BREVITIES

See E. E. Zehm, for sheet iron for hog vats.

Henri March was called to Pendleton Tuesday on a business trip.

"Call a taxi!" Lufe McBride's is always at your disposal. Phone 92.

For Rent--The Phillips cottage on Washington street. See Watts & Rogers.

E. E. Zehm has sold two high test milch cows to a Pendleton dairyman for $150.

A daughter was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. John York, at their home on Water street.

Ernie Blomgren has been kept at home several days this week with an attack of la grippe.

The deposits of the two Pendleton banks have reached the record-breaking total of $5,600,000.

Baker, Oregon, is threatened with a serious coal famine, and its mayor has appealed to the railroads.

At the school meeting Monday a levy of eight mills was voted in accordance with the published budget.

How would you like it if we kept some of you waiting for your repairs, hardware, etc., as you keep us waiting for our pay? Watts & Rogers.

Mrs. Mark Ray was operated on at Walla Walla Monday for the relief of stone in the kidney, by Drs. Sutner and Hill of that city and Dr. Smith of Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bartholomew of Stanfield were guests Tuesday of the E. G. Salings while on their return home from the Schumann-Heink concert at Walla Walla.

Will Price was out in the Couse creek country last week, garnishing the farm residence of Frank Winn with fresh paint and new wall paper. He is now doing over the interior of the Weston Baths and Tailor Shop.

Rex Payne, captain of the basket ball team of the Athena High School, will be prevented for a time from playing his position at center because of a badly sprained arm. With two other boys he was spilled out of a buggy during a runaway.

A light vote was cast at the annual city election Monday, as there was but one ticket in the field. Weston's official family continues the same as heretofore with the exception that one new member, Marvin Pripe, will occupy a seat at the aldermanic table. Threatened opposition to the primary ticket did not materialize, and the election was as quiet and peaceable as a Quaker conference. The Leader man is inclined to think, however, that he has a cigar coming from Mayor Banister in return for the loyal support that would have been forthcoming if needed.

Both the boys' and girls' basketball teams of the Weston High school are now in active practice to prepare themselves for the season's games, which are already scheduled. The first contest will be a double header affair and will take place Friday, December 15, at Athena with the Athena High. Miss Cogswell is coaching the girls' teams, but the boys are yet without the services of a mentor. Notwithstanding the loss of a number of stars by graduation, it is said that some promising material is available.

The Weston Welfare club held an interesting meeting Thursday evening with President J. H. Price in the chair. Several matters relating to town betterment were discussed, and a committee was elected to report ways and means of securing improvement of the depot road, which is on railroad company ground. Its members are Mayor Banister, E. M. Smith and Dr. F. D. Watts.

One of the Leader man's most agreeable tasks of the week was that of writing out receipts to the following subscribers--and his pencil is not yet dull: Otis Reynolds, A. L. Douglas, Mrs. Walter Webb, Frank Skinner, A. Richal, F. W. Hoffman, W. S. Banister, Geo. J. Waddingham, Chris Thoeny, Harry Shick, J. H. Clodius, V. L. Marr, Gus Rambo, J. E. Jones.

Since taking the civil service examination for postoffice employees at Pendleton last February--which he passed with the second highest grade in a class of eleven--Andy T. Barnett has received a number of offers of positions. He has decided, however, to remain in Weston, being content with his present work as city recorder and assistant postmaster.

The Astoria Flouring Mills Company has awarded contracts for $30,000 worth of additional machinery.

ANCIENT ANESTHETICS.

Nepenthe and Other Agents Were Used by Old Time Surgeons.

Those who imagine that surgical knowledge began with later generations and that the discovery of chloroform revolutionized the science should read an article published by Dr. J. de Fonten in the South African Journal of Science.

Various anesthetizing media and methods were well known both in antiquity and during the middle ages. Homer mentions the anesthetic effects of nepenthe; Herodotus states that the Scythians used similar effects from the vapors of hemp, produced by throwing hemp seed on hot stones. A Chinese physician of the third century, B. C., gave his patients a preparation of hemp to make them insensible during surgical operations.

