

Memorial Hall Dedication

Weston, Oregon

Oct. 23, 1919

If YOU come, everybody
will be there

(This space donated)

MEAT SCRAP

Egg Mash, Bone, Shell and Grit
for your chickens.

BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL

for your calves and other baby stock. Raise them without milk.

Joe Hodgson

BOX STATIONERY

In Large Variety and
Dainty Design

Goodwin's Drug Store

Preston-Shaffer Milling Co.

Established 1865

Athens, Oregon . Waitsburg, Wash.

American Beauty

and

Pure White

Flour

Made of selected bluestem in one of the best equipped mills in the Northwest.

Sold in Weston by Weston Mercantile Company

BREVITIES

The sawing, $3.00 an hour. Milton & Thorsen.

J. L. Hodgson was here this week from La Crosse.

Lester O'Harra has returned from a visit to Dufur, Oregon.

Mrs. Edna Driskell of Walla Walla is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beamer.

Mrs. E. M. Warren has gone to Pendleton for a visit at the home of her son, Sidney Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Woods and Mrs. D. N. McDonald motored over Tuesday from Walla Walla.

S. A. Barnes is remodeling his residence property. James Ashworth is in charge of the work.

Miss Fay Warren left Thursday for Baker, Oregon, to pass the winter with her sister, Mrs. Will Nordean.

Mrs. E. C. Rogers of Athena spent Thursday in this city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. D. Watts.

John Mayberry and wife have moved to the Rayborn farm on Weston mountain, where they will spend the winter.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick and the Misses Hollenbeck, Colvin and Davis motored to Walla Walla Saturday for a day's outing.

Miss Vera Tipton, a favorite member last year of the Weston school faculty, is in California attending the San Jose Normal.

H. L. Hedrick and wife are the proud parents of a ten-pound daughter which arrived at their home in Pendleton last Friday.

C. D. Beall, representing the Universal Film Corporation, transacted business Tuesday with the board of directors of the Weston Memorial Association.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hari Williams were guests at a delightful dinner party given by Professor and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick at their home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sams last week selected the furnishings of their new home from the E. O. DeMoss furniture store and have gone to housekeeping on a mountain ranch.

Rev. Mark O. Phinney, the new pastor of the United Brethren Church, arrived Monday from Holdman, Oregon, and will conduct next Sunday's services at the local church.

Mrs. Martha Van Winkle has been quite indisposed the past week. L. R. Van Winkle and wife have been temporarily residing at her home to assist in caring for the invalid.

Mrs. Margaret Rabb and Mrs. Nelson H. Jones, ardent nature-lovers, motored to the Rocky Ford vicinity Sunday afternoon to view the autumn colorings which are very brilliant this season.

The sixth anniversary of the founding of The Saturday Afternoon Club will be celebrated at the home of Mrs. J. C. Price, October 18. The members are anticipating an interesting session.

Otis Gould, who is in Corvallis attending the Oregon Agricultural College, requests the home folks to send him the Leader. He desires to keep in touch with events in this particular part of Umatilla county.

Last Saturday James Ashworth was seen carrying a 22 rifle and headed toward the mountains. "I'm out for a panther," remarked the jovial contractor and builder. "Nothing but big game satisfies my ambition."

Word has been received by local news dealers that many of the leading magazines will be late next month and a few may be forced to suspend publication on account of labor difficulties in the offices of the printing industries of New York.

Miss Ruth Proebstel was a guest at a charming farewell party given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott at their home in Pendleton, Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. George B. Woodard of Adams, who are departing for a winter's sojourn in Honolulu.

The Misses Doris and Mamie Barnes were responsible for a delightful bit of hospitality Monday evening when they entertained the Bachelor Girls' Club at their home. Needlework and social chat filled the time most pleasantly, and the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostesses rounded out the merry-making. Those present were: Misses Ruby Price, Myrtle Hodgson, Lurline Brown, Elza Love, Frank Harris Davis, Eliza Morrison and the hostesses.

