters in the five local precincts Registrar Barnes has so far enrolled 427—which total includes 251 republicans, 150 democrats, 44 prohibitionists, 11 independents and one socialist.

Martha Viola Phillips, daughter of Sam T. Phillips, died Monday, April 10, at the family home on Dry creek, after a protracted illness with tuberculosis. Miss Phillips was one of a family of eleven children who were all born in the same house on Dry creek, whose father was also born in Umatilla county. She was in her twenty-sixth year and is survived by her father, six brothers and three sisters. All were present at her bedside when she sank into her last sleep, everything possible having been done for her relief without avail. She was a devoted daughter and sister and will be sadly missed. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Elder C. W. Metz.

"CLEANING UP DAY."