The most important anesthetic of ancient and medieval times was, however, wine of mandragora, the use of which is mentioned by a great number of early writers and is referred to by Shakespeare. More recently, in the year 1700, the German surgeon, Weiss, better known as Albino, amputated the foot of Augustus III, king of Poland, while under the influence of mandragora.

Two other anesthetizing agencies were employed in very early times, arterial compression and hypnotism.

BIG LOAVES OF BREAD.

In France They Are Made From Four to Six Feet in Length.

The biggest loaves of bread baked to be eaten are those made in France and Italy. In the case of the pipe bread of the latter country the loaves are between two feet and three feet in length and occasionally even longer, while the French people make their loaves in the shape of very long rolls of bread, ranging from four feet to five feet and in a few instances even to six feet in length.

Bread in Paris is distributed almost exclusively by women. These go to the various bakerhouses at 5:30 a. m. and spend about an hour in brushing the long loaves with special brushes. When their load is cleaned of grit and dust the portouse de pain goes the round to the customers.

Customers who live in flats have their loaves propped up against the doors of their apartments. Shopkeepers, restaurateurs and other customers who have entrances to their premises in the street find their portions of the staff of life leaning against their front doors when they take down the shutters. The wages of these bread carriers vary from 2 shillings to 2s. 6d. a day, their work being generally over at 10 or 12 o'clock in the morning.--London Tit-Bits.

Our Longest Canal.

The longest canal in the United States is the Erie canal, which covers a distance of 387 miles. The Florida East Coast canal is 350 miles long and runs from Mayport, Fla., to Miami. The Miami and Erie canal, between Cincinnati and Toledo, O., is 274 miles long. There are three canals in Pennsylvania, the Schuylkill Navigation company, between Mill Creek and Philadelphia, 108 miles; the Pennsylvania, between Columbia, Northumberland and Wilkesbarre, 103 miles, and the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, between Coalport and Easton, 108 miles long. The longest canal in Europe is the Berlin-Stettin, 120, and the next longest, the Suez, 103 miles.--Philadelphia Press.

Beauty of Zambesi Falls.

To realize fully the wondrous beauty of the Zambesi falls, Rhodesia, one must have time to linger and watch the ever changing scene. The depths of the chasm below are veiled from sight by the rising columns of opalescent mist, and above the yawning abyss the sun glints and sparkles, weaving the drops into a magnificent rainbow. Three hundred feet below roars and boils the swirling food as it emerges from the Boiling Pot, rushing on down the sizzling gorge between towering cliffs of rock, narrow, fierce and of unfathomable depth.--African World.

She Was Frank.

The moving picture director was having trouble in getting one of the scenes right. The girl was supposed to resist an attempt to kiss her, but the rehearsal was far from satisfactory.

"Think, now," said the director, coaching her, "haven't you ever tried to stop a young man from kissing you?"

"No," was the girl's frank reply.--London Answers.

Modern Superciliousness.

"My ancestors came over in the Mayflower."
"Yes?" rejoined Mrs. Cumrox. "I understand that the fare was really quite low. But, gracious me, the boat must have been terribly overcrowded."
--Washington Star.

Fairly Warned.

Cholly--Before I met you I thought of nothing but making money. Ethel--Well, keep right on! Pop ain't so rich as folks think!--Dallas News.

A Matter of Taste.

The Woman--I'd rather live on bread and water than on charity. The Tramp--Yes, mum; there's no s'menthin' for taste.--Philadelphia Ledger.

Luck counts once in a while; brains count all the time.--W. H. Lough.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Umatilla County.

Nita Joyce Muilenberg, Plaintiff, vs.
John B. Muilenberg, Defendant.
To the Defendant, John B. Muilenberg:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above court, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication herewith to-wit, the 15th day of December, 1916, and if you fail so to answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint on file herein, to-wit, for a decree of divorce forever dissolving the marriage now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, for the restoration of her maiden name, Nita Joyce Calhoun, and for such further relief as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is served upon you by order of the Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, Judge of the above entitled Court, which order is dated the 28th day of October, 1916. The date of the first publication is the 3d day of November, 1916, and of the last publication is the 15th day of December, 1916.
