

TO THE LIBERTY LOAN WORKERS

State Liberty Loan Headquarters,
Portland, Oregon,
April 5, 1918.

To Ten Thousand Fellow Workers for the Liberty Loan in Oregon:

We set out today upon the accomplishment of a tremendous task—the raising of Oregon's share of that part of the National Defense Fund known as the Third Liberty Loan.

Let us, each one, take to the work in hand with our hearts confident of but one ultimate result—VICTORY.

Let us keep constantly in mind that a prompt and overwhelming subscription to the Third Liberty Loan Bonds is exacted of us. Faltering in this duty is virtually equivalent to an expression of willingness to abandon our boys who are in the trenches, suffering and fighting for us.

Thoroughly sweep the field on the canvass! No man should ask solicitors to come a second time in this effort.

In soliciting subscriptions see that they are enrolled before leaving. A task of this magnitude well begun is half done.

With the Spirit of the First Line Trenches let every man and woman do his or her duty.

"This war," said President Wilson, "must be won, not by the Government, but by the strength of the American people."

In the spirit of "WE WILL" we will win.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD COOKINGHAM,

Executive Chairman Oregon State
Central Liberty Loan Committee.

Robert E. Smith,
State Manager.

DISPLAY OF NEW BEDS

Brass Beds, Steel Beds, Bungalow Beds, Steel Davenport, Steel Sanitary Couches, Bunkhouse Beds, Army Folding Cots, Camp Stools, Steel Costumers—a full carload of American Bed Co.'s Products!

A better bed room means a better bed—with a better mattress and better springs—a bed that is soft and smooth; that conforms itself magically to the curves of the body, luring you insistently to soft repose and refreshing slumber.

This display of beds and bedroom furniture is the greatest, the most inclusive and appealing (though not the most expensive) shown in this section.

BREVITIES

T. E. Gould and family are moving back to their upland farm from Milton.

Potato planter, buggy and saddle for sale. May be seen at the Proektel residence.

Mrs. J. O. Wood of North Yakima is visiting her mother, Mrs. Susan Tucker.

J. H. Rockhill and family have moved to their new home on the Columbia river.

Miss Fay Warren leaves this evening on her return to her school work at Marysville, Wash.

The Wesley M. Carters have moved from Everett to 5615 12th Avenue Northeast Seattle, where Mr. Carter has a position at a substantial advance in salary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin, Mrs. M. C. McNee and Miss Louise Rintoul motored to Pendleton Sunday morning to attend Easter service at the First Presbyterian church.

Weston Lodge No. 58, I. O. O. F., has elected the following delegates to the grand lodge, which meets May 22 at Seaside: S. A. Barnes, J. E. Stanfield and Albert James.

The city council instructed the street committee Wednesday evening to take up with the county the matter of scarifying Water street, while this work is being done on the county road. The county outfit is now in the vicinity of Athena, working in this direction.

It is expected that the Blue Mountain swamill will start about May 1st to make fruit boxes for the Milton and Freewater growers. Contrary to expectations, no shortage of labor has been encountered, and Manager Avery will in all probability have a full crew of men when ready to begin operations.

The Leader's labor editor is moved to commend the unprecedented industry of Bud Nelson and Jim Killgore, who worked without cessation all through Monday's snow storm. They claimed to be laboring for amusement, but the chances are that the government's demand for demurrage on a shipment of Columbia river gravel had something to do with their activity.

Sam Key was in town Monday from his upland farm and bought a 90 T light five passenger Overland from Dr. Kennard. It is said that Sam looked around quite a bit before picking out a car, and found that the Overland suited him best of all. The Leader unites with Doc Kennard in commending his judgment, for he also invested in another year's subscription to this paper.

The Bachelor Girls club met with Miss Josie Lavender Monday evening. The business of electing officers for the next quarter was dispensed with, Miss Eliza Morrison being chosen president and Miss Wavel O'Harra vice president. Refreshments were served at the close of a very pleasant evening, when the club adjourned to meet next Monday at the home of Mrs. Gladys McFadden.

Yesterday a distressing accident befell Lora Lucas, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lucas. The little girl's right arm caught in an electric wringer, and was badly crushed and mangled from wrist to elbow. Near the elbow the flesh was torn almost entirely from the bone, although the bone, fortunately, was not injured. The little patient displayed much grit, and scarcely whimpered after the accident. The doctors have hopes of saving her arm.

The local Red Cross now meets for sewing on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of each week. The ladies of the Methodist Church have special charge of the work on Thursday, as do the ladies of the United Brethren Church on Friday. This does not mean that the sewing on these days will be confined to the ladies of the respective churches mentioned. On the contrary, all the ladies of Weston and vicinity are asked to come whenever possible, in order that the local Red Cross may be certain of performing the tasks allotted it.

"Our Minister's Honeymoon" will be presented at Weston opera house Saturday evening, April 13, under auspices of the Saturday Afternoon Club. This is a delightful little operetta, replete with pleasing songs and choruses and with a laugh, almost, in every line. It is expected to equal and perhaps surpass in interest "The New Minister," so successfully presented at Weston and Athena by the club. A large cast has been rehearsing several weeks for the event, which will have the advantage of support by an excellent local orchestra.

Angora buck wanted—a scrapper that will fight coyotes preferred. Geo. B. Carmichael.

Due to the remarkable record Portland has made in reducing the aggregate of its fire losses, the Oregon committee, composed of the managers of insurance companies operating in this state, has recommended, through the state insurance department that the Oregon insurance rating bureau make a resurvey of the city, preliminary to the announcement of a downward revision of insurance rates.

LIBERTY LOAN HONOR FLAG

A new feature will be introduced in the third Liberty Loan campaign. Every city or town which oversubscribes its quota will be awarded an honor flag by the Treasury Department.

The flag will be 36 inches wide and 54 inches long. The body of the flag will be white with a red border, and three broad blue vertical stripes will denote the third Liberty Loan.

Let's float one from our flag pole, under Old Glory. Be prepared to do your part.
