Lieutenant and Mrs. Curran McFadden left Saturday for Corvallis to visit the mother of Lieutenant McFadden.

The Misses Rosaline and Josephine Rohde and Miss Lillian Hagen of Pendleton were guests last week of Dr. and Mrs. Kennard.

A letter from the D. R. Wood farm near Montour, Idaho, says that its occupants have so far escaped the flu, although it is raging all around them.

James Johnson, in early years a Weston resident, was here this week from his home in Idaho, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, for a visit with old-time friends.

While the Weston schools, until opened Monday, had been closed since October 14, the attendance yesterday had already reached 80 percent of the normal and is constantly growing.

R. G. Sailing returned Tuesday night from Portland, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. I. E. Sailing, and daughter Lois. Mrs. R. G. Sailing will continue her voice studies in Portland until the first of February.

The Weston Concert Band resumed its rehearsals last Monday evening, with a good attendance. With its ranks strengthened by the return of several of its members from Corvallis, the band renews its work with excellent prospects.

A good roads meeting will be held in Pendleton tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. A number of Weston citizens are planning to attend in order to learn more about the proposed county bond issue. E. C. Rogers has direction of securing signers in the Weston district for the special bond election petitions.

Through the courtesy of Senator Ritner and Representative Dodd the Leader is enabled to supply its readers with the text of any bill pending in either house of the Oregon legislature. A file of the bills introduced in either house, together with the senate and house calendars, is kept at this office and may be consulted by any reader interested.

Sergeant Sidney Barnes, who was expected home last Sunday, was assigned to Camp Lewis instead. It seems that Sergeant Barnes was discharged at Fort Dodge and had his papers in due form, but was wound around with red tape in some inexplicable manner and ordered to report at Camp Lewis. He passed through Pendleton last Saturday night.

The residence property on Washington street of the O. T. Douglas estate has been sold through A. W. Lundell to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sample of Pendleton, who will come here to make their home. The property is among the most attractive in town. The ground embraces ten lots and has a frontage of 20 feet, faced with a concrete retaining wall.

Pursuant to call of its president, E. C. Rogers, the Weston Commercial Club will meet at Masonic hall next Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. There will be officers to elect, road matters to discuss and other important business. Rivalry over the several posts within the gift of the club, especially the secretaryship, is expected to lend especial interest to this gathering. Be on hand and support your favorite.

The unusual lack of winter precipitation was made up for Saturday and Sunday, when a heavy rain fell throughout this section. Following a prolonged thaw it soaked the ground thoroughly and is expected to do a world of good. It was followed Monday by a light fall of snow, which soon disappeared. Snow at Blue Mountain sawmill is reported to have reached a depth of 22 inches, 10 inches having freshly fallen.

A perfect little gem of a lake, beautifully photographed, makes a pretty picture in the window of the DeMoss store. It is framed with bark from a tree on its shores, and its calculated to make the most prosaic stay-at-home long to hear the call of the wild. It is known as Heart lake, and is located 25 miles from the wonderful Lake Chelan. It was visited by the DeGraws and the Culleys while on their outing last summer.

The entire new issue of capital stock of the Weston Mercantile Company, $10,000, has been taken, increasing the concern's paid up capital to $30,000. In fact, the new issue was over-subscribed, principally by stockholders who have been in the company since its organization—so general is the satisfaction on their part over the prosperous condition and gratifying progress of Weston's popular community enterprise. The increased capital will enable the company to carry a larger stock of merchandise and to meet its bills in cash—this conducing to the advantage of its customers.

Athena Press: Word has been received by cable from Lieutenant James Sturgis, by his wife, that he will arrive in the United States by the end of January. Since the armistice was signed Lieutenant Sturgis has been appointed aide de camp to General Walsh, who is commander of the Port of Bordeaux. From July 8 to November 11 he was on the firing line northwest of Verdun. Mrs. Sturgis, who has been serving the American Red Cross at national headquarters in Washington during the past year, will await her husband there and accompany him home.

C. L. Pinkerton, assistant cashier of The Farmers Bank of Weston, was kept at home during the week by a severe cold. Frank Price was similarly indisposed but is down town again.

Lester Hodgson has been confined to his home during the week by an attack of rheumatism.

Beware, Lest a Stranger
Pluck the Jewel at Thy Feet!

(Eleven hundred acres good timber and farming lands, sawmill and box factory complete for operation; estimated over ten million feet of saw timber and over 80,000 cords of cordwood; choice, deep soil—grow anything from strawberries to four-foot timothy; all fairly level, no encumbrance and all for $15,000. Gee whiz, gentlemen, WAKE UP!!! You'll kick yourselves sore when a stranger buys it and turns it at $25,000 the next week.)

HOW ABOUT PLOWS?

We have John Deere with curved mould boards---PRICES RIGHT.

Flying Dutchman with bent steel beams and both in pairs or triplets, side by each---PRICES RIGHT.

Kentucky and Van Brunt drills---one better, the other best.

Weber and John Deere wagons---we challenge comparison.

Two-spool sewing machines, singer style rotary and vibrators.

Electric washing machines---the best---and we keep a sample for trial purposes; try it and then decide.

Heating stoves galore---and bargains.
