

Music the Fourth Essential

It is said that the first essential in life is Food, the next Raiment, the next Shelter and the next Music. Without music the best in life shrivels and shrinks. Music is the universal language, and the fourth essential in the full development of life.

Davis-Kaser's are splendidly equipped to serve you in providing your needs in this direction.

Here are the wonderful new Edison Disc Phonographs and Records.

Here is a splendid line of Pianos embracing everything from the highest of high grades to the most moderate priced ones, and all at prices that save you money.

Here are several grades of Modern, Up-to-date Player Pianos, and the latest and greatest marvel, the Ampico Reproducing Piano. The Ampico actually reproduces the work of the world's greatest pianists exactly as played by them, without any attention except putting in the roll and starting it. It can also be used as a player piano, using any 88 note roll. The reproducing mechanism does not interfere the least bit when played manually.

Easy terms if wanted, and a fair allowance for old pianos in exchange.

Call, phone or write for further details.

The R. G. Sailings are doing over the interior of their cottage, which will have a built in china closet and book and music cases.

Mrs. Effie Perkins of Palouse, Wash., niece of W. H. Booher, was a guest Saturday at the Booher farm. She has also been visiting at Athena.

The "Mothers' Meeting" will be held at the opera house Saturday, February 24, at 2:30 p. m. All the ladies of Weston and vicinity are cordially invited to attend.

W. F. Alexander, the magazine and road man of Walla Walla, was in town Tuesday. "Alex" thinks that the prospects of a fine highway across the Blues are growing brighter every minute.

The city pound contains ten head of horses, six of which will be sold today by the chief of police. Four colts were taken in last Tuesday, and will be sold later unless redeemed by the owners.

John Edwards and his sons Oscar and Ernest were here from Morrow county Tuesday while on a motor car trip to Walla Walla. Mr. Edwards was one of the earliest pioneers of the Weston country.

A driving snow in small flakes descended here Tuesday and showed that Winter is not yet ready to relinquish his reign, but after seeing the Mawson pictures of Antarctic blizzards Weston folk felt fairly comfortable.

Daily Journal: President Moser's stenographer was paid $410 for the session. Ten dollars a day for a stenographer who in private employ receives little if any more than $3 is a small but significant example of waste when the public foots the bill.

The East Oregonian of Tuesday reports that "the case of Watts & Rogers, Weston hardware dealers, versus F. G. Lucas was settled out of court this morning, the defendant permitting judgment to be taken. The case was set for trial this week."

Henry S. Westbrook of Portland, grand master of the Odd Fellows, will be in Weston Tuesday, February 27, and will visit the local lodge. An open meeting will be arranged for, to be attended by Odd Fellows and their wives and members of the Rebekahs.

Sylvan Kennard and Cyril Proebstel have finished the banking course in the Los Angeles business college where they have been students for several months. Sylvan will remain in Los Angeles, where he has secured a position. Cyril goes to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where he will be employed by his uncle, Charles Proebstel.

Lou Bulin of Bingham Springs went fishing last week, and in jumping across a stream slipped and fell, breaking his leg. He was two miles from camp, with five feet of snow on the ground. He broke up his fish pole and made splints for his leg. After he had crawled a mile and a half over the snow, Forest Ranger Baker and W. W. Hoch rescued him, and he is now in a Pendleton hospital.

George Tonkin, deputy game warden, visited the Finland settlement southeast of town a few days ago and arrested Jake Aalta for killing deer out of season. He was accompanied on the mountain trip by Carl Brutscher, special deputy, and they found both cooked and fresh venison in the Aalta cabin. Several other houses were searched, but only in the one instance was the evidence found to be conclusive. Aalta was taken to Pendleton, where he received a fine of $50 and the court costs. His gun was confiscated.

ROME'S SEVEN PILLARS

This is the subject of the first of a series of Sunday evening sermons on the most hurtful heresies of the present time. The widespread agitation in opposition to the claim of infallibility and absoluteism made by Roman Catholicism for the Pope and his church, is sufficient evidence that the people are becoming aroused to the danger embodied in this subtle foe of enlightenment and democracy. They are asking the pertinent question, "How can any one be a citizen of a republic or a democracy who has sworn allegiance to the Pope—seeing that he arrogates to himself absolute sovereignty of the world, answerable to none but God; and teaches, 'All human power is from evil, and must therefore be standing under the Pope?'" The awakening has come none too soon, but the danger is that other things may demand the people's attention and they be lulled to sleep again. Do not miss this opening sermon, as Rome's doctrines will be read as she herself has published them and after that the seven pillars upon which her structure is built will be examined.

"The Ministry of Pain" will be the subject of the morning sermon. Why do people suffer? is a question each individual has often asked. Have you answered it satisfactorily yourself? If you have, give the pastor your solution. If not, perhaps he can help you. Come and see.

United Brethren Church, Sunday, February 25. F. A. Phelps.
