

The Store of the Christmas Spirit

Here in our store we have gathered together the crystallized hopes cherished by our own dear friends and loved ones. The secret, deep desires they have hidden in their hearts, unspoken for years, waiting here for the love-enchanted touch of your Christmas giving.

Here your Christmas shopping will be a delight and pleasure. The music, the merry voices and smiling faces; the "Glad Service" of our clerks, willing and glad to serve you; the glow of the bright lights, the profusion of holly and Christmas decorations, make this truly per pound. A. P. Perry.

Claud Price has been kept at home by illness during the week.

Ruford Price, a young man of the Weston uplands, enlisted Tuesday in the army.

J. M. Swaggart has bought a foothill stock ranch six miles from Baker, and expects to move thereto in the spring.

Nat Hale goes to Portland this week for a visit with his daughter, and will probably remain there during the winter.

Joel Davis, formerly superintendent of the Weston schools, has accepted a position as accountant in the Echo flour mills.

H. L. Hedrick, the local agent, has sold a Ford touring car to Watts & Rogers and a Ford roadster to the Weston Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson of Pendleton were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. G. W. Proebstel.

Miss Norma Smith of Salt Lake City is visiting at the home of her parents in Weston, and will remain until after the holidays.

Dr. F. D. Watts and E. M.
Smith have been appointed as Weston's members of the Legal Advisory Board for Umatilla county.

Neat little cards received by Weston relatives and friends announce the arrival of Dean Alvin Driskell at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Driskell in Highwood, Montana.

Mayor Bamister, Joe Hodgson, Rufe Brown and their respective wives were entertained Tuesday evening by the Montana Ranches Company at a banquet at the Hotel Pendleton.

Dr. Low is leaving this week for the Willamette valley to engage in hog raising and dairying. He is on a deal for trading his Portland property for a suitable ranch in Tillamook county.

Mr. and Mrs. August Sempert are here from Portland for a visit with their son, Lieutenant Sempert, and daughter, Mrs. Frederic Mc-Grew. They will remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Lieutenant Herman E. O'Harra left Sunday to join his regiment, the Eighth U. S. Infantry, at Camp Fremont, California. A farewell dancing party and farewell dinner party were given in his honor.

E. W. Fehr, formerly with the Weston garage, was in town this week saying goodbye to his friends, prior to his departure for his future field of work in the United States army. He has enlisted at Pendleton as a mechanic in the automobile branch of the service.

Robert Foster, engineer of the Warren Construction Co., was almost instantly killed Monday by being caught in the belt of the engine at the company's paving plant near Havana station. He was 38 years old, and is survived by a widow and little daughter.

Lowell Hyatt, one of Weston's popular young men, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hyatt, has enlisted in the navy and left Tuesday for Portland. He will serve as fireman. Two of his chums, Bob Hodgson and Virgil Lundell, accompanied him as far as Pendleton.

Athena Press: Mr. and Mrs.
Ernest Walden, farming near Prescott, Wash., were guests Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H.
Mansfield. Mrs. Walden, who before her marriage was Miss Nellie Purdy, is a cousin of Mr. Mansfield and formerly lived near Athena with her parents.

Milton Eagle: J. H. Coffman, who a few months ago purchased a fifteen hundred acre ranch near Lewiston, Idaho, recently disposed of same, including all stock and farming machinery, to Asa Demaris and J. L. Rogers. The consideration involved in the deal was $26,- 000. The new owners will take possession of the ranch at an early date and the Coffmans have returned to Milton to live.

J. E. Jones, rural mail carrier, has a span of "government mules" that he will stack up against a Ford on an endurance test. Beginning July 2 he drove them constantly for four months over the mountain roads, without giving them a day's rest except on Sunday. They traveled a total of 2925 miles, averaging a little better than 28 miles per day. He is now changing off with horses, in order to give the mules a rest for their winter stunt.

Established 1891

Speaking of the patriotism of the American people, Wm. M. Wood, president of the American Woolen Co., says:

"Let their liberties be threatened, let their Country be assailed, and the wealth which they have accumulated, the great resources at their command, are poured out like water, and they stand ready to give all, even life itself if need be, as their forefathers did, in defense of their liberties and maintenance of these great principles of true democracy which they have inherited, and in which they so firmly believe."
