

The Outside View of the House

Did it ever occur to you that hundreds of people see your home from the outside for every one who sees the inside?

What they notice mostly is your windows and how they are trimmed. It's the windows that give expression, character to the house.

Smiling, attractive windows may be yours with but little trouble and less expense, if you will consult our drapery experts.

You will be interested in the wide range of well selected merchandise we have collected for your inspection. We have never shown a better assortment of dainty draperies.

Finally, the values offered will appeal to you extremely.

We are ready for you now, with a splendid display of new fabrics, in our Drapery Section.

"MEET ME IN THE AMPICO ROOM"

BREVITIES

Luke Read of Athena is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Titus of The Paris, Walla Walla, was the guest Sunday of Mrs. Margaret Rabb.

A. W. Rogers and family have moved into the Mrs. Reynolds residence on west Main street.

The Ladies' Guild will meet Thursday afternoon, November 1, at the home of Mrs. Marvin Price.

J. E. Scrimsher and family have moved into town for the school year and are occupying the Wicker cottage.

Lou Harder, leading agriculturist of Dry creek, was in town Saturday, and sagaciously renewed his Leader subscription.

William B. Baker of Portland will give a free lecture at Weston opera house this evening under auspices of the Bible Students.

Jimmie Nelson continues to improve, encouraging hopes of his ultimate recovery. He has not yet, however, regained consciousness.

Arkey NorDean, popular Spokane policeman and perhaps the tallest "cop" in the entire Northwest, was here this week for a short visit with his parents and friends.

Mrs. C. L. Pinkerton has registered for violin instruction in the Whitman College Conservatory of Music at Walla Walla, in order to qualify herself as a teacher of this instrument. Mrs. Pinkerton has organized a violin class at Weston.

Albert O'Harra raised just about the champion bean crop of the season at his place near town. He is reported to have had an average yield of 900 pounds to the acre from 25 acres. Newt O'Harra was a good second, with 750 pounds to the acre.

Mrs. Joseph Wurzer is in receipt of a postal from her brother, Clarence H. Bischoff, saying that he and some more of the Berkeley, Calif., boys are en route to American Lake for military training, and that they were treated royally along the line.

United Brethren Church—Preaching 11 a. m., subject, "The Touch of God." Evening service at 7:30, subject, "Some Earthquakes." Other services at the usual hours. You and your children are invited to attend an interesting and growing church and Sunday school. E. F. Wriggle, pastor.

A carload of Weston porkers were shipped to Walla Walla Tuesday by J. P. Lieuallen, C. H. Nelson and the McBride Bros. They were consigned to the Walla Walla Meat company at 16 1/2 cents the pound—which figure goes to show that it is more profitable to sell pigs now-a-days than to eat them.

J. V. Bell has moved from the Van Winkle farm in the Uplands to the old Brace place on the Wild Horse, which was recently purchased by his father, John Bell. "Ven" will hereafter be associated with his father in farming the latter's holdings, which include more than 500 acres of wheat land.

Leonard Blomgren of the American Expeditionary Force, Medical Department, writes home from France that the British "Tommys" are both modest and kindly. They say nothing about their courageous deeds, but busy themselves in extending courtesies and giving information to the American soldiers.

Lost—Last week from Toll Gate corral about 20 head of steers, branded as follows: A portion with chisel bit in both ears and arrow on the side; a portion with under bit in each ear and W R on right shoulder; a portion with split in each ear and bar H on left hip. Reward for information. Dr. J. C. Baddeley, Athena, Or.

Having found their grain too short to bind the Russian colonists on the Basket uplands, where harvesting is yet in progress, have adopted a method that works well and bids fair to save their crops. They are cutting with a header, and have rigged up an attachment to a wagon rack whereby each load is dumped into the field and makes a satisfactory shock. The women help the men in the gleaning.

W. E. Lytle came in Sunday from his homestead near Midvale, Idaho, to work for awhile at the Blue Mountain fruit box factory. Wallace is an expert in this line of employment, which he followed for years, and responded to an urgent summons from Manager Avery. He reports short crops of grain this year in his section, but expresses entire faith in its future. He is raising alfalfa as well as grain, and has a small dairy herd.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.

Olof Carlson, Plaintiff, vs. Betty Carlson, Defendant.

To Betty Carlson, Defendant above named.

In the Name of the State of Oregon, You are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before Friday, the 28th day of December, 1917, which date is eleven weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons. And you will take notice that if you fail to answer the said complaint or otherwise plead thereto within said time, the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for therein, namely: for a decree of the Court forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for other equitable relief.

This summons is published pursuant to an order made and filed herewith by Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, Circuit Judge of the Sixth Judicial District of the State of Oregon, on the 5th day of October, 1917. The first publication of this summons will be made on Friday, the 12th day of October, 1917, and the last publication will be made on Friday, the said 28th day of December, 1917. Publication hereof will be made for eleven consecutive weeks.

Dated this 5th day of October, A. D. 1917.

WILL M. PETERSON,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

The president of the American Bankers Association, referring to the Liberty Loan says:

"A great battle is now in progress. There is no firing line. There are no trenches. No barrage plows the ground. No aeroplanes fly above and the air is not heavy with smoke, gas and liquid fire. But the battle is as real and the victory as necessary. This fight must be won, or those that follow will be lost."
