BREVITIES

J. M. Wise of the Wise Piano House was a visitor in Weston this week from Boise, Idaho.

Captain C. H. Smith arrived in New York City July 19 and has gone to Camp Merritt, New Jersey.

Mrs. P. T. Harbour returned Sunday from Walla Walla, where she has been under medical treatment.

John Planting of Helix had a 28-bushel average of No. 1 wheat from 20 acres in the Spring gulch district.

Do you want to increase your mileage on gas and power of your machine by 20 percent? If so, see A. W. Lundell.

Mrs. E. C. Rogers and children were here from Athena for a week-end visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Watts.

E. G. Brehm of Albee has sold to Oliver Dickenson of Athena a herd of eleven Durham cows, said to be among the finest herds in the county.

If Weston doesn't keep clean it will not be the fault of R. L. Reynaud, who has added a shower to the tub bathing facilities in his establishment.

The condition of Maynard Jones continues to be encouraging, although the young patient was brought very near to the "valley of the shadow."

Earl Rose, who was gassed while serving as an artillery soldier in France, was called to Pendleton Wednesday for an examination by an army surgeon.

"Bouncing boy" is right in describing the youngster who arrived Wednesday at the upland home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tucker. He weighed 11½ pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wurzer spent Friday and Saturday on the Umatilla river near the mouth of Meacham creek. The Leader's sporting editor is very pleasantly aware that they got some fish.

F. G. Lucas and Marion O'Hara left Wednesday by automobile for Lehman Springs. Marion will remain there to visit and attend his brother Frank, who has become enfeebled through failing health.

Dr. F. D. Watts returned Tuesday from his business visit to Portland. Worth Watts remained in the metropolis to study the operation of moving picture machines, in which he is making rapid progress.

We have been able to get a few sets of wagon skeins at a reduced price and we intend to give the wagon-owners the benefit of our cheap purchase. We can save you money. Call and see us. Hall & Harman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner and little daughter have returned from their motoring trip north. They have decided to locate at Opportunity, Wash., near Spokane, where they have invested in a garden and fruit tract.

Weston's harvest will now proceed as per usual, "Bob" McGrew having come up from Portland to sniff the grain dust. A harvest here without "Bob" around would be something like an old-time Dutch picnic without the lager.

R. E. York of the Saling garage has leased the A. L. Douglas residence on north Water street. Mr. and Mrs. York were joined yesterday by their two sons, who have been visiting their grandparents in Portland. The boys will attend school in Weston.

Fire Monday afternoon destroyed one thousand acres of wheat, approximately 30,000 bushels, near Prescott, Wash. The fire started from a threshing machine and a high wind was blowing. W. A. Groce, assistant state fire marshal, declared it to be the costliest grain fire in Washington's history. The grain was insured.

The ladies of the Saturday Afternoon Club announce an ice cream social for tomorrow—Saturday—evening at City park. There will be watermelon on ice, ice cream and cake and ice cream sundaes, and a delightful atmosphere of sociability. It will be an occasion, in fact, for community fraternization and good will. Net proceeds will be applied to the club's park fund.

A chicken thief created a midnight sensation Tuesday night on north Water street, when the henyard of the W. S. Paynes was raided. Squawking fowl disturbed the neighborhood, but it was not until next morning that the culprit was discovered. He proved to be a marauding badger—rather more adventurous than discreet. A twenty-two rifle ended his thieving career.

TOWN TALK

"COMPETITION IS THE LIFE OF TRADE"

Messrs. Watts & Rogers have discontinued business in Weston. They, however, have not gone far away, and we are told that it is their intention to go more extensively into the Hardware and Implement business in their newly-chosen home town than they did in Weston! As we have said in our previous advertisements in the Weston Leader, "Success to our Predecessors." This we say with all sincerity. For, if it were not for competition the little hardware store in Weston might continue on for an age without any material change. But, with the new course of events, this cannot be; Watts & Rogers will strive for your business in Athena and Jones & Jones will strive for your business in Weston. THE COMPETITION has been CREATED, and the BENEFIT IS YOURS.

The little store in Weston will be modernized, a larger stock will be carried, and while we regret that we can not promise you a reduction in prices at this time, (owing to the continued advance in all lines,) we CAN promise you that we will sell at a less margin of profit than would ordinarily be expected where there was no competition.

We have come to Weston to live, and we will do all in our power to promote the interests and welfare of the community.

We seek your acquaintance; and if courteous treatment, honest and conscientious dealing—with good goods at the right prices—offer any inducement, we will share your trade.

Most Respectfully Yours,

Jones & Jones
