

A Better Day's Work

That's what a McDougall Auto Front Kitchen Cabinet will mean in your home. You can get up a meal in about half the usual time—the time saved will enable you to do many other tasks; it means the elimination of kitchen slavery. The time and drudgery saved will soon pay for one of these great labor savers. Nor is this all, for the saving of foodstuffs is no small item.

No other cabinet has so many real, worth-while improvements as the McDougall Auto Front. Just about everything you could wish for is included—every improvement found on other cabinets and a lot of exclusive, patented McDougall features besides.

A McDougall Cabinet in your kitchen is no expense, but real economy, for it soon pays for itself and then keeps doing it over and over again. McDougall Cabinets are splendidly built—made to last for generations. They are finished in a handsome, hard, durable varnish which even hot water will not mar or turn white.

We have one lot of these fine cabinets to dispose of at SPECIAL PRICES and on special easy terms. Come and see them if possible. If you can't come, phone or write and we'll send full particulars.

Mrs. A. W. Lundell and Mrs. Margaret Wheeler, both of whom have been under Dr. Smith's care with heart trouble, are reported this week to be decidedly better.

A light snow fell on the Weston uplands Sunday night, and the countryside experienced another unusual touch of winter weather in Maytime. Six inches fell at Meacham.

Silk poplins at 69 cents. Remnants at one-half price. Warner Bros. corsets at 50 cents. But you'll have to come before tomorrow (Saturday) night. Weston Mercantile Co.

Mr. Claud J. Davis, formerly of Weston, was united in marriage at Spokane recently to Miss Rose Paulson. Both are residents of Spokane, where they will continue to make their home.

Echo and Pilot Rock, Blue Mountain league teams, played their scheduled game at Echo Sunday. Echo won, nine to three, and took the lead in the pennant race, while Weston and Pendleton did not play, because of the disruption of McCarrigle's Bucks. Jocko Krause, Echo's imported slasher from Portland, struck out fourteen of the slugging Pirates.

Monday night Athens had a good-sized fire which destroyed an old livery stable and the Athena hotel, owned by Frank Tharp. The blaze started in the stable from an unknown cause, and made rapid progress. Soon the hotel was enveloped in flames, and it was found to be impossible to save either building. Having plenty of water the firemen saved a brick building near the hotel occupied by Miller's motion picture show, and also the Harder residence—both of which were in grave danger for a time. The Athena Press office also had a narrow escape, its roof having been ignited from burning shingles. Mr. Tharp carried $1000 insurance upon his hotel building, but its contents were uninsured. Many Weston people went over in automobiles to Athens' assistance, and took some fire hose along.

According to Ed DeMoss, Weston has a right to clap its hands and shout for joy this week, and to feast and make merry upon the fatted calf and the obese porker. "For behold!" said DeMoss, "two of our most ultra violent pests are absent at one and the same time." He boldly names names, too, saying that he has reference to Jim Barnes and Hank Price. Bill Gould is with them, but Bill, says DeMoss, is a fairly estimable citizen and harms nobody. All three, by the way, are attending the I. O. O. F. grand lodge at Roseburg as Weston delegates. Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. James are representing Weston at the grand lodge of Rebekahs.

Last Saturday evening, May 20, members of the United Brethren Church and Sunday school gave Rev. and Mrs. George Chapman a surprise. About 60 in number, they gathered at the G. W. Stagg residence and went from there to the parsonage for their uninvited farewell call upon the retiring pastor and his wife. An enjoyable evening was spent in conversation and games, and ice cream and cake were served. All joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Chapman prosperity and happiness in their new home near Philomath, Oregon, for which they took their departure Tuesday evening.

At a special meeting of the Weston council Tuesday evening an appropriation of $170 was made to match the similar appropriation of the Saturday Afternoon club for the building of a pavilion in the City park. It is estimated that the total of $140 will be ample for the purpose, as while the pavilion will be roofed it will not be enclosed. Tables and benches will be provided for open air resting and reading, and it is expected that the pavilion will also be found available for summer band concerts. It will be completed and painted in time for the pioneer reunion next week.

Manager Price has arranged with the Athena team to play baseball with the Weston team during each afternoon of the pioneers' reunion, June 2 and 3. It is expected that these contests will prove much more interesting than the ordinary run of "picnic ball games." Each team will put its best men into the line-up and strive hard to win, both the Weston and Athena managers having determined to give the public real baseball goods for its money. A pitching duel between Shick and Brill will likely be staged for one of the matinees.

In one of the best interscholastic baseball games ever played on the local diamond, Weston High defeated Columbia College last Friday by the score of two to zero. "Fat" Wood, who seems to be fast developing into a slabster of merit and was neatly backstopped by Jimmie Kirkpatrick, pitched airtight ball except in one instance, when a combination of luck and skill prevented the visitors from scoring. Weston's play throughout shows that it has an abundance of young talent.

Miss Florence March has returned home for vacation from her school work at Milton, where she was re-elected for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stagg and Miss Odessa Kirkpatrick are attending the annual conference of the United Brethren Church in Spokane.

Housewives will be interested in inspecting our grocery specials and will find that a real saving awaits them while our sale is on. Weston Mercantile Co.

E. A. Beals, chief of the Oregon weather bureau, was here Wednesday from Portland consulting with the local observer, Merritt A. Baker. And the next day it rained.

Glenn Morrison was lately transferred from the United States cruiser Maryland to the Albany, which is now in Mexican waters of Mazatlan. He has been raised to a ship painter's rating with an increase of pay. Glenn was born in Portland and Bremerton not long ago.

Mr. E. H. Cleverenger of Pendleton gave an able baccalaureate address at High School auditorium Sunday evening. The music by a special choir of voices was a very pleasing feature of the union service. The 1916 class will receive their diplomas at the graduating exercises this evening.

The recent eighth grade examination was passed by 168 pupils, those of Weston being Frank Lavender, Willie Van Winkle, Hazel Duncan, Vida Greer, Gertrude Van Winkle, Nell Graham, Ruth Proebstel, Theodore Walden, Otis Gould, Ida Beamer. Maxine Scrimsher passed in district No. 11.

Mrs. E. Reynolds returned Sunday from her extended visit with relatives in Wichita, Kansas. Robert Reynolds, who accompanied his mother to the Sunflower state, arrived home Tuesday, having stopped two days in Salt Lake City for a visit with the Baker boys. Mrs. Reynolds met two brothers in Kansas from whom she had been separated since the beginning of the Civil war.

The G. A. R. fraternal societies and citizens of Weston will meet on Main street at 2 p. m. next Tuesday, May 20, and form in line for the processional march to the cemetery, which will be led by the Weston Concert Band. Automobiles will be provided for the old union and confederate veterans, fourteen of whom reside in Weston and vicinity. An appropriate program has been prepared for rendition at the cemetery.

J. T. Lieuallen, the well known Umatilla county wheat grower, now a resident of Walla Walla, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Lieuallen says that he will be on hand again this year for the pioneer's reunion, which annual gathering he never intends to miss so long as he is in terra firma and able to toddle. He has been over his wheat fields in this county, and says that the outlook is none too encouraging. The wheat is backward, while weeds are both thriving and numerous.
