Chairman Chamberlain, of the ser ate military committee, announced that the senate would re-insert the revised draft approved by the Preside and the War department, but stricken out in the house, and that the situation had resolved itself into a contest between the acente and house on one hand and Mr. Hay on the other.

The tangle threatens to delay the adjournment of congress, and incidentally the completion of the preparedness program, as well as to hold up appropriations for the army increases propriations for the army increases and all the extra expenses involved in the Mexican service.

The bill as reintroduced now

The bill as reintroduced now is in the house military committee and there is an agreement to take it up and expedite the continental army and universal training plans, and the substitution of National Guard reorganization, which it opposed.

Army officers also say certain features of the bill were injected in conference and never were debated on the floor of either house of congress.

The articles of war have not been revised in 100 years and are said to be

The articles of war have not been revised in 100 years and are said to be sadly deficient for dealing with the conditions which growth of the army and development of the nation require. The War department is especially anxious for changes to enable army officers to deal adequately with problems arising during the present Mexima service.

Included in the revision worked out by congress, over the objection of the President and the War department, was a provision which exempted re-tired officers from court-martials and army discipline, if not actually from army control, and placed them under the jurisdiction of the civil courts. It is common understanding among
