THE UNIVERSAL CAR

WE GIVE MONEY-SAVING SERVICE

Your Ford car will give satisfactory and money-saving service for years if you just give it decent care. Let our shop look after it, making replacements and repairs when necessary; let us keep it tuned up and running smoothly, and you'll sure have all the service and comfort you could get from a brand new car. It's all in the knowing how. Our workmen are skilled—we have genuine Ford parts—we make the regular Ford prices as established by the factory. Bring your Ford car in and let us look it over—"a stitch in time saves nine."

LIBERTY AUTO CO.

O. A. Adams, Mgr.
(Successors to Weston Auto Co.)

Mrs. Elvira Reynolds is leaving today for an extended visit at the farm of her son Otis near Connell, Washington.

George Walden was here during the week from Walla Walla, where he is engaged in railroad construction work, to attend his father, Ben Walden, whose serious illness continues.

Miss Virginia Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Sowers of Weston, was united in marriage recently at Pendleton to Mr. Earl Ackerman, a young farmer of that neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sample came up from Pendleton this week to occupy their newly-purchased home on Washington street. Although at present engaged in railroad construction work, Mr. Sample expects to come to Weston before long and follow carpentering.

THE SUTTONS IN CONCERT NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Geo. C. Sutton, Mrs. Sutton and Miss Hazel Burton will appear in concert at Weston opera house Tuesday evening, March 11. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton are vocalists and Miss Burton is pianist. The program begins at eight o'clock.

Mr. Sutton was conveyor of music to the S. P. D. of the Aviation Corps of the United States Army. He was well received wherever he went and made a marked success of his work.

Mrs. Sutton is a soprano who never fails to please her audience. She visited many of the camps with her soldier husband and sang to hundreds of our boys in khaki. Miss Burton is a graduate of the Drake Conservatory of Music. She was for two years instructor in that noted institution.

Mrs. Morrison is Club Hostess

Charming in every detail was the meeting of the Saturday Afternoon Club held February 28, 1919, at the hospitable town residence of Mrs. Richard Morrison.

Artistic bouquets of pussy-willows, carnations in pastel shades, and snowdrops gave the rooms a very attractive appearance and occasioned many remarks of appreciation and delight.

An interesting Roll Call was followed by the business session. The outstanding feature of the afternoon was the interesting report given by Mrs. J. H. Williams, the club's delegate to the peace conference recently held in Portland. Other program numbers were:

Reading, "Beautiful Willamette" (Simpson)—Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick.
"Christmas Roses" (Eob.) a western story—Mrs. J. F. Snider.
"That's Where the West Begins"—Mrs. J. H. Williams.

Unique place cards marked the covers for eighteen members and one guest—Miss Vira Morrison. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. E. C. Rogers and Mrs. Williams, assisted by the hostess.

Club members were unanimous in pronouncing this gathering one of the most diverting and enjoyable the organization has ever experienced.

An Appreciation

The Weston Ministerial Association desires to thank all who helped to make the Taylor evangelistic meetings the great success they were. We especially thank Mrs. R. G. Saling and the mixed quartette for their singing, and all others who helped in the chorus.
—E. F. WRIGGLE, Secretary.

Make Your SPRING SUIT a "Born" Suit

Note the Seven Points of Excellence

- 1 Strictly hand tailored.
- 2 Your choice of style.
- 3 Your choice of material from 400 samples.
- 4 Individuality of style becoming to your figure.
- 5 Prices but little higher than for ready-made.
- 6 Workmanship and material much better.
- 7 Holds its shape until worn out.

You can go into a store on some back street and buy a suit for $7.69---just a suit, you know---but you wouldn't wear it among your friends. Not much! You would be ashamed to. But with a Born suit it's different. It has that individuality of style that can be had only in a tailored garment. The length is reckoned on your height; the shoulders are made to fit your shoulders. All of this counts for the well-dressed man. It's a source of satisfaction, of pride in your own achievements.

