

HEISEY DIAMOND H GLASSWARE

The trade mark, a letter H enclosed in a diamond, is on every piece, that none may be deceived by imitations. There is little need for this, however, as the clearness and brilliance of the metal, the clean cut, simple yet elegant designs are quickly recognized by those who know Heisey glass. This deservedly popular line is in a class by itself, not merely in brilliance and finish, in designs, but in the quality, the great toughness of the glass. It is no more expensive than the better product of other factories.

Our spring shipment has just been received. All the staple items are included, of course, as well as many specialties and new items among which are: Flour Basket vases at $1.00, $1.25 and up to $2.25; Lavender Jars, 50c, 75c and $1.00, two shapes, each in three sizes; Sanitary Syrup Cans, four sizes, 65c to $1.00. Then there are Glass Trays, Ice Tubs, Lemon Dishes, Haralades with cover, Sugar and Cream Sets in several sizes, those artistic Salt and Pepper Shakers in two sizes, Celerics, Chow Chows, Almonds, Vases, Candlesticks, etc.

Also just received, an assortment of Pyrex glass, the new glass baking ware—fire proof—bake and serve in same dish. It's worth a day's journey to see these lines. Crank up and come.

BREVITIES

M. A. Thrasher, whom Westonian, was over from Walla Walla the first of the week.

Jerry Perier, old-time resident of the Weston uplands, was in town from Walla Walla Saturday.

My Weston real estate is for sale or rent. Tires and auto supplies at close out prices. A. Phillips.

G. A. H. McGrew left for Portland Tuesday in response to news of the illness of his son Raymond.

H. O. Saling has begun planting 40 acres to beans on the Saling tract near the O-W. R. & N. depot.

I am here to stay, and will run my auto stage each day on schedule time. Ride with me at train prices. J. O. Wood.

The United Brethren ladies will give a cooked food sale tomorrow afternoon at the store of the Weston Mercantile Co.

Hufus A. Bratcher has gone to Great Falls, Montana, where he has accepted a position in a motorcycle supply shop.

J. W. McCulloch of Ontario, Oregon, republican candidate for public service commissioner, was a Weston visitor Wednesday and seemed glad to be with us.

Rev. W. S. Payne has returned from Sprague, Wash., where he put in a very successful four weeks of evangelical work. The meetings which he conducted resulted in 57 conversions.

D. McConnell of Nampa, Idaho, has bought 25 feet frontage on Main street from Dr. F. D. Watts. It is said to be the purchaser's intention to build on the property and establish a jewelry store in Weston.

Arrangements are being made by the local fraternal orders to observe Memorial Day Tuesday, May 20. A march to the cemetery, led by the Weston Concert Band, is planned, and a suitable program of exercises will then be given.

The Weston Concert Band made its first public appearance Tuesday evening in a short open air concert on Main street. The music was warmly applauded, and much favorable comment was heard over the progress the band boys have made.

Winter will not give up without a struggle, and fired a valley of snowflakes into the Weston country last Saturday. About four inches of snow fell on Weston mountain, and the uplands were covered with a white mantle. Wind and rain were also in evidence.

Dan C. Lounsbury, who was a Weston contractor and builder in early years, died last week at his home in Portland. He is well and favorably remembered here by the town's pioneers. One of Mr. Lounsbury's sons is a prominent railroad official of Portland.

Weston Rebekahs entertained the Athena Rebekahs Tuesday evening, each lodge being represented by some 20 members. The degree was conferred upon Miss Daisy Waddingham and Miss Edna Ross. Ice cream and cake were served in the dining room, which had been beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers.

The 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Graham was celebrated Sunday at their home on Water street by a large number of friends and neighbors who called unexpectedly, their arms laden with good things to eat, and made merry during nearly the entire day. Mr. and Mrs. Graham are both natives of Ohio. They were married in Iowa in 1854, crossed the plains in 1854, locating in Marion county, and came to the Weston neighborhood in 1872. They have since resided here, and have many friends to express the hope that they will live to see their 70th wedding anniversary.

The class in the United Brethren Sunday school showing the largest growth up to May 1 was promised a trip to the Walla Walla penitentiary by Dr. Watts, and to redeem his promise a fleet of automobiles was commandeered today (Friday) for the excursion. The award fell to J. H. Williams' class of boys, which has grown in number from eight to thirty since Mr. Williams took charge. The youngsters anticipate much pleasure from the trip, and will start for Walla Walla at noon today. A cordial letter of invitation has been received from the penitentiary superintendent.

At a meeting of the Weston school board Monday evening the teaching corps for next year was completed. The list of teachers follows: Miss Louise Hinton, first and second grades; Miss Alberta Dryden, third and fourth; Miss Olive Kilmer, fifth and sixth; Miss Nellie Workman, sixth and seventh; Miss Maude Ager, eighth; Miss Lucile Cogswell, high school; Miss Aline Noren, high school; G. R. Robinson, superintendent.

Charles Hilyard, a former resident of Weston who is now employed for the Wasco Warehouse & Milling company at The Dalles, was here Sunday for a few hours' stay. Mr. Hilyard came up from Pendleton, where he attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. George D. Hilyard. She was 61 years old and is survived by her husband and ten children, all of whom were present at her bedside during her last hours.

At a meeting Tuesday of the directors of the Weston Mercantile Company, J. P. Slover handed in his resignation as manager, secretary, treasurer and director. Mr. Slover retired

A MAN OF EXPERIENCE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Voters, do you know that the office of prosecuting attorney is one of the most important in the county—one where mistakes are expensive to the taxpayer? When you hire a man to work for you, you want one who is qualified, do you not? If so, then before you vote for prosecuting attorney consider the qualifications of the three men who are candidates on the Republican ticket. Homer I. Watts, whose number is 59 on the Republican ballot, is really the logical man for the place. He has the qualifications, the experience and is representative of the people of this county. He has had eight and one-half years of experience in the practice of law, during which period he has tried something like 100 cases, both civil and criminal, in the circuit courts of Oregon and Idaho and the superior courts of Washington; something like twenty cases in the federal courts of Oregon and Washington and a like number of cases in the supreme courts of these two states. His life's interests are here and he is a taxpayer of the county.

One of Mr. Watts' opponents has been practicing about one and one-half years and the other about two and one-half years. The extent of their practice has been justice of the peace cases and about half a dozen cases in the circuit court of this county. Neither has had any experience in practice in the supreme court nor the federal court. One of his opponents has been in the county about two years and the other about three years. Neither is a taxpayer. If experience counts for anything, then why not vote for Homer I. Watts, and be sure of getting a qualified man, rather than one who would gain his experience at the expense of the taxpayers? (Adv.)

Announcement Extraordinary!

Grocery Department

for the
WESTON MERCANTILE COMPANY

On Tuesday morning, the 16th inst., our New Grocery Department will be open for business.

As previously announced, we will take over the stock of L. I. O'Harra. It is our wish to extend to you the same courtesy you have heretofore enjoyed, and we want you to grant us your patronage.

Mr. O'Harra comes as buyer and manager of the new department and brings his salesmen with him, so you will feel at home in trading here.

It is very gratifying to us to be in a position to make the above announcement. It has been the wish of this company for some time. We feel that it places us in a position to serve our patrons to better advantage, thereby meriting a more liberal share of your patronage. We want you to make this store your home trading center, giving us an opportunity to figure with you on large bills or small, at all times assuring you of our greatest desire to serve you.
