

IT STANDS THE TEST

The WILLYS OVERLAND has stood the test against all competition and has proven to be the most serviceable car on the market. In selecting a motor car bear in mind that you are buying a machine. The service it will give you depends first of all upon the motor. For on the life of the motor depends most largely the life of the car. Power is imperative. Flexibility is necessary to convenience in operation. Quietness in operation is important, for quietness is truest proof of absence of wear. Simplicity of design, and freedom from complication insures low cost of upkeep, makes little attention necessary. Economy of operation, small consumption of gasoline and oil means low running expense. These qualities and the proportions in which they are found determine the value of an Overland motorcar. These cars are going on the market at the rate of which is fair proof of the satisfaction they are giving the public. They are backed up and guaranteed by the largest automobile factory in the world. With such a company as this at your back you cannot make a mistake in buying one of these cars. Remember you have twenty-eight different models to select from.

Come in and look over the list and select your car.

Any old league of nations that's good enough for Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau is good enough for the Weston Leader.

As he is apparently good for nothing else, we nominate Kernel Boyd as official beer-taster for the United States government.

Always strong on timely and informative statistics, the Oregon Voter publishes a table showing the comparative ability of members in getting bills through the recent Oregon legislature. Ritner and Dodd from this county are rated pretty well up. Ritner introduced 15 bills and 10 were passed—giving him a percentage of 67. Dodd introduced nine bills and seven were passed—a percentage of 78. Brownell came to bat with only one measure and it failed of passage, so that his percentage is zero; but then, Brownell may have thought that Oregon already had plenty of laws of every kind and description. On the whole, the record of the Umatilla county members is a good one in a legislature which is generally commended as better than average and which kept within the six percent limitation.

The esteemed E. O. is having trouble with its new press, and is welcome to our old G. Wash., now lying idle in the back room. It's a man-killer, but it's reliable.

The soliciting committee for Memorial Hall started out this morning and at noon are said to have had on their list $1350 from sixteen signers. Weston is not particularly slow—especially when it has a proposition before it which promises so much of good for the entire neighborhood. It will be a longer pull, of course, to get the smaller subscriptions, but the community is a unit as to the worth of this enterprise, and the entire sum needed to put it on its feet is certain to be forthcoming.

Just picture, if you can, Kernel Wood's complicity all dolled up in waist-line togs. H-u-u-h, Ellen?—Athena Press.

Yes, yes! But who and where is Ellen?

You will never need the old clothes and the old shoes you are going to give to the refugees of Europe through the agency of the American Red Cross, so much as you need the glow of satisfaction that will be yours from responding to this humanitarian call. The need is great—your sacrifice little. Give every garment you can spare—and then spare some more.

Saturday Afternoon Club

Mrs. E. M. Smith and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick extended delightful hospitality to the Saturday Afternoon Club March 15, at the Smith home.

Roll Call topics brought forth many interesting responses. The rhymes and jests of a Hudson chaffeur, as prepared by Hon. S. J. Culley and presented by Mrs. C. E. Flak, occasioned much merriment at this period.

The early afternoon was devoted to the transaction of business, including adoption of a French war orphan by the club.

Barrie's character sketch, "Cree Queery and Mysy Drolly," was read by Mrs. S. A. Barnes.

After adjournment the ladies proceeded to the dining room, where all decorations and appointments were in keeping with the "stork shower" honoring Mrs. C. E. Flak. Curtains were drawn and lighted candles produced a charming effect. A dainty cradle draped in pink centered the dining table, above which a canopy of pale pink and blue satin ribbons was suspended from the chandelier, each ribbon strand being carried to a guest's place, where it was tied to a tiny cluster of pink and blue forget-me-nots. Artistic place cards bearing appropriate rhymes, which were read aloud, marked the covers for eighteen club members and one guest, Mrs. Ollie Fisk of Palmer, Idaho.

Delicious refreshments served by the hostesses were the final feature of an afternoon unique in the annals of the club.

Thirteen Sick in Pastor's Home

Wednesday morning a day and a night nurse and a cook were secured for the afflicted household. Soon after their arrival Miss Lela Powell was attacked by the disease, making thirteen patients under the one roof. However, the condition of none of them is serious.

Returning Saturday evening from Walla Walla, where he attended a church conference, Rev. S. E. Powell, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, in Weston, was seized with an attack of Spanish influenza. By Tuesday evening there were a dozen patients in his household. These were Mr. and Mrs. Powell, seven of their children and their married daughter, her husband and infant child, who arrived Friday to visit them from Troy, Idaho. Only one member of the family, Miss Lela Powell, escaped the flu, and upon her devolved the entire care of the patients until Wednesday, when a nurse was secured by friends after constant telephoning. Nourishing food and broths were furnished, however, by neighbors. Dr. McKinney is in attendance, the house is under rigid quarantine and every effort will be made to prevent recurrence of an epidemic.

WESTON SCHOOLS

Mrs. McNeer presented Miss Rintoul with a beautiful petunia plant in full bloom. It helps greatly to beautify and make cheerful the schoolroom for teacher and pupils.

Miss Tipton and pupils have been enjoying the victrola this week. Another interesting feature of this room is the window decoration of the subjects the pupils have been studying in geography.

Alice Powell and Pearl Davis have been absent from Mrs. Pinkerton's room this week because of illness.

Last week, Miss Rintoul's room celebrated the seventh birthday of Eldred Price. The pupils enjoyed a phonograph concert and Eldred received many little gifts, ranging from all-day suckers to bouquets of wild flowers. Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin gave him a bag of candy with which to treat his schoolmates.

Teacher—"What important event took place in Washington, D. C., on March fifth, 1917?"
Pupil—"President Wilson went to church the day before."

The Senior English class is reporting on novels.

The Debating class is still working on the question, "Resolved, That a League of Nations will Prevent Future War."

George Blomgren and Lela Powell have not been able to attend their classes this week on account of sickness.

The report cards have been issued and the majority show higher grades than last month.

A great improvement is noticed in the hall through having the old hat racks removed.

The members of the typing class are now writing real business letters. Do not be surprised if some of you Weston people receive them through the mail.

Superintendent Fitzpatrick expects to attend the Institute at Pilot Rock, Saturday.

OLD CLOTHING IS WANTED

Red Cross Sets Weston's Quota at 1500 Pounds—County's 20,000.

The Umatilla County Chapter of the American Red Cross is asking Weston for 1500 pounds of old clothes, and says that the call is urgent. The time set for the collection in this county is March 24 to 29. The county chapter says:

"A call has been made on us for 10 tons, i. e., 20,000 pounds, of old clothes, by our national headquarters through divisional headquarters at Seattle, for the refugee populations of the devastated, war-torn regions of the battle zones of Europe.

"Shoes, underclothes and clothing of all kinds for men, women and children—suitable for people living in small villages and in the country—is the essential need. No uniforms or flimsy materials wanted. Old garments that can be made over by the refugees is the principal requirement."

Mrs. S. J. Culley, chairman of the Weston auxiliary, has authorized the district chairmen to select their own committees to look after the collection of Weston's quota, and an active campaign will be made in this community. It is requested that the donors deliver the bundles of clothing, which are to be left on the Red Cross porch.