Miss Stella M. Gilmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilmore of Reed and Hawley mountain, and Mr. Raymond W. Gordon of this city were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Gornall at the Methodist parsonage in Pendleton. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Grady Herndon. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will make their home in Weston, where both have many friends to wish them happiness.

Two Weston boys about eleven years old were taken into custody the other day by the chief of police for the theft of chickens from a widow's poultry yard. They were compelled to pay for the fowls and were released with a reprimand. The authorities give warning that the next of such offenses means the juvenile court for the young culprits.

Mrs. Alice Banks of Hermiston has been a guest this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Amy Van Skiver. One of the most sightly locations in this vicinity is occupied by Mrs. Van Skiver's residence, and visitors there comment upon the beauty of the landscape which meets the eye.

Bert Keizur and family, late of Gilliam county, have found Weston to their liking as a home town, after several weeks of residence. They are living in a cottage on south Broad street purchased by Mr. Keizur, who would like to rent an 80 or 100-acre upland farm in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morrison have returned from their vacation excursion to Lewiston, Idaho. They stopped in Walla Walla on the return trip for a visit with friends and relatives, and were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McRae, who spent Sunday in Weston.

A. J. Sample, veteran member of the O-W construction force—who has been with the company since 1887, was here this week from Pendleton to visit Mrs. Sample. After a day or two at his Weston home, Mr. Sample was called back to Pendleton by his mother's illness.

Longings for Weston caused Rulon Smith to become dissatisfied with life at Boise, Idaho, so he hied himself to our mountain town to be again with home folks and friends. He is already in service in the grocery department of the Weston Mercantile Co.

Albert Allyn and family are in town waiting for a car to take their belongings to Vale, Malheur county. Mr. Allyn has bought an irrigated farm of 120 acres in that section, 40 acres being in alfalfa.

Tuesday afternoon, October 21, there will be a meeting of the local Red Cross auxiliary at the work rooms. Business of importance demands attention and a full attendance is requested.

An eleven-point buck weighing 400 pounds dressed was killed in a recent hunt by Will Hall, Jess and Frank Pows, George Nesbit and John McGibbon. They saw a dozen deer on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Erma Davidson and Mrs. George Davidson attended the funeral of their niece and granddaughter, Opal Davidson, at Helix Thursday of last week.

C. H. Whitney, late of Waitsburg, has opened a shoe repair shop in the Wheeler building on Water street, near the Weston hotel.

Good seven-room house with modern appointments and six lots for sale at a bargain. Terms. Robert Proudfit.

Bundled wheat hay, near Athena, for sale. L. V. Warner, 333 Whitman street, Walla Walla.

The E. O. DeMoss family were entertained at pheasant dinner Sunday at the W. S. Price farm.

Mrs. J. P. Lieuallen and baby daughter are visiting relatives at Harrington, Wash.

Mr. Marvin Long of Athena was a Sunday guest of Miss Lela Powell.

A daughter was born October 9 to Mr. and Mrs. S. Thorsen.

Threatened leather prices ought to restore barefoot dancing to popularity.

Nowadays a patch is the honorable wound stripe of a faithful pair of trousers.

What has become of the old-fashioned fellow they used to call a spend-thrift?

The most attractive item on the menu is the one that the other fellow ordered.

Apparently the consumer does not find debate on the League of Nations very filling.

A soviet government is calculated to make even those attempting to run it tired of life.

DON'T SELL YOUR

VEAL

until you call

Downey's Market

Phone 600

Pendleton, Oregon

We will pay you five cents
more a pound than you have been getting.

MURESCO

for decorating and beautifying walls and ceilings.

We have it in white and
many attractive colors.

DeMoss Furniture Store

BUTTER WRAPS at Leader Shop

One hundred..... 1 50

Each additional hundred..... 0 75

The Farmers Bank of Weston

Established 1891

Do you want a farm loan this fall? If so, call and see us.
We may be able to help you.