

SEW ON A WHITE HOW ABOUT YOUR SPRING SEWING?

Your sewing becomes a pleasure if you have an improved White Rotary Sewing Machine. 'Tis so durable and simple that it is virtually never out of order, yet parts may be had any time if required. It is so perfectly fitted, adjusted and balanced that it is wonderfully easy-running, quiet and free from that nerve-racking vibration. Anyone can sew, tuck, hem, gather, shirr and darn on this wonderful machine. It runs one-fourth faster than any vibrating machine. We are anxious to have you come and see for yourself—make us show you these things are true.

Our prices represent the biggest values to be had anywhere. You can't get as much value in any other make, although many ask more. If you pay less you sacrifice at least $2 for every dollar of the difference in price. We would be foolish to make such claims if we could not prove them. Give us the chance—that costs you nothing.

No. 35. Automatic Lift Drop Head Style; six drawers (four large and two small) in rich, quartered Golden Oak. Our price $42.50.

No. 60. New Sit-Strate model, needle directly in front of operator, four large drawers, automatic lift Drop Head, quartered Golden Oak, $42.50.

No. 40. Portable White Electric, the latest, a great boon to those who sew constantly or are weak. A seven-speed motor, regulated by the foot trip, attached to head of machine. Price $55.00.

Heavy 26-inch hog wire fencing at 27 cents cash per rod. Watts & Rogers.

W. L. Robbins, the Weston miller, was absent during the week on a business trip to Everett.

Pianos tuned and repaired at reasonable prices. First-class work guaranteed. A. W. Lundell, Mus. Bach.

I have for sale for a client 500 shares of stock in the Weston Mercantile Company for $150 cash. Andy T. Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Chapin left last week for their home at Indian Valley, Idaho, after an extended visit at the farm of their son, J. W. Chapin.

The local library board will hold its monthly meeting at the library next Monday at 2:30 p. m. and all the members are requested to be present.

Miss Ethel Waddingham was back at her desk Tuesday morning in Watts & Rogers' store, having returned from her California excursion with the Tribune party.

Accompanying Emery Staggs and R. L. Tuttle, Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Kennard motored to Walla Walla Saturday in an enclosed Dodge car to see the automobile show.

Until further notice we will allow all patrons who pay their bills in cash before the 10th of each month a discount of three percent. This applies to all bills contracted after February 1st. Weston Mercantile Co.

Chance Rogers has been excused from jury service for the reason—well, we will not go so far as to say that it was because Umatilla county wants intelligent jurors. Maybe the court didn't want to take a Chance.

Marion, the young son of Marion O'Harra, was operated upon for appendicitis at Pendleton Monday by Dr. Parker of that city and Dr. Smith of Weston. The trouble was of long standing and had reached such a critical stage that the boy's condition is very serious.

Miss Artonia Davenport, formerly of the Weston teaching corps, is now in charge of the primary work of the Leo Summit, Missouri, schools, and will have a position next year in Warrensburg college. Her mother, Mrs. Lucy Davenport, who was with her at Weston, is conducting a boarding house for students at Warrensburg.

Rev. W. S. Payne returned Monday from Richland, Wash., where he conducted a two weeks' revival resulting in 17 conversions. For the preceding two weeks he conducted a meeting at Echo, where 30 converts were brought into the fold. During the winter Mr. Payne had 14 calls for evangelical work which he was unable to accept.

P. A. and T. L. McBride added this week to their land holdings on Wild Horse by the purchase of 80 acres from J. E. Scrimsher, and now own 300 acres in that locality. Their newly-acquired tract is very choice, and cost them a little better than $10,000. Not long ago the McBride boys sold an eighty near Weston to Lester Wilsey. This piece corners on and will round out the Wilsey holdings. The McBrides intend living on their Wild Horse place this summer.

The right of way agent of the O-W. R. & N. Co. was here last week securing rights of way for filling the Dry creek and Pine creek trestles. He conducted negotiations with G. W. Staggs, whose farm residence is under the Dry creek trestles, and with the McBride boys and Hezekiah Key, who own ground needed for the Pine creek fill. It is said that the company will secure the material needed for the work from its right of way along Dry creek. The highest trestle between Pendleton and Spokane, that at Alto hill, will also be filled. The cost of filling this one trestle, it is said, is estimated at $170,000.

Handsome new coupon bonds for the City of Weston have been received at the local bank from the Lumbermen's Trust company of Portland—which has bought the entire issue at par, $14,000, and sent a certified check along with the printed bonds. The coupons bear engraved copies of the signatures of Mayor J. M. Banister and Recorder Andy T. Barnett, but the bonds themselves must be signed by these officers, and the return of Mayor Banister from California is awaited. The bonds mature in from seven to twenty years, are issued in denominations of $500 and bear 5 1/2 per cent interest. They were issued to redeem outstanding scrip and put the city on a cash basis.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the "Bachelor Girls' Club" was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Staggs, Mrs. James Beamer acting as hostess. Some 11 guests were present, and all entered whole-heartedly into the joys of candy making, corn popping, fancy work, music, etc. Dainty refreshments were served, bringing the delightful evening to a close.

Albert Baker, forest ranger at Bingham Springs station, reports witnessing an attack made by a bald eagle on a band of deer. The eagle would swoop down upon the band and strike one of the animals with such force as to prostrate it. The ranger was unable to see the finish, as the deer fled over a ridge. He thinks the deer escaped fatal injury by taking to the brush.
