

Davis-Kaser's AUGUST SALE

BEGINS FRIDAY, AUGUST 1—BE ON HAND

Fully three-fourths of this big stock is sharply reduced for this sale.

In many lines we have succeeded in accumulating considerable stocks—fortunately for us, as it turns out, for furniture pieces are advancing continually. This means that our present regular prices are under the market. Consider this and the special reductions made for this sale and you can readily see that this sale is the opportune time to buy Home Furnishings. Davis-Kaser's August Sales have always been genuine, worth-while bargain events, but all things considered, this one is the most opportune of all. Let nothing keep you away from it. The red tags are all over this big store and every one tells a story of money to be saved. Come prepared to buy, for you are sure to find things you want.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson of Gibbon were visiting Sunday and Monday at the J. E. Jones residence.

Do you want to increase your mileage on gas and power of your machine by 20 percent? If so, see A. W. Lundell.

T. C. Gettings, upland pioneer, was in town the other day and had the honor of meeting and greeting Weston's leading journalist.

Mrs. Robert Pardew of Fox Park, Wyoming, and Mrs. F. M. Godfrey of Orofino, Idaho, have been visiting their father, Porter Graham Senior.

Private Leo Read landed July 22 in Newport News, Virginia, after serving 13 months overseas in the artillery. He is expected to reach Weston within a few days.

Having had his foot jammed harshly against a piece of railroad steel, Marion Dixon is limping around. He has temporarily severed his connection with the O-W. track department.

The following rates, which took effect July 29, now apply on local residence telephones: Individual line $2.25, two-party line $2.00, four-party line $1.75. The raise is 25 cents in each instance.

L. L. Mann was in town Monday from Pendleton. Replying to inquiries from our crop reporter, Mr. Mann said his yield is exceeding expectations from his holdings south and east of Adams. It is running from 35 to 38 bushels per acre.

W. M. Davis, whose farm residence was destroyed last week by fire, has leased the brick residence on north Water street now held by Capt. C. H. Smith. The house will be occupied by Mr. Davis and family so soon as vacated by the present tenants.

At the head of Geer Springs, which for the past year or two has been showing the pace to the rest of the county, a remarkable yield of wheat for this season is reported. Parts of the Thompson and Martin holdings are said to have yielded an average of 50 bushels per acre.

Having often wished to take part in one of Weston's harvests, H. L. Hedrick did not find himself foot-loose until this season. Letting life insurance go for the nonce, he is serving as header tender with the John Banister combine. Meanwhile, Mrs. Hedrick and children are rusticiating at Meacham.

Jasper O'Harra was here from Central Point, Oregon, during the week, visiting his Weston brothers. He went from here to Lehman Springs to see his brother Frank, and expects to take the latter with him when he returns to southern Oregon. He will remain in this county until after the Round Up.

A. L. Swaggart, who has long been prominently identified with the pork industry, was in town the other day from Athena. He looked frightened, and admitted that he is. He feared, he said, that the government would not stop at the "big five" in its investigation of the meat trust, but would reach out and gather him into its dragnet.

A. W. Lundell of this city has extended the real estate end of his business by taking over the real estate department of Joe Kerley's establishment at Pendleton. Mr. Kerley will continue to handle the insurance and grain buying end. Mr. Lundell expects to spend about half his time in Pendleton, devoting the remainder to his Weston business.

Sergeant August Maugg and Sergeant Dennis Howard were here Saturday and Sunday while returning home from overseas to Grangeville, Idaho. These Idaho boys enlisted at the same time and served at St. Nazaire, France, with Sergeants Blomgren, Kennard and Kirkpatrick of Weston. They stopped here to visit Blomgren and Kennard, and the quartet had a jolly good time together.

Gross receipts were $40 at the lawn fete given Saturday evening by the Saturday Afternoon Club. With oriental illumination, the City park lawn and pavilion presented a decidedly pleasing appearance—especially in the absence of electric lights, which were temporarily out of commission. The club ladies took care to make all comers feel at home. They will sponsor another event of this kind on Saturday evening, August 9.

J. M. Maynard has about completed a deal for the purchase of the John Bonewitz fruit and garden tract in the upper end of town. The tract contains a profitable cherry orchard, and is improved with a commodious residence which will make a nice home for Mr. Maynard's seven children. Mr. Maynard is a Nebraska pioneer, having farmed in that state since 1880 until he came west with his wife and family in search of a new location. He says that Weston just suits him.

Corporal Ed. L. Wood, who has served more than three years in China with the 15th U. S. Infantry, expects to leave Tientsin for "the states" some time in August. He will come home to Weston so soon as he is relieved from duty.
