Harsh Criticism

Lord Kitchener was harshly criticized the last two years of his life, but he could not complain, for he was always a harsh critic himself.

Thus, when Lord Kitchener went to South Africa to take charge of the Boer war, one of the generals whom he was supplanting said to him:

"Well, how do you propose to reorganize the transport?"

"Reorganize it!" said Kitchener. "I'll organize it!"—Boston Transcript.

The Way of Man.

Jane Settled Him.

"Jane," said her mistress, "you real ly will have to put a stop to the visits of your followers."

"Yes, I must, ma'am," replied Jane. "But you've said that before," expostulated her mistress, "and there it's ended."

"I'm sure I've done my best, ma'am," said Jane; "it isn't easy, but I'll try and settle him on my next Thursday out."

Her next Thursday out came and went. Her follower also came and went (with Jane), and Jane eventually returned in a radiant mood.

"I've settled him this time, ma'am!" she exclaimed, breathlessly.

Her mistress was delighted. But in the hours of victory one should be generous to the fallen foe, so she expressed hope that Jane had not been too hard on the young man.

"Hard on him!" cried Jane. "No, ma'am, that I wasn't. I've just married him and I leave at the end of the month!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Forest Notes.

The annual value of the farm wood-lot products of the United States is over $188,000,000.

More people are spending their vacations on national forests this summer than have ever done so before, many persons traveling long distances by automobile in order to camp in these public playgrounds.

At a recent meeting of the Concomully Stock Association, at which there were twenty members present, it was decided not to allow any bulls on the range after 1918 except those of beef grades and having registered papers.

Tourists' registers are in use on many of the national forests. By registering their names and destination, persons going into the mountains can arrange to have telegrams and other important messages forwarded by the forest rangers.

Experiments at the Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin, have resulted in the discovery of a method whereby the yields of alcohol and acetate of lime from the destructive distillation of hardwoods have been increased fifteen per cent.

New Stunt.

"You remember that you sold me a horse last week?" said the cabman angrily to the horse dealer.

"Yes; what about him?"

"He fell dead yesterday."

"Well, I never!" said the dealer. "I told you he had some funny little ways, but upon my word I never knew him to do that before."—Chicago Herald.

The Other Side.

"I can respect good motives, but—"

"Yes!"

"There's Mrs. Flubdub. She considers it her duty to come over and brighten my life a bit every day, and she's getting to be such a bore."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Early Morning Scrap.

"Humph!"

"Ugh!"

"You never tell me what you want for breakfast?"

"And I don't propose to. I don't intend to give you the satisfaction of not getting it for me!"—Kansas City Journal.

A Summer Requirement.

"The boys are sore on the grocer."

"They loaded around his store amiably all winter."

"Just so. But now he won't put in an electric fan."—Kansas City Journal.

No Advantage.

"You say your husband is deaf?"

"Yes, but he can read lip language. I can't call him mean things. Just have to think them, the same as any other wife."—Kansas City Journal.

Doubtful.

"Mama, is papa goin' to die an' go to heaven?"

"Why, Bobby, what put such an absurd idea into your head?"—London Saturday Journal.

GIGANTIC BATTLE OPENS IN FRANCE

Important Victory Seems But Start of Another Vast Drive.

5000 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN

German Second Line From Somme North to Combles Now Entirely in Possession of French.

Paris—The French won a magnificent and highly important victory Monday north of the Somme and there is reason to believe Sunday night's communique begins another series such as were had in the first days of the great offensive.

The question whether the battle was the prelude to a vast Franco-British offensive is one the censor would not permit to be answered, but it is evident that the French general staff would not have begun that action except according to concerted allied plans.

The official communique, which was passed by the censor, says: "A bloody battle is going on on both banks of the Somme. The French have made fresh progress east of the village of Forest, north of the river, and on the South have successfully attacked objectives along a front of 20 kilometers (12 1/2 miles) from Barleux to Chaulons.

"The village of Soyecourt was brilliantly carried by assault, as was also part of Vermandouiers. More than 5000 prisoners have been taken North and South of the Somme in the last two days.

"Progress was also made on the right bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun sector, in the Fleury region."

Monday's action constitutes a giant step forward on the road enveloping Peronne from the North and also shortens by many miles the British march on Bapaume. The German second line from the Somme North to Combles now is entirely in French hands. That line passed through Clery, La Forest and slightly West of Combles. All these positions are now held by the French. Their line touches the borders of Combles, which is a powerfully fortified position intended by the Germans to be an impregnable support for their second line.

15,000 State Troops Ordered Home From Mexican Border Duty

Washington, D. C.—Orders for the return to their state mobilization camps of 15,000 National guardsmen now on the Mexican border were issued by the War department Wednesday night.

General Funston was directed to return three regiments from New York, two from New Jersey, two from Illinois, two from Missouri and one each from California, Oregon, Washington and Louisiana.

Secretary Baker announced the order after a conference with President Wilson at the White House. Earlier in the day the department had ordered to their home stations 5000 regular coast artillerymen who have been serving as infantry on the border.

The secretary's statement said: "In view of the fact that substantially the number of troops who have not done patrol duty on the border are now on their way there, it is felt that this number can be spared."

In a few days, if transportation facilities remain undisturbed, the department intends to order home some more regiments.

Papers May Have to Quit.

New York—A large number of the daily newspapers of the United States will be forced to suspend publication on account of lack of paper if a nationwide railroad strike continues for two weeks, it was declared Thursday by Lincoln E. Palmer, manager of the American Newspaper Publishers' association.

"The print paper situation is acute, from causes entirely outside the problem of transportation, and many publishers are on a hand-to-mouth basis, getting a carload just as they exhaust the carload on hand."

Bird Treaty is Ratified.

