

Good Washing Machines

Any machine sold by us must be good, must give satisfaction to the user, for all our machines are "money backed;" besides, our long established policy is that no transaction is closed until the customer is satisfied. This protection, this insurance against dissatisfaction and possible loss is an important item, yet it costs our customers nothing, for our prices are at least as low—in many cases lower—than quoted elsewhere. Our line is large, embracing everything from a Hand Power Washer at $5.50 to a machine equipped with its own gasoline motor at $87.50. Our Water Power Washer at $22.50 costs a little more than others, but it is durable, effective and has a motor that really works right. Electric Power Washers are here at from $39.50 to $75.00.

Freight paid by us on any machine costing $10.00 or purchase of other goods to that amount.

Full line of wringers, baskets, lines, sad irons, ironing boards, etc., also here.

The High Cost of Living can be materially reduced by doing laundry work at home. With a good Washer the housewife can have her washing on the line early without being "fagged out."

BREVITIES

Found—One mile south of town, a ladies' coat. E. W. Boyts.

B. P. R. eggs at 50 cents per setting of 15. Mrs. L. S. Wood.

Miss Sayde NorDean of Spokane is visiting her parents and friends in this city.

J. A. Ross is driving a new Ford touring car, bought last week of H. L. Hedrick at the local garage.

The postponed meeting of the local library board will be held next Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the library building.

Carl McConnell and family motored up from Adams Sunday in their new Ford, and were guests of the Lee Wilsons at the Banister farm.

Cass Matlock, a Pendleton pioneer widely known throughout this section of the state, died at his home in that city Monday morning at the age of 80 years.

Miss Hope Beeler and Miss Lois Porter attended the recent "Patriotic Day" celebration at Pendleton and were guests at the home of Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis.

Alex Walker has returned to his home in Montavilla from San Francisco, where he spent the winter. Mr. Walker has been in poor health during the winter, and is still under the doctor's care.

John Lunde and John Elmore, the two young men caught in the act of stealing brass from the county electrical sub station near Weston, pleaded guilty Monday and were sentenced to from one to ten years in the pen.

The society page of Tuesday morning's Oregonian contained a likeness of Mrs. Arthur Clement Brown, formerly Miss Lulu Duncan of Weston, saying that she was a bride of last week. Mr. Brown is a resident of Vancouver.

The Leader is advised by the Multnomah Hotel of Portland that "P. T. Harbour of your city is registered at this hotel." We are left in doubt, however, whether the chief distinction accrues to "Pink" or to Portland's magnificent hostelry.

Charley Moore, who brought a suit case full of whisky into Pendleton from Montana, was sentenced by Judge Phelps Monday to pay a fine of $100 and serve 30 days in the county jail. This is taken to indicate that Judge Phelps is disposed to show no leniency toward violators of the bone dry law.

The matter of a suitable observance of Decoration Day was taken up at Tuesday evening's meeting of the commercial club. A. W. Lundell, J. F. Snider and W. A. Barnes were appointed as a committee to co-operate with a similar committee from the Odd Fellows, whose members are S. A. Barnes, J. A. King and W. H. Gould.

S. A. Barnes was in Pendleton Saturday attending the meeting of trustees of the Eastern Oregon Highway association. He says the gathering was an enthusiastic one, with every trustee in the county present, and that full confidence was felt that the road bonding measure will carry. Only a few Willamette valley counties are considered doubtful.

"It pays to advertise," especially if you have found a full purse for which you really want to locate the owner. The Leader had scarcely appeared last week before Ransom Lieuallen had a call for the purse which he picked up on Water street in front of the McBride barn. It belonged to Press Mitchell, and as it contained about $60 he was delighted to recover it.

Since last reports the Leader has received with becoming joy divers monies from the following patrons in payment of their subscriptions: Thomas Narkaus, J. A. Stolp, W. S. Payne, S. F. Wilson, Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis, R. E. Gore, Henri March, M. L. Hastings, Roy Tompkins, Harry Minnick, A. C. Knudson, P. T. Harbour, Mary Lansdale, G. H. Sams, Mrs. V. T. Davidson, Joe Cannon.

A jolly crowd of the "Bachelor Girls" gathered at the home of Miss Lois Porter Monday evening for their regular social and business meeting. The evening was enjoyably passed at fancy work, and a very dainty luncheon, suggesting the club colors—gold and green—was served by the hostess, assisted by her guest, Miss Hope Beeler. The following officers were elected: Zella Gould, president; Lois Porter, vice president; Leola Duncan, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Zella Gould, and each member will be allowed to invite one guest.

"Fat" Wood and "Pody" Duncan were here Saturday and Sunday from Prospect farm, where they have been busy seeding the spring crop with the effective aid of a Yuba caterpillar. They had already put in about 400 acres and had nearly 150 more to seed. Then they will begin the task of plowing 700 acres for next year's harvest. They say that Prospect farm suffered no damage whatever from the recent heavy wind in the Echo country, which in some localities blew the grain out of the ground.

George Schnitzer has returned from the Pendleton hospital, having in a measure recovered from a serious accident which befell him last week. He tumbled thirty feet out of a tree, and while badly bruised and suffering internal injuries, considers himself fortunate to have escaped with no broken bones.

Miss Rene Banister was operated upon Tuesday at Portland for appendicitis, and is reported to be progressing favorably toward recovery. Her parents, Mayor and Mrs. J. M. Banister, are with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goodwin arrived Tuesday from Portland, where their wedding was recently solemnized, and have taken the Blomgren residence on Normal Heights.
