

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Most of the Gas Companies throughout the country use a fleet of Ford Runabouts. The same is true of other big corporations. The reasons are very practical. The Ford Runabout is the most economical method of quick transportation from manufacturer to retailer. For soliciting business, for the Collector, for the Doctor, Contractor, Builder, and almost every other line of business activity, the Ford Runabout is really a necessity. We solicit your order for one or more. We ask your repair business. We would like your motor accessory business. We can serve you, we believe, to your best advantage.

It is reported that Alex McIntyre, a progressive young Athena farmer and large land owner, received $89,000 for this year's crop.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ackerman have moved to Weston from Milton. Mr. Ackerman has bought the D. R. Sowers cottage on north Broad street.

George O. Spring, farming within two miles of Moscow, Idaho, secured 50 1/2 bushels of Jenkins club spring wheat per acre on 9 1/2 acres. This is believed to be a record.

Andy Barnett is in Pendleton this week, relieving Virgil Lundel at the Standard grocery. Virgil is off duty for a short season of Round Up band and orchestra playing.

J. A. Ross has invested in a quarter section of good wheat land, all of which is in summer fallow, near Dayton, Washington. Mr. Ross and family left this week for their new home.

Mrs. W. A. Graham of Reedsport, Oregon, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. S. A. Barnes of Weston and Mrs. F. B. Boyd of Athena. She is accompanied by her son, Neil Graham, who is attending the Round Up. The Grahams are highly pleased with their Reedsport location.

Dr. Painless Parker, in announcing opening of a new office in Pendleton, brings out the fact that he is at the head of the greatest dental organization in the world. He has twenty-four offices altogether, and the widely known E. R. Parker System is used in every one of them.

Zack Spangle of Dayton, Oregon, uncle of Mrs. W. M. Powers, and her cousin, Charles Spangle, were guests yesterday at the Powers residence while here for the Round Up. They are also visiting Ray Spangle, Pendleton's scatter gun expert. Charles is just back from overseas service.

Osie Barton, a young man well known to Athena and Weston people, died Sunday at Midvale, Idaho, of typhoid fever and pneumonia. The remains were shipped to Athena, where funeral services were held Tuesday at the Christian church. Mr. Barton is survived by a widow and two children.

Ellison-White Chautauqua System announces that October 25, 27, 28, 29 and 30 are the dates of the Chautauqua Festival at Weston. It says: "Five sure-fire attractions come to you during Festival week. Every one has been tested and proven, and every one measures up to the high quality standards always maintained by Ellison-White."

Hard surfacing of the state highway has now been completed to a point two miles this side of Adams, and the camp is now at Athens. Between three and four hundred men are employed with this outfit, and it is reported that the Milton camp will likely be moved to either Athens or Weston. Completion of the highway as far as Weston is expected before the first of the year.

While motoring back Sunday from a mountain hunt, Cliff Culley stopped to take the shells out of his shotgun. With rare absence of mind he started off without the gun, which had been propped against the car fender and fell over in the road. It was a borrowed gun, but Cliff felt a commendable degree of concern when he reached town and found himself without it. So he drove back up the mountain, and was relieved to find the weapon in the possession of Charley May.

Standard Theatre PROGRAM

Beginning its regular Tuesday and Thursday programs on next Tuesday night, with "The Roughneck," the Standard Theatre has contracted for a series of motion pictures that places this popular little show house on a par with any picture theatre in the Inland Empire. In its repertoire of productions now offered its patrons, the Standard outclasses other small town theatres. It offers its patrons such stars as Nazimova in "Toys of Fate," "Out of the Fog," and "Revelation;" Griffith and DeMille six and seven reel specials; Warner in "The Man Who Turned White," "The Turn in the Road," "The Wolf;" Hart, Fairbanks, Pickford, Farrar, Reid, Desmond, Rhodes, Barriscale, Burke, Stone, Hayawaka, Ferguson, Dalton, Frederick, Michelena and others at regular admission prices. It is the only small town theatre playing big special feature pictures once a month—such as "The Unpardonable Sin," "The Auction of Souls," etc.

Tomorrow night (Saturday) is offered the seven-reel special DeMille picture, "The Whispering Chorus."

Sunday night Elsie Ferguson comes in "Barbary Sheep," a splendid Paramount production.

Tuesday night, the new program opening with "The Roughneck," a crackerjack outdoor story, with an all-star cast—possibly supplemented with a Chaplin comedy.

Thursday night, a new star to Standard patrons, Darmond, will appear in "What Every Woman Wants."

Yes, it's toasted

YOU know how much toasting improves bread. Makes it taste good. Of course—more flavor.

Same with tobacco—especially Kentucky Burley.

Buy yourself a package of Lucky Strike cigarettes. Notice the toasted flavor. Great! Nothing like it. The real Burley cigarette.
