"All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy"

The seating capacity of Memorial Hall was taxed Tuesday night to accommodate its first audience, which assembled to enjoy and did most certainly enjoy the Senior class play, "All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy." In fact, not a few of the late comers went back out and hustled their own seats.

It was a pleasing little comedy, cleverly presented. Dorothy Proebstel was a charming and vivacious Peggy, and was well supported by every member of the cast. Worth Watts drew many a laugh in his amusing impersonation of the bughunting English peer, and his honors in this respect were shared by Hazel Duncan as the buxom and designing Irish widow.

The cast in full follows: Lord Crackenthorpe, W. Watts; Jimmy Keppel, George Blomgren; Jack Menzies, Otis Gould; Parker, William Van Winkle; Lucas, Theodore Walden; Lady Crackenthorpe, Ruth Proebstel; Millicent Keppel, Minnie Johnson; Mrs. Colquhoun, Vida Greer; Mrs. O'Mara, Hazel Duncan; Peggy O'Mara, Dorothy Proebstel.

Worth Watts and Gail Williams amused the audience with burlesque acrobatics between acts. Receipts were $138.

Memorial Hall Gains Friends

Secretary Barnes of the Umatilla County Pioneer Association and the Memorial Hall board are highly gratified over the encouragement given the pioneers' and soldiers' memorial by different friends throughout the country. They express their sincere appreciation of the gifts, which will be put to excellent use in beautifying and equipping Memorial hall. In addition to the donations heretofore received—which included a check for $50 from W. M. Blakeley—the following are reported: H. J. Taylor of Pendleton, president of the association, $25; A. L. Douglas of Ione, Morrow county, $10; R. Alexander of Pendleton, $10; Miss Mabelle Croft of Prosser, Wash., $5.

No matter how Weston people may differ on other subjects, with one voice they justly acclaim the town's excellent school. This year, because of the "flu" hiatus, it has done its work in much less than a year and has done it superlatively well. It is cause for congratulation that Superintendent Fitzpatrick and nearly all of his assistants will return next year. All were re-elected.

In the Leader's view the following affirmative votes at the special election June 3 will be in line with the state's best interests:

Six Percent County Indebtedness for Permanent Roads Amendment. Vote 300 yes.

Industrial and Reconstruction Hospital Amendment. Vote 302 yes.

State Bond Payment of Irrigation and Drainage District Bond Interest. Vote 304 yes.

Five Million Dollar Reconstruction Bonding Amendment. Vote 306 yes.

Roosevelt Coast Military Highway Bill. Vote 310 yes.

Reconstruction Bonding Bill. Vote 312 yes.

Market Roads Tax Bill. Vote 316 yes.

WESTON SCHOOLS

AN AUSPICIOUS COMMENCEMENT

Diplomas Awarded to Class of Seventeen—Enjoyable Exercises.

Diplomas and gifts in hand, the largest class ever graduated from Weston High School and the second largest class graduated this year in Umatilla county—ranking next to Pendleton—passed out of the portals of their revered Alma Mater, Wednesday evening, ready to face the world with fearless and confident eyes.

The exercises were impressive and beautiful and were enjoyed by an audience that completely filled the large auditorium. An exceptionally strong and able address was given by Professor Walter Simpson of Whitman College, who showed that the Golden Age was not in the past, is not in the future, but in the everlasting Now. Mrs. Saling was in truly splendid voice and the enthusiastic reception given her shows that Weston appreciates its wonderfully gifted singer. Her program numbers were "Birds on the Wing" and "Villanelle." She responded to an encore with "Mother o' Mine." Mrs. Watts played her accompaniments.

The program follows: March—Mrs. F. D. Watts. Invocation—Rev. E. F. Wriggle. Piano solo—Ruby Price. Vocal solo—Lela G. Saling. Address—Professor Milton Simpson.

Vocal solo—Lela G. Saling. Announcements—Superintendent Fitzpatrick.

Presentation of Diplomas—Chairman G. W. Staggs.

Cash prizes offered by Manager Williams of the Weston Mercantile Co. for the best brief description of Weston and its resources, in letter form, were awarded in the order named to Hazel Duncan, Minnie Johnson and Wilma Harbour.

The superintendent announced that scholarships had been awarded as follows:

Willamette University, George Blomgren; Whitman College, Velma Gerking; Oregon Conference, Wilma Harbour.

Wilma Harbour led the graduating class in standing with 95 percent. Maud Withers led the Juniors with 97.

Baccalaureate Services

A large congregation attended the baccalaureate services Sunday morning. Rev. R. E. Gornall of Pendleton clothed eternal truths in earnest and at times emphatic language in his sermon from the text, "Be Ye Ready." Miss Bernice Richmond of Walla Walla sang delightfully, with Miss Stack as accompanist. She has a rich and beautiful contralto whose full, round tones entranced the audience in an aria from Mendelssohn's St. Paul. Her second number was also well chosen. The program:

March—Ruby Price. Invocation—Rev. S. E. Powell. "Rock of Ages"—Congregation. Scripture reading. "Onward Christian Soldiers"—Congregation. Vocal solo—Bernice Richmond. Sermon—Rev. R. E. Gornall. Vocal solo—Bernice Richmond. Benediction.

Seniors Are Banqueted

The graduating class of Weston High School were honor guests Monday evening for one of the most delightful affairs of the season when the Juniors entertained with their annual banquet in the reception rooms of the high school. A graceful basket of yellow roses formed the center piece for each table, while gold candle shades and quantities of purple tulle very effectively carried out the color scheme of purple and gold—the class colors.

Favors for the girls were quaint little corsage bouquets made of yellow rosebuds and tiny old-fashioned flowers tied with fluffy bows of purple maline. Favors for the boys were small button-hole bouquets of yellow rosebuds.

The toasts were arranged to represent the different parts of the class flower—the rose—and included the following: The Stem—Mr. Fitzpatrick. The Bud—Hazel Duncan. The Thorn—Gail Williams. The Leaves—Jessie Davis. The Blossom—George Blomgren. Several others responded to im-
