BREVITIES

For Sale—Set of breeding work harness. Andy Barnett.

See J. E. McDaniel for a bargain in 40 acres of timber land.

Joe Wurzer returned from a recent fishing trip to the Umatilla river, with a 15½-inch trout.

Miss Gladys Smith is enjoying a two weeks' vacation visit with her sister and brother at Nampa, Idaho.

Miss Artie Hart of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tucker.

Otho Reeder of Athena has bought a Chandler touring car from Geo. Shields, agent for this territory.

Mrs. J. E. Jones motored to Walla Walla Saturday with F. J. Jackson and family of Gerking Flat to attend camp meeting.

The contract for furnishing coal to the Weston school district was awarded by the board to P. T. Harbour. The wood contract went to Dr. F. D. Watts.

The mountain grasshopper fighters received a lot of poison mash Saturday—Paris green being the principal ingredient. They promptly put it out, and it is said to be making a killing.

C. D. Gabrielson of Salem—a celebrated Oregon cartoonist who handles fire insurance as a side issue—lately rambled through Weston, stopping to call on the local agents. "Gabe's" visits here are all too seldom.

Robert Withee and family of Walla Walla were recent guests at the J. P. Lieualen farm. Mrs. Withee was formerly a Weston girl, Miss Bessie Logan. Mr. Withee represents the Harrington Combine Tractor Co.

F. A. Lundell of Ione, Morrow county, came up to attend the wedding of his grandson, Leon Lundell. Mr. Lundell has 24 grandchildren, but as this was the first one to marry he did not feel that he could miss the event.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis left this week for a three months' vacation trip. They have gone to Molson, Washington, where their younger son, Claud Davis, is located. They will afterward visit J. O. Davis and family at Echo.

J. B. Hart, now a substantial farmer near Walla Walla, was a recent Weston visitor. Mr. Hart was the guest for a time of Trajan Tucker on Wild Horse mountain, which he saw for the first time—although he "grew up" in the Weston country.

A party consisting of Henry, Jasper and Fred Sams returned Saturday from a bear hunt on the Salmon river. They saw no less than thirteen bears, and got two of them. They also saw the tracks, said to have been 16 inches long, of a giant silvertip. They put forth no special effort to make this fellow's acquaintance.

William N. Oliver, now a resident of Reed Point, Montana, has sent together with his Leader subscription a donation of $5.00 to Memorial Hall at Weston. He reports that crops in his locality are not looking so good as at this time last year. Even with plenty of rain from now on crops will be 50 percent short of last year's yield in White Beaver valley.

S. T. Gore, the well known architect and builder of Walla Walla, was the successful bidder among four—although not the lowest—for the Alick Johnson farm residence northwest of town, work on which is now on progress. This beautiful home of the Johnson family will be of the bungalow type and will contain nine rooms. It will cost complete in the neighborhood of $8000.

Mrs. Mary C. Gilliam lost a work horse in a peculiar manner at her place in the uplands recently. While jumping a fence the horse was wounded in the thigh by a snag, and bled to death. No team being available to move the animal, which rested on a rocky ledge, it was covered with bark and burned. This is the second horse Mrs. Gilliam has had the misfortune to lose in a few months by accident.

Hall & Harman, local blacksmiths, are doing a little little work. The other day they put shoes on a colt 18 days old. He was hardly bigger than half-a-minute, and his feet were about the size of a silver dollar. The work was done to the satisfaction of the owner, who went on his way rejoicing. Later they put shoes on a burro for an old Bakersfield, California, prospector who was going through to Idaho.

The Blue Mountain Sawmill property consisting of over 1100 acres of good land, a lot of timber and a good sawmill and box factory, all for sale. It would make three or four good farms and the mill can pay the whole bill. Three or four young men with some PEP can make a bonanza out of this opportunity. It must be sold, and $16,500 takes the whole thing. F. D. Watts.

The "glad habd" was extended by Weston people yesterday with especial cordiality to Sergeant James Kirkpatrick (ranking as master engineer, senior grade) who served 18 months overseas. He came home with his mother, who has been visiting in Portland. He says the best paper he read in Paris was the Weston Leader.

There is nothing worse than bad, foul smelling breath; get rid of it for your friends' sake anyway. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will clean and purify your stomach and bowels; your breath will be sweet, your disposition improved, your friends increased. 35c. Tea or Tablets. H. Goodwin. Adv.

"He that hath not music in his soul and is not moved by concord of sweet sounds" would better stay away from the Pendleton celebration. The Pendleton, Milton and Weston bands have all three been engaged to play both days.

The state board of auto mechanics examiners created by the last legislature is distributing application blanks looking to the early examination and licensing of every auto mechanic in the state.

J. E. Jones took a day off from rural mail carrying yesterday, and was among the Weston folk who saw the big welcome to the soldier boys at Walla Walla.

Good seven-room house with modern appointments and six lots for sale at a bargain. Terms. Robert Proudft.

Sergeants E. L. Blomgren and Sylvan Kennard sailed from France June 15, and will soon be home.

Grandma Banister is reported today to be in a very critical condition.

Surely Some Show

Pendleton, Or., June 24.—The pluggiest, ugliest plug ugly parade Pendleton has ever been privileged to peep at will writhe and wriggle its way along the line of march of the Fourth of July procession. Originality will be present in such large quantities that the judges will have to roll the bones to decide who shall carry off the $15, $10 and $5 prizes offered for the best plugs in the line.

There is no limit to the grotesque, the supernatural, the farcical or the terrible. Bolshewickers, Hun-dressed monsters or any other species of rare bird will be welcomed, and persons who are trying to figure out some prize winning costume are urged to eat a picnic dinner of cold meats, salads, sandwiches, beans, cucumbers, cherries, milk, custard and persimmons some evening before retiring and then register their impressions.

Two miles of parade is predicted by Ed Geist, chairman of the parade committee, who says Jake Welch will have about half that distance filled with plug uglies. Five fraternal organizations representing Helix, Weston and Athena have declared they will have floats all capable of taking that $100 prize money.

Local fraternal orders, stores and owners of private cars are falling in line in great shape, and Mr. Geist is certain that the parade will be the largest the Fourth of July has yet brought out in Pendleton.

"Standard"

Theatre, Athena
