In 1902 Mr. Penney opened at Kemmerer, Wyo., doing that year a business of $29,000.00. In 16 years he has produced 197 busy stores, doing an aggregate business of Fourteen Million Eight Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars. This spring we open twenty new stores. They cannot keep us back, we will go over.

Just a few of the reasons why we are growing:

write their names and addresses in front cover of each book, as this gives a personal touch that is appreciated by the soldiers. Miss Nason, county librarian, is looking after the drive in this county.

Using Judge Marsh as a camouflage screen, the Bulldogger ed. the other day invaded the Leader's sanctum. He dodged a few iron sidestacks and chunks of boiler plate base, but we nailed him with the office mallet—it's a weapon with which we seldom miss. We were in the act of dragging his prostrate body into the back yard in order to finish the job without messing up the office, when Judge Marsh intervened with the remark that the Bulldogger ed. had merely called to apologize and we oughtn't to treat him so harshly. We thereupon let him live and after begging our pardon he went his way. We have since noticed that this mendacious mollusc printed in his shameless sheet a garbled and distorted version of the incident and we feel that the public is entitled to the truth. Give us another such an opportunity and he will have no more opportunities to add his pesky peccadillos to the burden of mankind's woes.

An ideal legislature is a body of men—and women—from all walks of life, with an aptitude for public affairs, with an intelligent interest in the general welfare, with no thought of promoting unduly individual or class advantage, with a zeal for efficiency, and economy, and with due perception, instinctive or acquired, of the schemes of humbugs, demagogues, agitators and profiteers. We should like to see such a legislature.—Oregonian.

So should we—and we expect to when Satan is an ice man, and the Kaiser a nice man.

Scratch a Non-Partisan League leader and you find a Red Socialist or an I. W. W.

Townley may be leading the league, but he hasn't made a hit in Oregon.

They also serve who only wind yarn for the Red Cross knitters.

By wearing one, Kaiser Bill has accomplished the hitherto impossible feat of disgracing the Turkish uniform.

In wanting to fight the Hun, friend Trotzky seems to be about thirty minutes late.

For divers reasons Uncle Sam doesn't publish his transport sailing dates.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Through the support of the Weston Commercial Club I have taken charge of the meat market formerly operated by A. P. Perry. On account of war conditions I will be compelled to conduct business on a STRICTLY CASH BASIS. My patrons, however, will receive the benefit, as I will by so doing be able to sell at more reasonable prices. This market will be known as the

WESTON CASH MARKET

To the farmers I will say that I expect to handle as much of their meat products as possible, and I would therefore ask them to see me before disposing of their hogs, mutton, veal or beef. I will be glad at all times to give them the preference at market prices.

And now, in conclusion, I respectfully solicit your patronage and promise that I will at all times endeavor to give you satisfaction.

MEAT TASTES BETTER COOKED

And tobacco now tastes much better toasted.

You'll know this when you smoke the famous Lucky Strike cigarette, the real Burley cigarette.

It's toasted to develop and seal in the Burley tobacco flavor.