Washington, D. C.—The Senate Wednesday night ratified treaties between the United States and Great Britain to protect migratory birds in the United States and Canada and extending to Porto Rico the terms of the convention of 1899, under which estates of British subjects dying in American territories are settled by diplomatic officers. The migratory bird treaty, a pact of wide scope, said to be the first of its kind ever negotiated, was signed by Secretary Lansing and the British ambassador.

Enraged Mob Injures Sheriff.

Lima, O.—Enraged at the success of Sheriff Sherman Eley in spiriting Charles Daniels, a negro accused of attacking Mrs. John Barber, young wife of a prominent farmer, out of their reach early Wednesday evening, a mob captured the sheriff, seriously wounded him, placed a noose around his neck and forced him to direct a cortege of a hundred automobiles into the rough country north of this city, where it was supposed the negro prisoner was in hiding.

Loading Charge Held Up.

Washington, D. C.—The Interstate Commerce commission Wednesday suspended until December 30 a proposal of Western roads to make a charge for loading and unloading shipments of less than carload lots.

The roads proposed to charge 1 1/2 cents per hundred pounds for such loading and unloading, a charge which would have materially increased revenue and which was to have gone into effect September 1.

Turning Sunshine Loose.

"It's a dark day," someone said to Brother Williams, "a very dark, hopeless day."

And then the old negro said: "Hit's as you look at it. But why don't you unlock do sunshine? Ain't you got some hid 'round do house some?—in some of 'em 'er that you clean for got? Sit 'round 'er 'round, and 'tude sunshine loose. It's dar—in yo house and heart."

"Here," the dark day mourner said, "here's a dollar for you, old man."

"Bless God!" Brother Williams said, "I knowed you'd sit 'round do sunshine! Hit was in yo pocket all do time!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Little Family.

Willie, a little country boy, 6 years of age, was taken one Sunday night to a large city church, where he saw for the first time a vested choir. To his mother's surprise and gratification he not only kept wide awake, but seemed greatly interested in every part of the service. At the close he turned to her and said, "I like this church, it is so nice to watch the preacher when he comes out with all his wives in their nightgowns."—London Saturday Journal.

ELDERLY WOMEN SAFEGUARDED

Tell Others How They Were Carried Safely Through Change of Life.

Durand, Wis.—"I am the mother of fourteen children and I owe my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I was 45 and had the Change of Life, a friend recommended it and it gave me such relief from my bad feelings that I took several bottles. I am now well and healthy and recommend your Compound to other ladies."

—Mrs. MARY RIDGWAY, Durand, Wis.

A Massachusetts Woman Writes: Blackstone, Mass.—"My troubles were from my age, and I felt awful sick for three years. I had hot flashes often and frequently suffered from pains. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now am well."

—Mrs. PIERRE COUROYER, Box 239, Blackstone, Mass.

Washington Wheat Market Hits High Marks

Walla Walla—Farmers declare they were offered $1.20 Saturday for club wheat. It is reported some small and very choice lots of bluestem and turkey red were sold at $1.21 to millers. Daniel Donovan this week sold 16,000 bushels of hybrid wheat, getting about $1.10 net.

Odesa—Another advance of 1 cent a bushel on the different grades of wheat was marked up. Prices are: Bluestem, $1.19, white Russian, $1.17, red and club $1.16.

Oakdale—Wheat holds steady, with some advance. About 25,000 bushels changed hands Saturday at from $1.12 to $1.16 a bushel. Saturday's quotation was $1.17 for wheat and $1.37 for oats.

Harvest Hands Needed in Eastern Oregon Grain Fields

Condon, Or.—Farmers throughout this section of Eastern Oregon are experiencing serious difficulty in securing necessary labor for harvesting their grain crop. In some districts it has been almost impossible to employ harvest hands, while the available supply of labor generally, unless recruited from other agricultural districts, will be inadequate for the proper harvesting of this crop.

Common labor in the harvest field is being paid $2.50 a day, while the more skilled labor is equally scarce, although the wage ranges from $3 to $4 a day.

Demand for Butter Is Poor.

Portland—The demand for country creamery butter was not active, and receivers report stocks climbing. At the Produce Exchange there were no bids on extras or prime firsts, which were offered at 23 1/2 cents and 23 1/2 cents, respectively. Firsts were offered at 27 cents and 26 cents was bid. Dairy butter sold at 22 1/2 cents. The egg market was also slow. Case cut was offered at 27 cents, and 26 cents was bid. Firsts were offered at 28 cents, with no bid. Tillamook triplets were offered at 16 1/2 cents, with no bid.

NERVOUS WOMEN!

It's The Same Everywhere In Oregon.

Portland, Oregon—"I was for six months troubled with nervousness, and the doctor said I had consumption. Through the advice of a friend I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was completely cured. I am now in middle life and am in good health."

Mrs. G. W. MATTHEW, 1476 E. 8th St., N. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is and has been for nearly 50 years just the medicine that every woman needs when passing through the changing days. It is not a secret prescription, for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper; it's a temperance medicine. Not only does it build up the entire system and make it strong and vigorous enough to withstand the organic disturbances, but it has a quieting effect upon the feminine organism that reduces the distress to a minimum. For any womanly ailment, disease or complaint, no matter of how long standing, we advise anxious women to get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, in either liquid or tablet form.

Bumper Crops Forecast.

Sheridan, Or.—Some hop picking in this vicinity will begin the first of next week, while the big run will start between September 8 and 11. A bumper yield is predicted by the growers this year. Estimates place the yield in this vicinity at 500 tons dried and baled. This means a 500 to 600 acreage of hops. Some of the larger yards have contracted their labor to Japanese pickers, but many of the growers are complaining of an early season lack of pickers. The prevailing wage to pickers is 80 cents a box.
