The bear that has been making its home in the Will Burkhardt orchard and living on apples met death last week. It was treed by the bear dogs of Henry Sams and brought down by shots from Carl Brutscher's and Mr. Sams' rifles.

The first Weston soldier reported in the casualty list to have been killed in action was Robert Bracken, whose name was published Saturday. Private Bracken was a brother of Mrs. Charles Marshall, who is now residing at Stanfield, Oregon.

Miss Wavel O'Harra and Miss Hazel Duncan are both ill with Spanish influenza at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Iven O'Harra, south of town. Miss Duncan was attacked with the disease upon going home from high school last Friday evening, but so far as yet reported no other high school students are afflicted.

While Braden Gerking and Johnny Rothrock were indulging recently in the time-honored pastime of painting Athena red, young Rothrock was shot in the foot by Councilman N. A. Miller, who attempted his arrest. Several men were required to overpower Gerking and land him in jail. Both young men were mounted and riding recklessly.

Mrs. George Waddingham and five children have been ill with influenza at their home in Walla Walla, and Mrs. Della Marsh, sister of Mrs. Waddingham, was seized with the disease after going over to attend them. Some of the patients are in quite a serious condition, their illness having been aggravated by exposure during a fire in the household caused by a defective flue.

Mrs. Sabina Morton has leased her farm holdings for a term of four years to Tilgman Beckner and leaves shortly for Washington, D. C., to visit her sister, Mrs. Miles Poindexter, wife of Senator Poindexter. She will afterward go to Europe to follow relief work in Belgium and France. Mr. Beckner, lessee of the Morton farm, came from West Virginia about two years ago, and had since been associated with E. A. Dudley in farm work.

Roy Beck, his wife and seven of their nine children are sick with influenza at their home in Walla Walla. Until the arrival of the mother of Mr. Beck, they had received no attention except such as could be given by the two children who escaped the contagion, one of them eight years old and the other only four. These little ones bravely did what they could, and some food was supplied by neighbors through the windows. Mr. Beck is a brother of Mrs. C. H. Nelson of this city.

Prominent Farmer Called by Death

Louis C. Harder, one of the most prominent and popular farmers in this section of the county and a native born citizen of Oregon, was called by death December 1 at his home on Dry creek. He succumbed to pneumonia following an attack of Spanish influenza. Mr. Harder was a devoted husband and father, a kindly neighbor and an upright citizen and his passing is mourned by all who knew him. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Dora Stamper, and two children, a boy of thirteen and a girl nine years of age. He is also survived by his father, an honored pioneer of the county; three brothers and three sisters. Funeral services were held Monday at the home, and the remains were then escorted to Weston by the Milton lodge of Masons, of which Mr. Harder was a member. He was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery here, with the impressive rites of that order. Members of the local lodge of Masons met the procession at the grave.

The Farmers Bank of Weston

Established 1891

Although the war may be practically over insofar as hard fighting and heavy sacrifice of life are concerned, still the need of funds is great; and the banks have already been asked to subscribe heavily to Treasury Certificates in anticipation of the next liberty loan. It will therefore be necessary for all to conserve their credit, and prepare for the next loan.