LADIES

Wait for Your SPRING COATS

They Are on the Way

Our line of Spring Coats for ladies will be here in ample time for your needs. Our stock this season will be larger by far than usual and the showing will surpass that of any previous season.

Fred Dupuis has bought the office property of the late S. V. Knox on Main street from Gus Burgy and has fitted it up as a plumbing shop.

County Assessor C. P. Strain was presented with a Ford car by Pendleton well wishers in appreciation of his fruitful work in behalf of the road bonds.

While coasting at his home on the mountain, a little son of Will Hall was thrown from his sled into a barb wire fence and badly gashed about the face and throat. Dr. McKinney took five stitches in treating the wounds.

Vennard Conn, a cousin of Vennard Bell, is expected to arrive soon at his home in Saskatchewan after three years of imprisonment in Germany. He was captured while serving with a Canadian regiment and his experience since has been far from enviable.

Rev. W. S. Payne is leaving today for Huntsville, Wash., to assist Rev. J. S. Rhodes, pastor of the Methodist church there, in revival services. Mr. Rhodes was the immediate predecessor of Mr. Payne as pastor of the United Brethren church at Weston, a good many years ago.

Earl Barnett, who played private to Charley Nelson's corporal at Camp Lewis, has again been taking orders from Nelson while the latter served as section foreman during his father's absence. Reports are that any sign of insubordination would have been quelled without mercy.

The Weston Concert Band has been engaged to play for the centennial celebration of the foundation of Odd Fellowship to be held at Pendleton April 26 during the district convention of this order. The program of the day will include a parade, exercises, banquet, hand concert and the like. Weather permitting, the celebration will be held in the open air.

Next Monday evening will be Community Evening at the meeting of the Weston Commercial club. Matters of immediate community interest will be taken up and discussed by the club, according to the announcement of President Porter, and a large attendance is desired. At a short meeting last Monday evening the club heard a favorable report from the special committee on the question of taking out a membership in the State Chamber of Commerce. Action on the report was deferred.

The special bond election in Mountain precinct was held at the usual polling place at Tamcrack school house despite reports that it was inaccessible because of the deep snow. The snow was found to be only two and a-half feet deep and voters interested had no difficulty in getting to the polls. J. E. McDaniel and Charles May went up from Weston with the poll books and ballot box. The vote stood six for and seven against the bonds.

Pastor Storms announces the following special services at the Baptist Church for Sunday, March 9, and extends a cordial invitation to all to attend: Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "What Baptists Believe." Laymen's meeting at 2:30 p. m.—a delegation from the Milton-Freewater Baptist Church to preside. Sermon at 3:30 p. m., "Why the Baptists Immerse," followed by administration of the ordinance of Baptism.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hodgson came down from La Crosse last week in order to secure medical attention for Mrs. Hodgson and consulted Dr. Keylor at Walla Walla. She is suffering from goitre, which has resulted in fainting spells. In a recent fall at her home she came in contact with the stove and was severely burned.

Following the League of Nations lecture by Evangelist Taylor Saturday the big audience voted unanimously in favor of the league plan as proposed at the great peace conference. The Weston Commercial club adopted resolutions favoring this plan, a copy of which was wired to the Oregon delegation in Congress.

Oregon may be bone dry, but this particular part of it is moist enough—following the most abundant winter precipitation ever precipitated. The ground is now so well soaked, in fact, that fears are expressed of soil-washing in the hills should the March rains continue.

Under date of February 6 First Lieutenant C. H. Smith sends from France to his two youngsters, Ernest and Ruth, a card of introduction to Mr. Pete Cootie. Attached to the card are Pete's lifeless remains, he having fallen victim while exploring forbidden territory.

Announcement is made that there will be no sewing at the Red Cross rooms until further notice. A sample used in making pantaloons for Belgian boys is missing and is wanted at headquarters. Finder will kindly leave same at the home of Mrs. S. J. Culley.

While in town the other day Geo. B. Carmichael said he was getting ready to reseed his crop, as it had frozen out beyond question. In an adjoining field some hybrid wheat of J. N. York's entirely escaped damage.
