One of the best wheat crops threshed this year in Umatilla county was had by Henry Hendrickson at his place west of Adams. The yield was 42 bushels per acre from 400 acres. However, Mr. Hendrickson's land is the kind that produces 50 bushels or better in a favorable year.

Claud Still, one of the East End's best known young men and a former student of the Weston Normal, has been admitted into the Tanks corps—a branch of the service requiring very special qualifications. He was one of 18 out of 550 applicants who were enlisted at Portland. Claud leaves this week for Camp Colt, which is located on the old Gettysburg battle field.

OUR BOY SCOUT-CONTEST STARTS WITH A RUSH

Three Eager Entrants Get 3800 Votes in Two First Days.

Gail Williams 2100
Leonard Snider 900
Arden Lucas 800

Above is the result of the vote in the Weston Leader's Boy Scout Contest, as counted Thursday by the judges, Messrs. J. W. Porter, Frank Price and Robert Proudfit.

These votes were secured in two days by the young hustlers who have entered the contest and are scouting for Leader subscribers with encouraging vim.

A number of Boy Scouts were engaged in other employment and were unable to enter the contest. However, at least one other entrant, Jimmie Nelson, will be heard from next week. He was absent on a visit to Athena when the race started.

The Leader's subscription rate will be advanced to two dollars a year on October 1st next. Therefore, those who wish to take the home paper, or to renew, will find it to their advantage to do so while the present contest is on. Out-of-town subscribers may signify their choice of candidates in their letters of remittance, and the proper number of votes will be counted.

Leader patrons who may wish to take another copy or two to send to soldier boys, relatives or friends will never have a better chance to do so, as they will get the paper at the old rate and also help some deserving Boy Scout to make commission and prize money. Let them reflect that of all their items of expense the cost of their home paper is very probably the least.

This added patronage from those who feel that they are in a position to afford it, will assuredly be appreciated. It will make up in a measure for the indifference of those who do not and will not take the paper at all. In this as in other respects the loyal citizens must shoulder the community burdens if there are to be community enterprises.

At the two-dollar rate the Leader will be continued strictly on a cash-in-advance basis. In fact, the cash system is now required of all newspapers by the government.

Salvation Army Drive

Great enthusiasm prevails at headquarters in Portland over the coming drive for the National War Service Fund of the Salvation Army in Oregon, in the fact that already 27 counties, through county councils of defense and kindred organizations, have decided to put over this drive, beginning September 15.

The remaining counties in Oregon are also expected to decide to do this work through their organizations. Sunday, September 15, has been set as Salvation Army Sunday in the churches, and the request goes forth that the ministers throughout the state in their services on this day say something about the wonderful work the Salvation Army is doing and mention the drive to the people.

Charley Is Safe

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pinkerton, G. W. Craigen and Henry Craigen returned Sunday from an automobile tour of the Sound cities by way of Portland. They visited Seattle, Tacoma, Camp Lewis and other points, and had a very pleasant outing. It was their first intention to go to Wallowa lake, but they changed their vacation plans at the last moment. The Leader man desires personally to say that he was glad to find that his friend Mr. Pinkerton had gotten home intact, having regarded him very much in the light of an "Innocent Abroad." However, he was in capable hands.

Walla Walla Fair—Sept. 10-14

The Frontier Days performers at the Walla Walla Agricultural and Stock Fair will be the most attractive ever offered. So says "Tex" McLeod, world's champion roper, who has been busy engaged the past month in getting together the greatest number of prominent ropers, riders and bulldoggers ever assembled in one field. All the big ones will be on hand, according to "Tex."

Charlie Allard's wild buffalo will be seen daily in a series of unusual stunts. A herd of elk and a number of wild bear—to say nothing of five carloads of wild Mexican cattle—will be roped and herded and bulldogged daily.

The livestock department confidently expects the largest display of pedigreed animals ever gathered together in southeastern Washington.

The Great Wortham Shows—one of the largest carnival attractions in the United States—will stage their wonderful amusement features on the fair grounds.

The agricultural and horticultural resources of southeastern Washington will be most adequately represented.

Mrs. Saling Entertains

A charming musical afternoon was given Saturday by Mrs. R. G. Saling in honor of Mrs. Warren A. Wood of Gold Beach, Oregon. A very pleasing program of music was presented, the contributors being Miss Zola Keen of Athena, Mrs. Fredericks, Mrs. Saling and Mrs. Wood. Miss Keen also gave a reading, which added variety to the feast of music.

A decidedly novel and interesting amusement feature of the afternoon was entitled "A Romance in Song." Several ladies tied for the prize, which was finally won by Mrs. Fredericks. The gift of a dainty piece of china was received by the honor guest. Peach ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were: Mrs. E. C. Rogers, Mrs. W. S. Payne, Mrs. J. H. Williams, Mrs. J. M. Price, Mrs. Herman Goodwin, Mrs. E. O. DeMoss, Mrs. L. Fredericks, Mrs. C. H. Nelson, Mrs. Mary McNeer, Mrs. S. J. Culley, Mrs. H. Fisher of Athena, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mrs. Dr. Smith, Mrs. R. Proudfit, Mrs. L. S. Wood, Miss Zola Keen and Mrs. W. A. Wood.

Camp Lewis Band for Round-Up

Liberty Loan officials will cooperate with the people of Pendleton to give the approaching Fourth Liberty Loan campaign all of the advertising possible at the Round-Up next month. A formal request was made by state headquarters last week for some special features at the Round-Up giving publicity to the coming campaign. W. L. Thompson, chairman of the Liberty Loan for the county, and H. W. Collins and F. W. Earl, a committee from the Round-Up board, acted at once upon the request and telegraphed a suggestion that the Camp Lewis military band be sent with a trainload of trophies taken from the field of battle. The response was immediate. The war department was at once requested to send the band and assurance was given that the trophy train would be sent to Pendleton during the Round-Up if it is in the state. Three speakers will also be sent.

Red Cross Notes

A supply of sock yarn has just been received at local headquarters, and as our quota of socks has to be in by September 10, knitters are urged to procure yarn as soon as possible.

The work-rooms will be open on Tuesday and Friday of next week from 1:30 to 5 p. m. There is a quantity of refugee sewing on hand and the local chairman desires every one to come who possibly can, and assist with this work.

Here From Spokane

Mrs. Cashatt and two children and Miss Sayde NorDean and Mr. Arkey NorDean were visiting this week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. NorDean. They motored down from Spokane.

FLIER IS MADE CHEVALIER

Guynemer's Friend and Pupil Has Seven Victories to His Credit.

Paris.—Sous-Lieutenant Bozon-Verduras, recently made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, following his seventh officially recorded aerial victory, was the intimate friend and pupil of Guynemer.

He accompanied Guynemer September 11, 1917, when the latter met his fate. His one thought since, it is asserted, has been to avenge the great ace. One of the new chevalier's first was to shoot down three planes in four hours. He was a cavalryman until transferred to the air service.
