THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Runabout is a Runabout in reality—a regular business messenger, solving the question of economical and quick transportation. The Contractor, Builder, Traveling Salesman, Collector, Solicitor, all find the Ford Runabout the most convenient as well as the most economical among motor cars. Durable in service, and useful every day in the year. We solicit your order for one or more. We ask your patronage in the repair of your car, assuring you of genuine Ford Parts, skilled workmen, reasonable prices.

BREVITIES

Good, gentle milch cow for sale. J. A. Ross.

J. M. Ashworth and family were visiting in Walla Walla Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Wilsey returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Carille, Washington.

Frank Skinner and family left this week for their new home at Chester, Washington, near Spokane.

T. L. McBride is under Dr. McKinney's care with quite a serious illness, at his home on the Wild Horse.

Good seven-room house with modern appointments and six lots for sale at a bargain. Terms. Robert Proudfoot.

Ernest Ross and Marion O'Harra have gone to Lehman Springs for a season of hunting and mountain recreation.

Mrs. John Banister Junior has returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson, at La Crosse.

Sam Key came to town Saturday and sold his upland wheat crop to S. A. Barnes, agent of the Pacific Coast Elevator Co.

Walter Milton, who came home recently from La Grande, is under quarantine at the Fuson residence with a mild attack of smallpox.

William Payne was in Pendleton Wednesday, and ordered a monument which will be placed above the grave of the late Mrs. Payne in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

The condition of Mrs. W. E. Storms, who has had a painful experience with blood poisoning in the hand, is reported this week to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Chastain were here Sunday from their country home near Ferndale and called on Mrs. Warren A. Wood, a former schoolmate of Mrs. Nelson, at the L. S. Wood cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tinker of Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilsey of Rutledge, Missouri, have been visiting at the Wilsey farm near Weston. Mrs. Tinker is a daughter and Mr. Wilsey a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wilsey.

The C. H. Nelsons have gone to their new farm home near La Crosse, where Bud will again gladly commune with Mother Nature in ranching habiliments—Bud and not Mother Nature, of course, having donned the aforesaid habiliments. They shipped a carload of belongings.

Blackheads, blotches and pimples are generally caused by the improper action of the bowels. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea regulates the bowels, cleans the stomach, clears the complexion from the inside—nature's way—"Get that healthy, happy look." H. Goodwin.—Adv.

A new Chevrolet car belonging to Jess York was stolen from in front of the Liberty theatre at Walla Walla Sunday night. Later it was found on the Mill creek road about ten miles above the city, badly smashed, having rolled over a couple of times. It was damaged to the extent of $300.

In remitting for the Leader from Portland Mrs. Delia Winn writes: "We are comfortably located in the Glenco district and like our home and surroundings. We have excellent schools—both high and grammar. We always enjoy the Leader, with its news of old friends and the home town."

E. C. Rogers, a prominent suburban business man, was here Sunday admiring Weston's community hall and other metropolitan institutions. The visitor was taken in tow by Dr. Watts and guided safely across our traffic-congested street crossings. We trust that he gathered commercial pointers and civic inspiration from his visit.

Mrs. C. E. Clark returned Saturday to her home in Pendleton after a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Fannie McBride. After the Round-Up Mrs. Clark goes to Seattle to greet her husband, who is a marine engineer, upon his return from a long voyage in Alaskan waters. They contemplate spending the winter in California.

The Culley combine ran into a telephone wire while being brought in Saturday from the harvest field. While Harry Warren was pulling on the wire it broke and he lost his balance, falling from the extreme top of the combine. He whirled over once in the air, a la acrobat, but unlike an acrobat landed with a dull, sickening thud on adjacent territory. Save for a slight injury to his back, however, he is none the worse for his experience.
