

Last Friday and Saturday we were very much inclined to hunt up the cause of such "bellerings" and trumpeting as used to emanate from the roaring lions and mighty elephants when the circus came to town; and if we found the cause aforesaid we were going to have our Honorable Mayor put his patented "kibetus" on it—but

LO AND BEHOLD

When we found the cause to be the "Rarin' to Go" of a Hudson Super we quietly sat by and watched her go.

After the judges' report we offered Adams a stogie but he politely declined and was heard to mutter that it wasn't quite long enough and he would take Gatos hereafter.

Our Pioneer Picnic

was a big success in every detail. The program each day was complimented on all sides; the ball games were pronounced the best ever seen at a Pioneer Picnic, and all the various sports and contests were fine, interesting fun and nobody hurt. Come Again!

We expect to begin inventory this week with our successors—Messrs. Jones & Jones—to whom last week we gave you an introduction.

There is nothing worse than bad, foul smelling breath; get rid of it for your friends' sake anyway. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will clean and purify your stomach and bowels; your breath will be sweet, your disposition improved, your friends increased. 35c. Tea or Tablets. H. Goodwin. Adv.

After a pleasant visit with Weston friends during the picnic, A. L. Douglas and family drove home to Ione in a Hudson Super Six bought of Dr. Watts. The doctor took in the deal the Hudson he sold to Andy several years ago. Andy declares that having gotten a fine car and heard a tuneful Weston journalist warble in the picnic chorus, he is delighted all around.

Joe Hodgson has taken an option for the purchase of 2400 acres four miles south of Winona, Wash., and six miles from La Crosse. This big ranch is known as the Mansfield place and is highly improved. It has a modern 17-room residence, with electric lights and hardwood floors. A complete outfit of farm machinery, including a steam threshing rig, goes with the place, as do also 42 head of mules and a number of work horses. There are also a barn holding 50 horses, a concrete granary and 27 portable grain bins. The place contains 2000 acres of plow land, 1100 acres of which are now in crop. Prospect farm near Echo will be traded in as part consideration by Mr. Hodgson if the deal is completed.

Charles McMorris, Purdy, well known to Weston people, has written and published a book of 95 pages on Mexico that has attracted favorable notice. He is a cadet at Missouri Military Academy, where he will soon graduate, and next fall he expects to take up the study of journalism at Columbia University, New York. Prior to going to Missouri he attended high school at Portland and Los Angeles. Charles is only 17 years old. He is a son of Mrs. Lillian Agnes Purdy and a grandson of the late Charles McMorris, Weston pioneer.

Reports come from the mountains that several bands of sheep got mixed, because of deserting herders, thus making much grief for the owners in their efforts to unscramble the animals. Ten thousand head in all are said to have been involved in the tangle while on their way across the Blues. Another band in the same neighborhood was attacked by four bears, and 14 head of sheep were killed. The herder has sent out a hurry call for bear hunters, and hopes the government hunter will come with them.
