

OREGON NEWS NOTES

Charles R. Warren, actor, writer and composer, died in Eugene Friday at the age of 46 years.

Oregon broccoli is now being sent to the Chicago market, where it is meeting with a good demand.

The sixth annual convention of the Cattle and Horse Raisers' association of Oregon will be held at Bend April 22 and 23.

A proposal to vote $600,000 bonds for road improvement in Linn county at the special election in June is practically assured.

Many new fields of loganberries, raspberries and evergreens are being put out by farmers and growers in the vicinity of Brownsville.

Over $17,000 in gasoline and distillate taxes, under the law passed by the 1919 legislature, was received by Deputy Secretary of State Sam A. Koser last week.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have started a campaign for the erection of a monument to the men of Coos county who served in the world war.

A general meeting of the orchardists of the Sutherlin valley will be called to consider the formation of a state irrigation district, as soon as the state engineer, Percy A. Cupper, arrives.

During the past week the state industrial accident commission received reports of 499 accidents, of which two were fatal, as follows: Alton Gregory, Linton, lumbering; Ira Bower, Marshfield, shipbuilding.

A large warehouse owned by E. L. Kiemer at Alvadore, a station on the west side branch of the Southern Pacific, 13 miles northwest of Eugene, was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $7000.

A fall of snow running from six inches to two and a half feet fell in the mountains west of Dallas last week, interfering with logging operations and causing a shortage of logs for the mills in that locality.

A meeting of the mill operators and employes of the Cottage Grove section, numbering 400, will be held there Saturday for the purpose of organizing the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen on a peace-time basis.

Plans and specifications for sewer improvements in the Porter Hill residence district of North Bend amounting to more than $30,000 were approved by the city council. Total street improvements will exceed $150,000.

Portland can have a fleet of four to six army airplanes for the Rose Festival in June if a flying field is provided, according to the specifications of the military air service, Senator McNary was told by the chief of the army air service.

Based on unofficial advices received at victory loan headquarters, Portland will be called upon to subscribe between $18,000,000 and $19,000,000 in the coming patriotic drive. On the same theory, the Oregon quota will be around $33,000,000.

The railroad administration was called on by Representative Sinnott's office to consider a request of the Newport Oregon Commercial club for the extension of the Yaquina branch of the Southern Pacific railroad from Yaquina to Newport.

Leases covering approximately 4000 acres of oil lands between The Dalles and Dufur were filed in the county clerk's office at The Dalles. The leases are made for a period of 15 years and provide that the sinking of wells shall begin within two years.

Charles Feller, who has started a suit to kill the crab law applying to shipments from Coos county, lost $25 as a starter in Justice E. H. Johnson's court at Marshfield, when the law was upheld. The case will be appealed, Mr. Feller declared, to the circuit court.

Mrs. P. J. Parks, the young wife of the superintendent of a government fish hatchery at Herman creek, west of Hood River on the Columbia river highway, was bit on her neck being broken while attempting to replace a belt in the food grinding room of the hatchery.

A flat reduction of 10 cents a ton in the freight rate on road building materials is announced in a telegram to State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn from Director Wilson, of the public roads department of the federal railroad administration. The reduction is effective May 1 and will extend to December 31.

Four students of the University of Oregon, all junior men, were expelled from the university by action of the faculty, on a charge of publishing during spring vacation an anonymous "scarlet sheet," containing alleged libelous articles and stories of ambiguous meaning. They are Douglas Mulrarky of Bend, Lloyd Still of Milton, Jack Dundora of Portland, and Richard Avison of Salem.

YOU LEND

a little for a while

SIXTY THOUSAND OF OUR AMERICAN BOYS

lie among the poppies of Flanders' Fields in France. To them only is the war over. They have paid the price in full. To countless other thousands of these boys returning home maimed and broken the war will still go on; they will be paying the price every day, during the remainder of their lives. Can we who stayed at home carelessly and thoughtlessly assume the "war is over" attitude until our balance of account is paid—until we have redeemed our pledge—to bear the final cost no matter what its amount?

THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

is in liquidation of the debt for men and munitions we amassed, and which brought about the end of the war—saving for every day it was shortened billions more in money and thousands more in lives.

MEN and WOMEN of OREGON!

The imprint of fame upon the name of our fair state will turn to a stain of shame if we do not meet the obligation this Victory Loan represents. You are face to face with the real test of citizenship—true Americanism. Let this test find you measuring up one hundred per cent loyal.

The Parent Bond of Them All

The government bond is the Parent bond of all bonds. Back of the government bond are all the assets and all the resources that supply the value of all other bonds, all other securities, all other investments.

The government bond is a prior lien on lands, homes, chattels and everything else, and the bonds to be issued under the name of the Victory Liberty Loan are the highest of the high in government bonds. They constitute a contract of the United States government, entered into by unanimous vote of congress, and therefore a contract and mortgage behind which stands the possessions of One Hundred and Ten Million American people with their entire resources developed and undeveloped; the intelligence, ambition and ability of these One Hundred and Ten Million people mortgaged to pay the bill.

The Victory Liberty Loan Bonds will bear an attractive rate of interest and, together with all other desirable elements, when compared with other investments as to strength, collateral and return, have no equal.

This is one of 176 advertisements inserted simultaneously in every newspaper in the State of Oregon on behalf of the success of the Victory Liberty Loan—for we believe in this cause and are willing to contribute to the full extent of our power.
