

YELLOW TAG SALE ENDS FEBRUARY 10

Davis-Kaser's Yellow Tag Sale will end Saturday, February 10th. Just about one week left of this really important money saving opportunity. If you have not taken full advantage of this chance to save on things for the home, you should by all means do so now. Remember, double savings now—good reductions (mostly 10 to 25 per cent) from our usual under-the-market, fixed, same-to-all prices, and heading off the advances which you will surely have to pay a little later.

But do not delay a single day. Come the very first chance. You know how quickly a week can slip by. Better save than be sorry. Do it now.

Regular customers who have not bought because they did not feel like sparing the cash now, will be accommodated by accepting their notes payable on or before November 1st, but no goods can be charged on open accounts at sale prices.

BREVITIES

Jack Calder has been occupied during the week with a plumbing contract at Helix.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saling and son Olney were visiting in Weston yesterday from Pendleton.

Mrs. Joe Hyatt returned yesterday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Hodgson, at La Crosse.

Pianos tuned and repaired at reasonable prices. First-class work guaranteed. A. W. Lundell, Mus. Bach.

I have for sale for a client 500 shares of stock in the Weston Mercantile Company for $450 cash. Andy T. Barnett.

Donald McKinnon, formerly a pioneer farmer of the Weston neighborhood, died recently at his home near Nanton, N. W. T.

Elmer Richmond has sold his fine farm near Athena consisting of 320 acres to A. A. McIntyre for $41,000. It is said that Mr. Richmond contemplates investing in land near Walla Walla.

A short program and basket social will be given at the Wild Horse school house Friday evening, February 9. Everyone is invited to attend. The ladies are requested to bring baskets.

The W. C. T. U. met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Letha King, and had a very interesting session. Mrs. R. L. Reynaud, Mrs. Susan Tucker, Mrs. Rosie Tucker, Mrs. Hattie Wilsey and Mrs. J. E. Walden joined the Union.

Roy Read left yesterday for La Crosse, Wash., to engage in farming, and is followed by the best wishes of a host of Weston friends. Roy has been succeeded by Virgil Lundell in the grocery department of the Weston Mercantile Co.

The following pupils from Weston are attending the Holt caterpillar school at Spokane, and it is safe to say that none of them will play "hooky": Iley Winn, John Banister junior, Henry Banister, Scott Banister, Roy Hyatt and Sim J. Culley.

Vernie Marr and family have gone to Umapine for a few weeks' visit prior to leaving for Durkee, Or., to locate. Mr. Marr returned last Friday from his first trip to Oregon's metropolis, and gives it his unqualified approval. He visited his sister, who is chief operator in the Bell telephone office.

The dull weather and leaden skies which marked the close of January were brightened for the Leader man by timely contributions of shining sestrees and metallic mazuma from the following subscribers: Eph Tucker, Jake Narkaus, Oregon Agricultural College, W. H. Beathe, O. M. Richmond, C. H. Nelson, J. F. Killgore, S. T. Gore and The First National Bank of Athena.

Pendleton will hold its first annual automobile show February 15, 16 and 17, and the finest showing of motor cars ever made in the Inland Empire is expected. Thirty-five different models of pleasure cars, all new, will be on display. The show will take place in Happy Canyon pavilion, under auspices of the Pendleton Automobile Association, each afternoon and evening of the three days, and there will be musical programs each evening.

With more than 14,000 votes to spare, Miss Ethel Waddingham won the Pendleton Tribune's California trip as the candidate from this district, her nearest competitor being Miss Jessie Perkins of Freewater. She was not far behind the leader of the entire contest, who wins the Astoria town lot. Miss Waddingham is overjoyed, and desires through the Leader to express her gratitude to the many friends who made her victory possible. The community itself is pleased, as Miss Waddingham is one of its most popular and estimable girls. She is employed as accountant in the store of Watts & Rogers.

While slimly attended, the band concert Tuesday evening was a pronounced success from the standpoint of its musical excellence and the showing of continued improvement made by the organization. In fact, the band is now approaching professional standards and would do credit to a town of ten times Weston's population. Having invested about $2300 and being under constant expense, it has nearly reached the limit of its resources, and may not long survive the cold encouragement accorded by this community. Its capable director, Mr. Lundell, has offers to go elsewhere, but remains here for the reason that he sees a future for the Weston Concert Band.
