

REMEMBER, FRIENDS

Weston Leader subscriptions are discontinued at expiration. Renew promptly when notified, if you want your copy to continue. No exception is made.

CLARK WOOD, Publisher

BLACKSMITHING HORSESHOEING REPAIRING

We aim to make our work its best advertisement.

TIRE-SETTING
A SPECIALTY

Snider's
Shop

Women and Misses

To dress correctly your clothes should be MADE-TO-ORDER.

INDIVIDUALITY is the key-note of good dressing. We tailor garments at practically the same price as a ready-made, but give you superior garments in every detail.

See our complete line of SUITS, COATS, DRESSES and SKIRTS—65 fashions.

WESTON BATHS, BARBER
and TAILOR SHOP
R. L. Reynaud

BREVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hodgson were here from La Crosse, Wash., for the picnic.

Miss Gladys Smith and Miss Jessie Lavender are in Portland this week for a vacation visit.

E. L. Withers and family have returned to Weston from Moscow, Idaho, to make their home.

Miss Hortense Baker has arrived home from an extended visit in Montana and Salt Lake City.

Mrs. M. J. Marsh of Pendleton was a reunion guest of Mrs. J. J. Beeler and Mrs. L. S. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ends of Mesa, Wash., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDaniel.

Miss Ruby Price has returned home for a vacation visit from Washington State College, Pullman.

W. M. Fraker, the aged Pendleton pioneer, was here again for the reunion, which he never fails to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Woods, Sherman county pioneers, were guests of their son, Ellsworth Woods, during the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett of Helix were visiting Sunday at the home of Mrs. Garrett's father, Louis Nolte.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Overturf and Otis Reynolds were among Franklin county visitors at the recent reunion of pioneers.

I am now handling supplies for Overland cars; also vacuum cup casings of all sizes, and batteries. Dr. S. L. Kennard.

After a visit with her mother, Mrs. I. E. Saling, Mrs. P. A. Worthington returned Monday to her home at Portland.

Miss Dorothy Bulfinch, who has a clerical position in Portland, has been enjoying a vacation visit at her home near Weston.

William MacKenzie Junior of Coffee Creek, Montana, is a visitor among the friends and scenes of his boyhood at Weston.

Mrs. O. C. Turner and Florence and Dale Turner of Enterprise, Wallowa county, are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. James.

Herbert Baker has received a card from his brother Ward, now an American soldier, saying that the latter has arrived safely overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas, Fleenor and Ruth Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Read and Dale Brown were here from Ione, Oregon, for Weston's annual event.

Fred Pittman, local expert, took the limit Sunday while fishing in the Umattilla. Fred won last week's prize pole offered by Watts & Rogers for the longest fish.

The Leader is in receipt of a Carte Postale from Roy W. Ritner, now in Paris, saying that he had a fine trip across and expects to go out soon as Field Representative of the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Simpson, former Weston residents and prominent Oregon pioneers, were here from their home in the Sound country to visit their children and attend the reunion.

Herman Staggs arrived Monday from Philomath College to spend the holidays at home. He has a half-year more of the academic course at Philomath and will then take the college course.

G. W. Wood and family of Dallas, Oregon, have been visiting at the home of Mr. Wood's sister, Mrs. W. M. Davis, near Weston. They motored up from Polk county, and found rather rough going part of the way.

J. M. O'Hara returned Saturday from Walla Walla, where he has been under medical treatment. Considerable improvement resulted, and the many friends of this popular pioneer hope that he will soon be restored to health and will miss no more reunions.

The Blue Mountain sawmill is in successful operation, making fruit boxes and also some lumber. Manager Avery has had no difficulty in securing men, of whom there are about 35 on the payroll. Mill wages range from $3.50 upward and include board.

E. T. Walker, mechanic with the Weston Auto Co., was struck in the region of the temple Monday night by the handle of a gas engine which he was cranking, and nearly knocked out. The handle cut a deep gash in his head, requiring two stitches, but Mr. Walker was at work again the next day.

PAINT UP!

Yes, Indeed--Paint up and down and crosswise

A few dollars spent in painting will add much more than the cost to the value and appearance of your property

WE HAVE EVERYTHING
in Paints, Leads, Oils
and Varnishes

TRY THE

New Era Paint

ACME QUALITY--IT LASTS

WATTS AND ROGERS

The Weston Leader is on a Cash Basis--
Subscriptions, Jobwork and Advertising

The Farmers Bank of Weston

Established 1891

This bank wants to be of the greatest practical usefulness to the people of this community, and will welcome suggestions from our patrons.

We shall be glad to consult with you at any time we may be of service. Tell us your wants and if we can help you out, the pleasure will be ours.

KODAKS AND SUPPLIES -- GOODWIN'S DRUG STORE

WESTON CASH MARKET

FRESH MEATS
of all kinds
Wholesale--Retail
FISH in season

A. W. LUNDELL
MANAGER

NEW RUGS NEW LINOLEUM

Attractive
Desirable
Durable

THRIFT STAMPS FOR SALE

DeMOSS