A badly disappointed young man is Carl Johnson, son of Alick Johnson, one of the substantial farmers of the Weston country. George Bradley, former county treasurer, was in town Tuesday demonstrating for an eastern factory which manufactures new treads for old tires. It looks like a proposition which will pay George a lot better than the county treasurer's office, and we are almost inclined to congratulate him on his defeat by Miss Gilliam. He has just begun to work his territory, which includes Umatilla and Walla Walla counties.

Pilot Rock had a flag raising day Saturday. According to the Record, "patriotic feeling must have been running at fever heat that day because the boys had the long pole on the ground, the hole was dug, the pole raised and the foot of the pole set in six feet of concrete almost as quick as you could bat your eye. The large flag presented to the mayor last week was then hoisted 74 feet in the air amid deafening cheers. The finishing touches were applied a few days later when Ed Smith put an electric light several feet above the top of the pole and each night Old Glory can be seen for miles."

Bed Spring Poem

E. O. DeMoss, the Furniture King,
Has a nobby line to show this Spring.
Linoleums and rugs to cover your floor—
All goods for the home fill up the store.
Rockers, dressers, or a dining room set;
And for the kitchen a swell cabinet.
Carriages for baby, and high chairs too,
Ironing boards, sweepers—we have a few,
Folding tables, for the young and the old;
Wall papers—all colors, from green to old gold.
A mattress, a spring, complete bed or cot;
Window shades, picture frames—and goodness,
What not?
A library table, chiffonier—perhaps
A book case, or desk, to fill up the gaps.
Now the prices are right—come in when you can.
Yours truly, DEMOSS, the Furniture Man.
