

TIMELY SPECIALS

MILLINERY

Mrs. Rabb, representing Miss Moore of Walla Walla, will be at our store THURSDAY of each week with a line of millinery.

OUTING FLANNELS

No end of patterns, soft, fleecy, beautiful, and practically at the old price.

Soft teazledown at only ..... 10c
 The best quality ..... 12½c and 15c
 Thousands of yards at only ..... 9c
 A few bundles short ends at only ..... 6c

UNDERWEAR

The Climax of Value Giving

Ladies' elastic ribbed vests or pants ..... 49c
 Fine ribbed soft fleece cotton union suits ..... 49c
 Fine ribbed extra weight cotton union suits ..... 69c
 Misses' and children's union suits ..... 49c
 Fine soft elastic wool union suits ..... $1.79 to $2.25
 (The kind that defies chills)

GIVE AWAY AIR SHIPS

With each boy's suit or pair of boy's shoes we will give free of charge an air ship---a most fascinating toy.

MEN'S SUITS

We carry the famous Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Clothcraft clothing—brands known to be the best.
 Young men's College Suits, a splendid assortment, $8.50 to $15.00

WESTON MERCANTILE COMPANY

Weston Meat Market

Prime Beef
 Pork, Mutton, Veal

Dressed Poultry
FISH Monday and Thursday
 Get Our Prices

Phone No. 53. Orders taken by phone for mail routes.
 Ten percent interest on all accounts after 30 days.

A. P. Perry

NOW'S THE TIME
 to pay your Weston Leader "sub"

$500,000

to loan on good wheat land at

6½%

F. G. LUCAS
 Real Estate and Loans
 Weston, Oregon

Dr. Alfred F. Sempert

Graduate and Registered

DENTIST

OFFICE HOURS
 9:00 to 12:00 A. M.
 1:00 to 5:00 P. M.

WATTS BLDG., upstairs

DR. C. H. SMITH
 Physician and Surgeon
 Office in Watts building
 WESTON OREGON

BREVITIES

One cow and two heifers, stock cattle, for sale. C. W. Metz.

Mrs. McMahon of Portland has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wood left Wednesday for Redmond, Oregon, to make their home.

Baking day is a snap with Cole's High Oven Range. The oven is shoulder high. Watts & Rogers.

Mrs. Clay Smith and children are here for a visit from her husband's homestead near Midvale, Idaho.

The Eastern Star ladies are arranging to give an entertainment in the near future for the benefit of their piano fund.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to kindly call and settle without further notice. Dr. S. L. Kennard.

The O. W. R. R. & N. has granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the Umatilla County Teachers' Institute, which opens in Pendleton November 1.

Earl Urquhart has sold his pool and billiard hall in Athena to Jock Coleman and Toke Bush, both of Pendleton, who already have painters and paper hangers at work with interior embellishment.

The Leader is advised by Secretary of State Olcott that up to October 12 the registrations in Oregon had reached a total of 264,445. It is estimated that between five and eight thousand more will yet enroll their names.

An invitation has been extended to and accepted by the ladies of the Saturday Afternoon Club to meet with the ladies of the Milton Improvement Club on October 31 (Hallowe'en) at the home of Mrs. J. F. Slover. Luncheon at 1 p. m. will be followed by the club program.

Smythe Bros.' blooded sheep hopped, skipped and jumped through Weston Tuesday in two bands, numbering 4500 head of fine merinos. They are in tip top condition and represent an actual money value of $45,000 or more. The sheep are being taken from mountain range to the alfalfa fields of Hudson Bay.

Mrs. R. G. Saling, Weston's gifted soprano soloist, sang at the big Republican rally in Pendleton Tuesday evening and met with a generous response from the large audience present. Her first offering was encored with enthusiasm, and the second number also received flattering applause. Her accompanist was Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt. Mrs. Saling was highly complimented and received invitations to sing for the Thursday Afternoon Club and the Umatilla County Teachers' Institute. Mr. and Mrs. Saling were among the guests at the banquet which followed the rally.

While an unusually long period of beautiful weather has marked the autumn in this locality, beautiful weather is not exactly what the farmers need at present. Rain is wanted, and Jupiter is sleeping. A few of the farmers are seeding, but the majority of them prefer to wait for the delayed rains. There is considerable moisture in the soil, but it is thought to be insufficient to insure uniform germination.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McEas, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price, Mayor and Mrs. J. M. Banister, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. James Compton were among the Weston people who went to Walla Walla Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Alexander Kinnear.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. MacKenzie have located at Lewistown, Montana, and have thoughtfully ordered the Leader sent to their address at 1017 W. Boulevard. Mr. MacKenzie writes that he is highly pleased with the country in that part of Montana.

The Bachelor Girls were entertained last Monday evening by Miss Ethel Waddingham. Committees were appointed to arrange for a Hallowe'en ball—an invitation affair—which will be given Saturday evening, October 28th.

Colonel Fred Boyd of the Athena Press and Judge B. B. Richards were among Weston's most distinguished suburban visitors of the week. They were here Monday and called on the Leader to see a real printing office.

Clarence Hand, a popular young farmer of the Dry Creek neighborhood, left this week for Forest Grove to remain during the winter.

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Orval Duncan at the home of Mr. Duncan's mother near Weston.

Joe Hodgson, the jovial owner of Meadowbrook farm, has invested part of his harvest proceeds in a new Buick car.

A class in Bible Study for teachers has been organized in connection with the work of the Methodist Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Heick motored to Echo Sunday for a visit with friends. They were accompanied by Miss Cogswell and Miss Noren, of the Weston school faculty.

Harvey Martin, formerly a councilman and leading citizen of Weston, arrived Tuesday from Tygh valley for a visit at the bedside of Mrs. D. Gerberding. He has followed farming for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woods returned Saturday from a visit with relatives and friends at Moro, where they attended the Sherman county fair. Mr. Woods says that an especially interesting exhibit was made by the experimental station.

G. H. Bishop, mayor of Freewater and democratic candidate for district attorney, was in town Tuesday for a few hours' stay. Mr. Bishop's supporters in this bailiwick, among whom the Leader man is glad to be reckoned, feel confident that Weston will give him the large vote to which he is entitled by reason of his excellent qualifications.

Death of A. Kinnear

Alexander Kinnear, a prominent and highly respected pioneer farmer of the Weston neighborhood, died Friday from paralysis at his home in Walla Walla, 825 Valencia street. He had been in ill health for a number of years.

Mr. Kinnear was born near Cornwall, Canada, November 20, 1888, and was brought up and received his education in that section. When a young man he married Margaret Haley, the family living in Canada until 1881, when they moved to Weston. There the family lived until November, 1915, when they moved to Walla Walla.

Six children survive, as follows: George Kinnear, of Weston; Ralph Kinnear of Milton; Mrs. Ralph Lane of Portland; Lloyd, Minnie and Earl Kinnear of Walla Walla.

The funeral services were held Sunday at Walla Walla, and were attended by a large number of friends of the bereaved family from the Weston neighborhood.

The Farmers Bank of Weston

Established 1891

What provisions are you making for the winter time of life?

Are you laying anything aside? You'll need it some day.

Store up a little in this bank each month for the future.

Roy W. Ritner

Republican Candidate for State Representative

(For re-election)

Farmer and Business Man

[Paid Advertisement.]

Butter Wrappers

Furnished and Printed at the Leader office

GOLDEN RULE HOTEL Pendleton Oregon

Well-Appointed Conveniently Located Pleasant
 Comfortable Reasonable Rates

J. M. Bentley, Prop. -- M. A. Ferguson, Clerk