BREVITIES

Mrs. Seth Hyatt is under the care of Dr. Keylor at St. Mary's hospital, Walla Walla.

Mayor Banister and Recorder Porter were visitors in Pendleton yesterday on city business.

Lester Wilsey has finished a neat job of painting—white with green trimming—on the Wilsey farm house.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and two little daughters of Seattle are visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. S. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McRae of Walla Walla were guests during the first of the week of the Richard Morrisons.

Ed. Nelson, an old Alaskan "sour-dough" and a Valdez friend of Ed. DeMoss, was here from Pendleton during the week.

Mrs. E. J. Thorne and family are leaving for Newberg, Oregon, to make their home. Mr. Thorne will follow in a few weeks.

Bruce Crawford is moving from the Weston uplands to Walla Walla, where his children will attend school, to reside during the winter.

Refuting by actual demonstration the slander that no painter ever works on his own house, Merritt A. Baker is doing over the interior of his residence on Broad street.

Patriarchs, Attention!—There will be a meeting of Wenaha Encampment No. 73 on Tuesday, October 15. Work in Patriarchal Degree. Come. H. L. Hedrick, Scribe.

Services will be conducted at the Episcopal Church next Sunday at three o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. Alfred Lockwood of Pendleton. A cordial invitation to attend is extended the public.

Gilbert Baker, who raises Belgian hares at his home in Salt Lake City by way of recreation after office hours, recently took five blue ribbons out of seven entries which he made at the Utah state fair.

Mrs. Lizzie Lansdale has gone to Cayuse, Oregon, to spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Mary Lansdale, who is teaching school there. She will stop at Pendleton for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Katie Neil.

The W. H. Gould residence on the Heights has been newly painted and presents an attractive appearance. The interior has also been done over with new paint and wall paper—Mr. Gould serving as his own decorator with no dispute over wages or hours.

A. L. Swaggart, prominent pork producer, was in town from Athena Tuesday. Asked for suburban news, the p. p. said that Kernel Boyd was still managing to get along, although he would never have to pay any excess war profits tax. He added that most suburbanites take the Kernel's paper out of sympathy, and not because they want the mangy sheet.

The Women's Mission Society of the Methodist Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gould. The society pledged fifty dollars to mission work for the new conference year. Mrs. E. M. Smith gave a short program on Stewardship of money. Rev. S. E. Powell explained the centenary celebration of the hundredth year of Methodism. Mrs. J. H. McGibbon became a member of the society. Mrs. Clarissa Price, Mrs. H. Goodwin and Mrs. King served light refreshments.

The Leader has received a bill of more than $12.00 for just about enough vegetable parchment to wad a shotgun. This means an advance of about 50 percent in butter wrap paper, although the former price was nearly double the pre-war figure. Of necessity, butter wraps furnished and printed by the Leader will hereafter cost the following prices, not including postage: Sixty—the smallest number printed—$1.00; 100, $1.35; 200, $2.00; each additional hundred, 60 cents.

A party of Weston girls were pleasantly entertained Friday evening by Mrs. F. D. Watts in honor of her niece, Miss Lola Gaylord, who is visiting at the Watts home from Williamston, Michigan. Music and games were enjoyed and summer vacation episodes related. The event of chief interest, however, was a merry bonfire in the yard, at which "wienies" were toasted in Bohemian style. The invited guests were Mrs. Gladys McFadden and the Misses Florence Simmons, Vera Tipton, Doris Barnes, Gladys Smith, Josie Lavender, Eliza Morrison, Lois Porter and Lola Gaylord.

Mrs. F. H. Beathe left Sunday on her return home to Seattle, after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Weston.

Greetings!

HOWDY! HOWD'Y DO! HOW ARE YOU?

We all have been GOING SOME for the past four months and in "High Gear" much of the time.

We have ordered an extra box of STOGIES and wish to come in and have one on us.

HARDWARE GALORE, IMPLEMENTS AND WAGONS ALWAYS,
LUMBER BY THE THOUSANDS, and
Goodyear Tires

SMOKE THIS FACT AND FIND AN EQUAL:

A Hudson Super Six received late last November, equipped with Goodyear fabric all-weather tread tires, carrying a load that required reinforcement of springs to hold, goes over the Rocky Mountains, arrived at distant end (Detroit, Mich.) of journey with speedometer reading 4635 miles and CONTAINING THE SAME AIR STARTED ON.

Again, today the speedometer reads 9013 miles—having crossed the Rocky mountains a second time—and all four tires are still holding good. On return part of trip there was some inner tube trouble but not one minute delay because of outer casing failure.
