

He would have subscribed to the Victory Liberty Loan because he was a real American.

He practiced what he preached —Americanism.

You might have disagreed with him at times but to the whole world he stood for America.

Are you doing less?

You are unless you are willing to sacrifice—unless you take your share of the Victory Liberty Loan

San Francisco Physician Lets Patients Pay Him in Bonds Rather Than Cash at Par

This reads or tastes or looks like the foam of a press agent's brew. But it isn't. It actually happened although it is propaganda.

There is a physician and surgeon of high professional standing in San Francisco who, if he wasn't Irish, would be Scotch. He is that canny.

The other day he met a friend of his, a stock and bond expert. "Doc," as his friends call him, is always looking for information. He pumps everybody and they like him for it. So the bond man wasn't a bit surprised when "Doc" shot this at him:

"How about the next Liberty Loan—it's going to get over?"

"It sure will," replied the bondman. "It's going to be the last and the best of the Liberty Loans."

"Advise me to load up?" persisted "Doc."

"I sure do—best security in the world—year from now it will be worth half again as much as you pay."

"Well, I figured it out that way myself," confessed the physician. "Of course I was going to buy anyway, but I think I'll strain everything a bit and really load up."

"Suppose you've got previous issues?" asked the bondman.

"Sure, and what's more I'm still piling those Liberty bonds up. Every time a patient offers them in payment I grab them. They look good to me."

"You're a wise guy—hang onto them. Doc. I've got a few myself. Gotta date with the wife—so long."

HALF BILLION SAVED ON AIRCRAFT BILL

Half a billion dollars was saved by the War Department up to April 1st by cancellation of aircraft contracts. These contracts, according to the government statement, are only a small part of the savings which has been made by abandonment of contracts for war material. In spite of these savings, the statement adds, material costing millions of dollars will have to be paid for largely through money to be raised in the Victory Loan.

Mrs. Banister Honored

The home of Mayor J. M. Banister was the scene of a merry gathering last Saturday afternoon. The occasion was a surprise party given in honor of Mrs. Banister, whose 49th birthday anniversary was commemorated. Mrs. Gladys McFadden and Miss Rena Banister, daughters of Mrs. Banister, were the hostesses.

The living room and dining room were very artistically decorated with peach blossoms. A three-course luncheon was served. The honoree was presented with a beautiful birthday cake, garnished with 49 pink and white candles. Mrs. Ralph Saling sang charmingly for the entertainment of the guests.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lieuallen, Mrs. Mary Lieuallen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leonard of Waitsburg, Mr. and Mrs. George Lieuallen, Mrs. Kate Caton, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. John Banister Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Saling, Miss Gladys Smith.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received by Mrs. Banister.

IT'S A SURE WINNER

Umatilla county's quota of the Victory Liberty Loan is $1,230,075—or $890,000 less than its quota of the fourth loan. Weston's quota is $25,400.

County and district managers are approaching next week's campaign in a spirit of confidence. No doubt is felt that Umatilla county will go "over the top"—and that speedily.

Several factors will contribute to the success of the Victory Loan. It is less than was expected; it bears a very attractive rate of interest, 4½ percent; the terms of payment are easier than for any former loan; it will be the last great war loan issued by the government; it is being wonderfully well advertised under the direction of publicity experts grown more and more capable through experience, and the glow of righteous victory will inspire all hearts and loosen all purse strings.

Our own "Jim" Price—the faithful and popular leader of every local war drive—smiled hopefully when asked as to the prospects here.

"Weston has never failed yet," he said; "and now is the poorest time I know of to even think of failure."

The esteemed Oregon Journal speaks glowingly of "the Pendleton spirit"—which makes us wonder how and where its editor sampled any.

The Japanese in Korea are apparently striving to out-Hun the Huns.

Gilbert O. Nations came to bat not long ago with the theory that President Wilson and the pontiff had conspired secretly together to locate the capital of the League of Nations in Catholic Belgium. He was only a few hundred miles off the track. President Wilson advocated Geneva, Switzerland, and Geneva was selected.

