BREVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. O'Hara and Miss Ora Martin were visiting Monday in Walla Walla.

Miss Ora Martin of Tygh Valley arrived Saturday to attend her grandmother, Mrs. D. Gerberding.

Earl Rose was here this week for a visit with relatives and friends, while returning to Spokane from the Round-up.

Members of the Round Up board are seriously discussing the advisability of making a four-day affair of Pendleton's big show.

Mrs. Geo. Waddingham, Jr., and children of Walla Walla were visiting this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Compton.

The estate of the late Mrs. Maggie La Brascho-Franz has been valued at $14,449.39 by the appraisers, E. A. Dudley, W. E. Taylor and Cass Cannon.

Carl Johnson, a 14-year-old boy of Medford, had his fingers blown off explosion of some dynamite caps which he carelessly carried in his pocket.

Mrs. Carl McConnell was thrown from a buggy on Main street Monday, but escaped without injury. Another rig collided with the one she occupied, causing the accident.

Macksburg, Clackamas county, reports an average yield of oats throughout that district of 100 bushels per acre, as against an average throughout the United States of only 38 bushels.

The Bachelor Girls will hold a special meeting this evening with Mrs. Gilchrist of Pendleton, at the Mackenzie residence on east Main street. Plans will be discussed for the adoption of physical culture and expression work.

Will Kilgore has arrived from the Willamette valley, accompanied by his family, and will again become identified with the Weston country. Mr. Kilgore will take charge of his father's land holdings north of town, the lease of Earl Dudley having expired.

Hiawatha Rebekah Lodge No. 88, celebrated Tuesday evening the 65th anniversary of the foundation of the Rebekah degree with an interesting program of readings and music. Those who contributed to the evening's entertainment were Doris Barnes, Ruby James, Isabelle Mac Kean, Odessa Kirkpatrick, Gladys Smith and Josie Lavender.

The Bachelor Girls were entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Agnes Prentice, "Michael O'Hallahan," the latest work of Jean Stratton Porter, was read by the members. A fine repast was served, the dining room decorations being in green and gold, the club colors. Mrs. Mabel Graham was present as a guest. Miss Ruth Beau will be the hostess next Monday evening.

Pilot Rock Record—The editor was engaged in installing a cylinder press in the office of the Weston Leader during the latter part of last week. Colonel Wood, of the Leader, now has an all home-print paper of four pages, six column size. While at Weston we enjoyed some mighty fine meals cooked by Mr. Wood's mother, who is a past master of the culinary art.

Jackson Sundown, the 50-year-old Nez Perce Indian who won the bucking championship at the Round-up, will never ride again. He is through, he says, as he is getting too old to ride. He owns a number of bucking horses at home and intends to train Indian youths to ride in contests. Sundown was presented with a $350 prize saddle Monday. He asked that his wife's name be engraved upon it.

Wilfrid P. Jones, vice-president of the Northwestern National Bank, of Portland, visited this financial center Monday while on a tour of Eastern Oregon. Mr. Jones escaped uninterested, but would surely have expressed his admiration of this beautiful burg and its surroundings—being a man of judgment and discrimination. Should he come again he is invited to visit the Leader office and see a modern print shop.

A. L. Swaggart of Athens, the well known hog magnate, was in town on Wednesday looking up carpenters. Mr. Swaggart intends to follow the advice of the uplifters and go "back to the farm," being lucky enough to have a farm to go back to. It is located on LaMar gulch, where he expects to build a modern bungalow. He is still engaged in shipping porkers and is looking for stock in the Weston market. He is paying nine cents for top stuff.

FORD

The Universal Car

Three strong reasons urge you to buy the Ford car: First, because of its record of satisfactory service to more than fifteen hundred thousand owners; Second, because of the reliability of the Company which makes it; Third, because of its large radiator and enclosed fan, streamline hood, crown fenders front and rear, black finish, nickel trimmings, it is most attractive in appearance. To these must be added its wonderful economy in operation and maintenance—about two cents a mile; likewise the fact that by reason of its simplicity in construction anyone can operate and care for it. Touring Car $414.85. Roadster $399.85.

JACKSON SUNDOWN THE FIRST INDIAN CHAMPION

Jackson Sundown, Nez Perce Indian from Caldwell, Idaho, is the champion buckaroo of the world. He won the honor, the purse and the prize saddle simultaneously when he made his famous ride on the great buck, Angel, at the Round-up, in the final test at the Pendleton Round-up Saturday afternoon. 20,000 spectators he greatest number that has ever witnessed the epic drama of the West, saw Sundown ride the bucking, rearing, snorting, twisting outlaw animal, without rolls on his saddle and using his spurs on the horse at every jump.

and 30,000 voices cheered and roared shouting his name when the ride was ended and the judges had proclaimed him champion. Rufus Rollen of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Bob Hall of Independence, Oregon were the other two riders selected for the final test but their mounts did not show the stuff that made the great crowd rise to their feet when Angel did her best to unseat the veteran Sundown. We say veteran because the great Indian is past fifty years of age. He has ridden at five Round-ups and the decision of the judges in awarding him the world's championship is said to be the most popular decision ever made for this event.

Other features of the great three days exhibition were equally as interesting if not more so than in former years. The relay, pony express, cow-pony and standing races were all that could be asked for and most of these were decided by a few seconds in favor of the various winners. We publish a complete list of the winners of the main events elsewhere in this issue.

The grand Westward Ho parade on Saturday was declared greater even than in former years. Queen Muriel was crowned and reigned over the third great festival of 1916 Oregon history. The Roundup mounted band, Weston, La Grande, Athens, Milton and O.-W. R. & N. bands furnished music for the parade and at the park. The Indian parade was said to surpass in gorgeous splendor any previous event of its kind in the state. The immense crowds for the most part were very orderly and arrests were very few in number. The hospitality of Pendleton people in opening their homes to visitors and the accommodations otherwise were noteworthy and appreciated by the crowd.
