BREVITIES

Clarence Beathe is visiting friends in Milton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall were visitors in Athena Monday afternoon.

James E. McDaniel is harvesting a fine crop of Gravenstein apples at his mountain ranch.

E. O. DeMoss left for Portland Wednesday on a buying trip for the DeMoss furniture store.

Homer L. Hedrick, formerly of Weston, is now connected with the Overland garage at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tucker and Miss Dorothy Bulfinch were Sunday guests at the C. F. Bulfinch home.

Miss Florence Simmons, a popular member last year of the Weston school faculty, is now teaching in the Miles City, Montana, high school.

Miss Louise Rintoul and Miss Elza Love of the Weston school faculty are comfortably domiciled in the William Davis home on north Water street.

W. L. Rayborn, who has been taking "bake oven" treatments for rheumatism at Walla Walla, is much improved in health and says he feels like a new man.

J. N. York, well known wheat farmer, has had the honor and privilege of welcoming another grandson, a recent arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Day on the Walla Walla river.

A young work mule at the J.
E. Jones place playfully jumped on a fretful porcupine and got his forelegs filled with quills. The mule was snubbed to a tree and the quills withdrawn with pincers.

Lon W. Booher of Athena, brother of W. H. Booher of this city, passed away October 5 at Pendleton at the age of nearly 54 years. The funeral services were held Wednesday in the Christian church at Athena.

D. K. Garrett has arrived in town from Northport, Washington, and has installed his jeweler's work shop in the City drug store. This newcomer comments favorably upon the friendly attitude of the Weston people.

It is reported that dogs have been used in chasing deer, contrary to the game laws, in the Coyote creek region of the Blue mountains.
In such case the owner of the dogs if convicted, is subject to a heavy penalty.

Thursday, October 23, has been designated as the dedication date of the new Memorial hall. Committees are being appointed to take charge of the various features, and this should be a time of rejoicing and jollification for the community at large.

Mrs. M. J. NorDean, for many years a resident of this city, but now located at Clayton, Washington, writes that she and her husband are well and very comfortably situated.
The crops in that section were good this season, while fruit and livestock yield satisfactory revenue.

Following is a list of pupils reported by the teacher, Merle Heidenrich, to have been neither absent nor tardy in Wild Horse district No. 11 during the school month ending October 3, 1919: Armond Bell, Lee Foster, Marvin King, Marie Foster, Helen Foster, Lois
King, Juanita King.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Swart of Donald, Washington, were here Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives of Mrs. Swart. Mr. Swart, who belongs to a pioneer Umatilla county family of railroaders, is now joint agent of the O-W. and Northern Pacific at Donald, a small station near Yakima. He was O-W. agent at Athena some 15 years ago.

Dr. W. H. McKinney has had unusual luck in securing pheasants since the season opened; a few days ago a friend gave him a quantity of venison, and then a fine duck from the Pamburn ranch appeared in the ice box—so this household's larder is running over with fatness just at present. "It's either a feast or a famine at our house," remarked the genial doctor.

The Saturday Afternoon club was most pleasantly entertained October 4 at the home of its new president, Mrs. H. Goodwin. The president appointed Mrs. A. J. McIntyre as vice president and Mrs. W. S.
Payne as reporter. After the business session an interesting program on "Scotland" was carried out as follows: "The Country," Mrs. C.
L. Pinkerton; "The People," Mrs.
W. S. Price. After a social hour, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Morrison and the hostess.

State highway locators were at work again this week on the Washington, Main and Broad streets route through Weston—indicating that this route has either been definitely selected or is favorably considered by the commission. It is said that this route shortens distance and in other respects lessens cost of construction. Elimination of the corner at Washington and Main streets is made possible through an offer by a local citizen to donate property on which the Phillips garage and barn are located. An expensive detour through the W. A. Barnes place is avoided by this route.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. F. Lavender. It was decided to hold a Christmas bazaar the 13th day of December. An interesting program, covering progress of missions in China, was presented under the leadership of Mrs. A. W. Lundell. Fifteen members and three visitors—Mrs. Marvin Price and the Misses Rintoul and Love—were present. New members registered were: Mrs.
A. J. Starmer, Mrs. Bertha Sowers, Miss Edna Hollenbeck and Miss Mabel Colvin.

Miss Frank Harris Davis of the High school faculty, who has been in Oregon but a short time, was be-mouning the fact that she knew nothing of the delicate flavor of pheasant meat. Quite opportunely, a kind friend presented a fine bird of this species to the Misses Hollenbeck and Colvin—whereupon these energetic young ladies prepared an appetizing game dinner and invited Miss Davis to dine with them. In such ways as this the benefits of living in Oregon are demonstrated.

Out of courtesy to Rev. Phinney, the Methodist church dismissed the evening service last Sunday and the congregation joined with that of the United Brethren church in extending a welcome to the new minister.

Ellsworth Woods and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrison left Monday on a motoring trip to Lewiston, Idaho, where they will be the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wood and family have moved from Walla Walla to Redmond, Oregon, where they will occupy the farm of Rev. N. D.
Wood.

Good seven-room house with modern appointments and six lots for sale at a bargain. Terms. Robert Proudfit.

Bundled wheat hay, near Athena, for sale. L. V. Warner, 333 Whitman street, Walla Walla.

Mrs. Eva Brehm of Albee, Oregon, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Mary Reeves.
