

EASTERN OREGON'S LARGEST DENTAL OFFICE

On May first our office will be increased to five chairs and three operators, giving us the largest office in Eastern Oregon. This means that we have increased our business three times over by giving work that stands the test of time.

We aim to so please and satisfy you that you will return to us for any future work and feel justified in recommending us to your friends. Nothing better could be selected to have your judgment upon than our ability to succeed. With the assistance of three operators we can give out-of-town patients quick, accurate service—completing most cases in one to three days, saving you both time and money.

We advertise and live up to what all men of reputation can do, and beyond that no man can go.

WESTON SCHOOLS

The Seniors are the proud owners of class pins—which fact makes a few of Weston's idlers wish they had continued their education.

Vira Morrison has returned to school after a long struggle with a sore foot.

Hazel Duncan spent Wednesday in Walla Walla.

The Seniors are busy with their class play, "All of a Sudden Peggy." Their coach, Miss Simmons, has appointed the following cast: Lord Crackenthorpe, Worth Watts; Jimmy Keppel, George Blomgren; Jack Menizes, Otis Gould; Parker, William Van Winkle; Lucas, Theodore Walden; Lady Crackenthorpe, Ruth Proebstel; Millicent Keppel, Minnie Johnson; Mrs. Colquhoun, Vida Greer; Mrs. O'Mara, Hazel Duncan; Peggy O'Mara, Dorothy Proebstel.

Mr. J. H. Williams, manager of the Weston Mercantile Co., has offered a prize for the best business letter written by any member of the High School typing class. The substance of this letter must cover Weston's resources. The conditions of the contest are as follows:

1. The letters must be written on "Weston and Her Resources," and contain not more than three hundred words.
2. Ten dollars in prizes will be divided among the three winning entrants, as follows: first prize, $5.00; second prize, $3.00; third prize, $2.00.
3. The judges will be two disinterested persons who will correct the papers and award the prizes.

The school is learning the official Victory Loan song, "Uncle Sammy, Here's My Share."

Rev. R. E. Gornall of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Pendleton has accepted the invitation of the graduating class to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday afternoon, May 25.

The two Snider boys, Claude and Leonard, have left school—much to the regret of Weston Schools. They have moved to Athens.

Raymond Anderson told some very interesting stories of Sweden during Miss Colvin's language class recitation.

Mrs. McNee has presented a petunia of unusual size to Miss Rintoul. One of the blooms measured three and one-half inches across.

Miss Velma Gerking has been playing the role of "Miss Tipton." Miss Tipton went to Pendleton Wednesday to greet her brother upon his return from France.

The diplomas for the graduating class have arrived, and the names are being engraved by a local printer.

The Seniors have received their invitations, and are much pleased with them.

There was a jolly bunch of children when the eighth grade invited the sixth and seventh grade to accompany them up the creek on a picnic Tuesday afternoon. A good time was enjoyed by all and exceptionally good refreshments were served. When the pupils came home they were "dog tired" and loaded down with flowers.

"OREGON FIRST"

(By Robert E. Smith, Executive Manager Oregon Victory Loan.)

The world war through which we have so recently passed is the greatest event in the world's history since the beginning of the Christian era. The part which Oregon has played in this world war will be remembered long after we and our children are dead. Our heritage of this war will be our record of patriotic achievement, and this record will be made in two ways: It will be the record of our boys who were in the service, and the record of those of us who stayed at home and tried to do our part by supporting our Government and the Boys.

Oregon's military record stands head and shoulders above that of any other state. Oregon was first in the enlistment and had a larger percentage of its population under arms than any other state in the Union. The records of the old Third Oregon, the Coast Artillery and the 91st Division are records which will never die and of which every Oregon citizen may well be proud. The record of Lieutenant Burgard, who was five times wounded and who led 250 Oregon boys over the top of whom 218 were left upon the battle field after an hour and twenty minutes of fighting, is only one of a number of instances of valor by Oregon men which will never be forgotten. Lieutenant Dorris made his way to brigade headquarters after having had his lower jaw shot away, in order that another officer might be detailed to his company—all of the other officers having been killed. Although he was decorated with the croix de guerre for his heroism, the best appreciation of this act will be found in a never dying recollection of it by the people of Oregon.

There is no instance of record where Oregon troops faltered under fire, and the record of our boys in service is one hundred percent perfect. So far the record of Oregon's citizenry in its patriotic duty has been perfect. We have been foremost in patriotic drives of every kind, having twice led the nation in Liberty Loan campaigns. It is a distinct privilege for those of us who stayed at home to be permitted to complete the wonderful record of our boys by making a 100 percent record in our duties of citizenship. Yet it is a tremendous responsibility, as the people of the state would never live down the disgrace of tainting our military record by failure to lead all other states in this last great patriotic endeavor.

Italy has discovered that Woodrow Wilson's repeated negatives do not mean an affirmative.

Mexico is peeved because she has been overlooked by the peace conference—having such a peaceable record!

In his answer to Italy President Wilson has again shown the vision and decision of a great world statesman.

And yet we opine that Lloyd George is too firmly secure in his position to stumble over the North-cliffe.

This is the way the Methodist Centenary will spend the $105,000,000 which it expects to obtain by May 25 in cash or pledges extending over five years: $40,000,000 on a gigantic foreign missionary plan—including churches, schools, colleges and other educational features; $40,000,000 on a similarly large plan for the home field, of which $11,000,000 will be expended to strengthen rural churches; $25,000,000 on war reconstruction at home and abroad.

It is becoming apparent that the central powers were not the only self-seeking nations in Europe.

The state highway should and will pass through Weston along—well name the route yourself if you want to.

And now it seems as though something is the matter with the men in Bremen.

Mexico surlily declares that she doesn't want the Monroe doctrine—but whatever Mexico doesn't want is pretty certain to be good for her.

Blue Mountain Music Festival

A great musical triumph—such as could not have been surpassed, perhaps, in the entire Northwest—was scored this week in Walla Walla by the Blue Mountain Music Festival. Acting Governor Hart said truly that Boston itself would have been proud of such a performance.

Mr. Edgar Fischer directed the festival orchestra and Mr. Eugene H. Storer the festival chorus and orchestra. The principals in the beautiful cantata, "The Rose Maiden," presented Wednesday night, were Mrs. Lela G. Saling, soprano; Miss N. Bernice Richmond, contralto; Mr. Lucius W. Metz, tenor; Mr. Sigurd B. Nelsen, bass. Mrs. Saling is a Weston singer and Miss Richmond a former Weston girl, so that this community shared in a measure in the laurels which they won. The singing of Mrs. Saling was a revelation to those not heretofore acquainted with the wonderful vocal gifts which she has faithfully cultivated under expert tutelage.

While both were heard to advantage in solos, the voices of Mrs. Saling and Miss Richmond were particularly enchanting in their trio with Mr. Nelsen—one of the gems of the cantata.

On Artists' Night, Thursday, Mrs. Saling sang most delightfully a group of songs—The Wind's in the South; D'arte, Vissi D'amore, from "Tosca;" Parla, and an aria from "Robert Le Diable."

The chorus and orchestra were superb in the cantata rendition. The chorus contained 350 voices. Weston was well represented in the mammoth pavilion both evenings of the festival.
