

WESTON LEADER

VOLUME 42

WESTON, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1919

NUMBER 2

Ladies' Trimmed Hats for only 98c.

We have gone over the stock and selected hats that sold for up to $5.00, placed them on sale tables for only 98c. If you have failed to find the hat you want, do not overlook this opportunity to secure a pretty, late-style trimmed hat cheaper than the cost of the frame.

Just Received

A NEW SHIPMENT OF CORSETS

that have been delayed, comprising the much wanted models of

THE WARNER MAKE

It will be a pleasure to show these and be of service to you in supplying your needs.

LADIES' COATS--About one dozen pretty spring coats remain---all splendid materials, snappy styles. We will not carry them over. If you have delayed getting a spring coat you cannot miss this opportunity to secure a very attractive garment at about one-third the former price.

ARROW SHIRTS

There is an Arrow shirt for every man everywhere. A shirt that is as well made as fifty years experience can suggest.

Weston Mercantile Co.

BUTTER WRAPS at Leader Shop

Sixty (minimum).....	$1 00
One hundred.....	1 35
Two hundred.....	2 00
Each additional hundred.....	0 60

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week
Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The first annual rose show was held in Springfield last week.

Conrad P. Olson of Portland, was named code commissioner by Chief Justice McBride.

The most successful wool sale in years was held at Condon last week. About 750,000 pounds of wool was sold.

Grace E. Garret has been appointed postmistress at Helix and Mrs. Betty Miller at Holdman, both in Umatilla county.

The 14th annual meeting of the Oregon Bankers' association will be held in Portland on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Brigadier General Eric P. Disque, former commander of the spruce division, has been decorated with the distinguished service medal.

Governor Olcott appointed Dr. John Benson of Portland and Dr. R. C. McDaniel of Portland, as members of the state board of medical examiners.

More than 50 osteopaths from all parts of the state gathered at Portland last week for the annual session of the Oregon Osteopathic association.

At a meeting of several hundred former service men of Lane county in Eugene, Lane county post of the American Legion was formally organized.

An increase from $1 to $2 an acre foot is sought by the Central Oregon Irrigation company in an application filed with the public service commission.

Nearly $500,000 worth of liquor has been confiscated and destroyed by the war emergency squad of the Portland police department since February 1, 1918.

Harry Moore, 16 years old, of Eugene, won first prize on his bread at a cooking contest held in connection with an achievement meeting of the Dunn school club of Eugene.

Petitions presented by the Oregon Single Tax league for a constitutional amendment to be voted on at the 1920 election were approved by Sam A. Koser, deputy secretary of state.

C. M. Knight, representing the federal bureau of cereal diseases, has arrived at the Oregon Agricultural college from Nevada to investigate the cereal diseases in Oregon, Idaho and Washington.

Mrs. C. E. Andrews, of La Grande, mother of Bert Andrews, who was the first Oregon member of the Rainbow division to meet his death in France, has been named honorary president of the Oregon chapter of the Rainbow division veterans, an organization which embraces 27 states.

The Klamath Indians of Oregon will be permitted to sue in the court of claims to recover approximately 100,000 acres of land which, they say, was omitted in fixing the boundaries of the Klamath reservation, by the terms of a bill introduced in the house by Representative Sinnott.

First Lieutenant Louis H. Compton of Salem, recently returned from overseas, bringing with him the croix de guerre awarded by Marshal Petain of France for bravery in action, will be state parole officer to succeed Joseph F. Keller, according to announcement made by Governor Olcott.

A new irrigation project by which 1600 acres of land will be brought under water on the south side of the Klamath river, between Klamath Falls and Keno is going rapidly forward. The water has been diked from the lands in that section and will be pumped on again by two large centrifugal pumps.

Warning is given by J. O. Holt, manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association, that owing to the tremendous peach crop in the Willamette valley this year the fruit will be marketless unless thinned to a great extent. He declared that otherwise all the peaches will be small and it will be difficult to sell them.

A mandamus suit was filed in Marion county circuit court by S. A. Mulkey and others interested in the organization of a bank for St. Johns, in which the court is asked to issue an order directing the state banking board to issue a charter to the new bank or show cause for refusal. Petition for a charter for the bank at St. Johns was filed April 16 and was disapproved by the state superintendent of banks on the ground that no need for a bank existed.

NOW IS THE TIME

to select your

CHANDLER SIX

the car that

WON FIRST PRIZE

both days in the 200-yard dash (motor dead, driver on the ground)

WESTON PICNIC, JUNE 6-7

Our Factory Quota for 1919

NEARLY SOLD OUT

PLAY SAFE

Delay May Mean Disappointment

Geo. Shields

YOUR CHANDLER DEALER
(PHONE 472) MILTON, OREGON

TERMS CASH--At Leader Shop.

Ask Your Boy

When the fighting was thickest---
When the suffering was greatest---

WHERE WAS THE SALVATION
ARMY LASSIE?

He'll say:

"SHE WAS RIGHT ON THE JOB"

And now, back home---in the byways and hidden places---where misery always lives, where men, women and children are on the downgrade, she's still "RIGHT ON THE JOB."

Help Her to Carry On

THE SALVATION ARMY HOME SERVICE FUND

June 22 to 30