

CITY LIGHT for the Country Home

You need no longer put up with the bad smelling, greasy, dirty, dim oil lamp. Your home can be lighted with all the brilliance and glare of the city ballroom by the use of an AIR-O-LITE. Makes more light than 20 oil lamps. No odor, no greasy wick, and no dirty chimney to clean. Safer than an oil lamp—an AIR-O-LITE may be overturned or rolled around with perfect safety; impossible to explode it. Costs about one-third of a cent per hour for a 300 candle power light. The wind cannot blow it out. You can carry it from the house to the barn in a strong wind and it will remain lighted.

Price of AIR-O-LITE Lamp, complete—Cat. No. 11 B 307, $8.00.

Price of AIR-O-LITE Lantern, complete—Cat. No. 11 B 899, $8.50.

Shipped by Parcel Post, PREPAID, to any address.

Tanned and happy, Robert Proudfit and Frank Graham returned Monday to their respective jobs, after two weeks at Bingham, where they were accompanied by Mrs. Proudfit and Mrs. Graham. These boys are accomplished fishermen and assert that each day they caught the limit—albeit the Leader man has had no concrete evidence of the fact. One day Proudfit met up with a cinnamon bear and two cubs and neglected to fish for awhile while trying to break the sprint record. This he nearly succeeded in doing until he discovered that the bear were making equally good time in the opposite direction.

Preston Dewitt, an employe on the Dupuis ranch near Nolin, claims to have been bitten by a dead rattlesnake, reports the Echo News. At least the supposition is that the snake was dead, for its head was separated from its body at the time. Dewitt seized the snake by the tail and popping it whip fashion, jerked the head from the body. The head struck one of his hands and the fangs were imbedded in the flesh. Prompt first aid appears to have prevented the poison from affecting Dewitt.

Be a Worker—Not an Idler

Opportunity consists in doing the things others neglect to do.

If you are sound and not living honestly on your own income, you are living dishonestly on the income of others. The world owes no sound, sane man a living unless he works for it.

Make an opportunity to put a few dollars in the bank while making is good. Dollars may be harder to get a little later.