No one can even glimpse the Weston Leader this week without knowing about the Victory Liberty Loan. On the first page is the remarkable advertisement of Morris Bros., the patriotic Portland bond dealers, whose moving appeal appears simultaneously this week in all Oregon newspapers—at a cost of $5000. On other pages are the striking advertisements contributed by local business men. The Leader has a number of similar plates in reserve, and will be glad to receive further orders from business men or others who may wish to assist the Victory Loan publicity campaign in this manner.

Japan threatens to withdraw from the peace conference, it being evident—as she views it—that the peace conference has withdrawn from Japan.

"Giants Cross Bats With Orioles."—Oregon Journal.

"Cross bats." That's the grand old baseball language we were familiar with a quarter of a century ago. It refreshes the veteran fan after reading the gibberish of the present day.

The g. o. p. elephant and the dem. jackass are friendly teammates in the Victory Loan drive.

If friend Italy doesn't get what she wants, she'll never quit Fiume-ing.

"What amount of Victory bonds should I buy?" is the question many persons are asking themselves. Buy till it hurts! says Marshall N. Dana. That is the answer for the person who is hampered with an inner consciousness of the sort that whispers: "Let others do it!" Your country is calling you to do your duty. Loyal citizens of the United States should not expect to be driven to do their duty.

Japan's ambitions toward racial equality were blocked by England, so that in this matter at least the "little brown men" will have no justification in nursing a grudge toward Uncle Sam.

Even though you've bought before, buy, buy again!

God drew the color line which the peace conference has found it inadvisable to erase.

WESTON SCHOOLS

The upper classmen are enjoying the Victrola this week.

Worth Watts, after displaying much interest in the dictionary, discovered that 'eroline is a stiff material out of which the first ladies' petticoats were made.

George Blomgren has returned to school after a few weeks' absence on account of illness.

The Seniors are busy with their High School play, "All of a Sudden Peggy."

The Seniors are much enthused over the news that their class pins have come. The pins are of neat design, having on them, "W. H. S., 1919," and are very classy.

Vira Morrison is yet unable to attend school.

There has been a quizzical atmosphere in High this week, due to the fact that the cards will be given out Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter were visitors in the Primary room this week. Mr. Porter spoke to the children. They enjoyed his speech and are in hopes he will come again soon.

The Primary room pupils are making rabbits and chickens for the coming Easter.

Ethel Pittman was absent this week on account of illness.

The tests in the third and fourth grade room ended last Wednesday.

Miss Tipton's room is planning Humpty Dumpty decorations for Easter.

Archie Padberg has left the seventh grade for his home in Morrow county.

The fourth and fifth grades have been very busy with tests this week.

Teacher—What was the Monroe Doctrine?
Pupil—It prohibited polygamy.

Teacher—Could the street railways use steam locomotives?

Pupil—No; they couldn't turn the corners.

The report cards are to appear again next Monday. From all indications they will show the results of hard study the past month.

Professor Milton Simpson, head of the English Department in Whitman College, will give the Commencement address in the evening of May 23. The Commencement exercises will be held in High School auditorium.

Superintendent Fitzpatrick announces that he will conduct examinations in both the Old and New Testaments May 2, 1919. The questions are prepared and the manuscripts graded by State Superintendent J. A. Churchill. Credit may be given in High school for this work.

A statement issued by the state banking department on the basis of the call of March 4, shows total deposits in all banks and trust companies of Oregon amounting to $228,911,632.43. This is an increase over March 4, 1918, of $39,820,323.75.

Stewart & Engstrom, of Salem, and M. W. Lorenz, of Portland, are the successful bidders on two buildings to be constructed at the state institution for the feeble-minded. The Salem firm will build the boys' dormitory at the contract price of $25,411 and the Portland firm will construct the combined hospital and dormitory at a cost to the state of $25,372.
