BREVITIES

Ernest Force, an old-time Weston boy, was in town during the week.

Frank Saling was here Saturday from his Stanfield alfalfa ranch on a business visit.

J. S. Neil was in town during the first of the week from Pendleton, where he is now residing.

Mrs. Minnie Walker of Helix was here Monday for a visit at her mother's home near town.

E. O. Sempert of Portland is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frederic McGrew, at the McGrew farm.

Mrs. M. A. Heuberger of Portland was here during last week, looking after her upland interests.

R. Liodan & Son are improving their blacksmith and machine shop with a new office, a new roof and general repairs.

The Weston Commercial club will hold its annual election next Tuesday evening, and a full attendance of members is requested.

To car owners—Our new battery recharger is now working nicely. Also, we are prepared to vulcanize your tubes. Pennington & O'Harra.

Mrs. A. W. Lundell has gone to Walla Walla, where she will be the guest for two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carmichael while taking osteopathic treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Morrison and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Victor McDonald of Walla Walla were dinner guests Sunday of the Richard Morrisons.

Jake Narkaus has bought 30 head of stock cattle from Fred Comstock and added them to his herd, which is on winter pasture above Walla Walla. He paid $36 a head.

Davis & Ellis shipped a car of their big spuds Saturday to Smythe & Lonergan, Pendleton, receiving $1.50 delivered or $1.44 net. Charles May, upland grower, made a carload shipment to Pendleton Monday at the same figure.

Roy Sams, a young man employed in farm work for H. F. Alderman on Dry creek, stumbled and fell over a rock a few days ago and dislocated his hip. Soon after the necessary repairs, however, he was up and around on crutches.

F. C. Greer's farm residence has lately been improved with a full basement and a new porch, and a bath room and toilet were installed this week by Jack Calder. J. A. King, another farmer south of town, is having toilet fixtures put in.

Preaching at 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday at the United Brethren church. Morning subject, "Our Home Land." Evening subject, "On the Mountain Top." All other services at the usual hours. Everybody is kindly asked to attend church. E. F. Wriggle, pastor.

The usual annual Thanksgiving union services of the Weston community will be held this year at the Church of the Brethren, the evening of Thanksgiving Day at seven-thirty o'clock. The sermon has been assigned to Rev. E. F. Wriggle, pastor of United Brethren church.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith are at Galesburg Grove, Illinois, visiting the doctor's relatives while he is permitted a brief furlough from duty as lieutenant in the Medical Corps. He was sent with 500 troops from American Lake to Camp Mincola, New York, and was granted a furlough for the visit.

Stamp sales at the Weston post-office were $140 for the first twelve days after the new postage rates went into effect—or just about double the normal business for the same period. All patrons have been cheerful and willing in the payment of the new rates, as though anxious to aid the government in this manner.

J. M. O'Harra will lease 85 acres of his land for beans for next year's crop, reports the Home Store Advocate. Mr. O'Harra claims that beans do not injure the soil for a grain crop for following years and that he will realize in beans in five months what it takes two years to make in grain, counting the time for the usual summer fallow.

In accordance with their usual kindly custom, "the neighbors" on the Weston uplands turned out in force with a couple of machines last Saturday and finished the harvest work of Tom McCarty. Mr. McCarty is recovering from the effects of his recent serious accident, although it was found necessary to reset his broken arm. He had broken it again when coming out from under the influence of the anaesthetic.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morgan, Weston pioneers who have been residing in the Lind, Washington, neighborhood for a number of years, motored through town Saturday in their Studebaker on their way to Thornton, Oregon, where their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Taylor, resides. They may locate at Thornton, Mr. Morgan having disposed of all his interests near Lind, where he has been farming leased land. Their son Newt accompanied them as chauffeur, but intends returning to Lind, where he will probably again engage in farming. Weston's pioneer newspaper acknowledges a pleasant—and profitable—visit from the Morgans, both Sam and Newt contributing cheerfully of their substance to keep our lamp brightly burning.

While a visitor in Walla Walla H. A. Williams of Milton put in a good word for the Elgin road reports the Bulletin. He cited the recent experience of a Milton farmer who took some stock to Summerville and was four days crossing the mountains and nearly lost his stock from lack of feed, all on account of the poor condition of the present road. There is belief that the Toll Gate franchise has expired, Mr. Williams said, and that the Toll Gate people no longer have a right to charge travelers at that point. Judge Maloney of Pendleton, it is said, is planning to look up the legal aspects of the case.

Richardson & Talbert Attractions gave two good plays at Weston opera house—The Convict's Daughter Saturday evening and Teddy O'Malley Sunday evening. This company classes much better than the average of those playing country towns, and met with a favorable reception. It is now touring eastern Washington, and will probably play a return engagement at Weston in about five weeks.

A. S. Pence is leaving soon for the Willamette valley, where he will probably again enter the employ of the Oregon Electric. Mr. Pence contemplates returning to Weston next year to put in another bean crop.

Social dance tomorrow evening.

A DOUBLE RETURN IS A MIGHTY GOOD INVESTMENT

Giving for the Soldier Boys' X-mas gives cheer to them and cheer to you. DO IT NOW.

They have no Electric washer for Monday morning, no Howard or Wilson heater in a cozy home for the noon hour,

No Graphophone for sweet music in the ev'ning.

Are you that cold that you will receive all these comforts from us and give them nothing? Now dig up some silver for the first Red Cross Lady or Box you see, and make life worth living.
