BREVITIES

Mrs. Xantippe Fennimore is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Reeves.

Walter Beamer left yesterday on his return to the Cameron ranch near Nobleford, Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price motored Tuesday to Bingham Springs for a few days of camping and fishing.

Second-growth dry cordwood, fir and tamarack, banked out in county road, at $5.00 per cord. Carl Brutscher.

Services will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Episcopal church in this city by Rev. Alfred Lockwood of Pendleton.

Mrs. H. P. Smith is reported to be improving, after submitting at Walla Walla to an operation for the removal of a tumor.

Captain C. H. Smith sailed recently from Europe, and spent the Fourth of July on the broad Atlantic, bound for home.

Thieves broke the lock to Frank Saling's garage in Pendleton Monday night and drove off with his Buick Six touring car.

Mrs. Florence Emerson and her nephew, Roy Erb, who is just out of army service, are visiting here from Greer, Idaho.

Reports from the Pilot Rock neighborhood say that the crop will be very light this year. Only the best wheat will make twelve or fifteen bushels per acre.

M. C. Eagleton and family have moved to the garden tract belonging to the H. Key estate, on Pine creek below town, which they have leased for a term of years.

Jack Githens drove over from Walla Walla the other day in his home-made car. He picked the parts out of a junkpile and put them together—making quite a nifty little "bug."

The family half of Weston's new hardware firm arrived recently from Spokane, and are now comfortably domiciled in the E. C. Rogers residence on Water street. They are Mrs. R. V. Jones and Mrs. Nelson H. Jones and two children, Maynard and Audrey.

A party consisting of Mrs. J. H.
Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin and Mrs. R. G. Saling motored Tuesday to Pendleton to attend the Chautauqua. Mr. R. E. Milard, flutist on the Chautauqua circuit, returned with the party and was the guest overnight of Mr. and Mrs.
Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ross are welcomed back to Weston by their many friends in this community, having decided to again make this their home. Mr. Ross has disposed of his land and leases in the Pilot Rock neighborhood, where he has been successfully engaged in farming. He also sold his entire outfit with the exception of a few work horses.

David Cook Sanderson, editor of the Freewater Times, was found dead in his bed from heart trouble in a Portland hotel, yesterday. Mr.
Sanderson was born in England 63 years ago, and for 25 years was a Methodist minister in Canada. Upon taking charge of the Times ten or more years ago, he became one of the most successful country publishers in this section.

The Milton Eagle relates what is considered a miraculous escape for the Owen Obert family when their Overland car turned over on a steep grade on the north fork of the Walla Walla river and rolled to the bottom, a distance of several feet.
Mrs. Obert suffered a dislocated shoulder and a broken collar bone, while Mr. Obert and the two children sustained only minor bruises.

Bert Piersol, for several years a well known upland farmer, has moved to Vale, Malheur county, where he bought the Jinks Taylor alfalfa farm of 320 acres. Eighty acres of the place is in alfalfa and the remainder is pasture. Mr. Piersol took over a herd of dairy cows with the place and will engage largely in dairy farming. He chartered a car for his household goods and is driving his farm stock overland.

Mrs. G. W. Staggs suffered both a fracture and dislocation of her right ankle in a recent severe fall at Bingham Springs. While walking with a little grandchild in her arms she stumbled over a projecting root—this catching her foot and causing the serious injury stated. She was attended by Dr.
Boyd of Pendleton and is now an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital, where she will be compelled to remain for several weeks. She may not be able to discard crutches for three months.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have recently taken over the Hardware, Implement and Lumber business previously conducted by Messrs. Watts & Rogers at Weston, Oregon. The stock is being replenished and large shipments of goods are arriving almost daily, and more will follow until we can offer you one of the best lines of HARDWARE and IMPLEMENTS in Umatilla County.

We are contemplating extensive alterations in the Main Hardware Building and will also add a show room for implements, where we will be able to display, set up, a complete line of Farm Machinery.

It will be at all times be our aim to carry everything in our line needful to the community; and furthermore, nothing but goods of quality will be handled by us. If at any time we should have an inferior article we will be frank to tell you, and will sell it according to its merits.

It is a fact known to all that "everything is high," but we will do business on the least margin of profit possible to insure the safe conduct of the business.

We will treat all alike and give everyone a square deal. We want you to come in and get acquainted and make yourselves at home.

If courteous treatment, square dealing and good goods at the right prices are any inducement, you will trade with us.
