The Greatest Mother Turns to Tasks of Peace.

THE THREE CROSSES

The iron cross is black as death and hard as human hate;

- wooden cross is white and still and whispers us, "Too Late," the Red Cross sings of life and But
- love and hearts regenerate. The iron cross is a boastful cross and marks the war-mad slave: wooden cross is a dumb, dead The cross and marks a shallow grave, the Red Cross reaches out its arms to solace and to save.

The iron cross is a kaiser's cross and narrow is its clan;

The wooden cross is a soldier's cross and mourns its partisan. But the Red Cross is the Cross of One who served his fellowman. -Edmond Vance Cooke.

Invest a dollar in Red Cross and cut happiness coupons the rest of the year.

The Red Cross service flag, indicat ing membership in the great organization of mercy, will appear again in November in every window in the Northwest. In every farmhouse, in every city home, in the cabins of homesteaders, in the huts of fishermen in far Alaska, will appear this symbol of affiliation with the one great organization that knows no politics, no distinction of creed, no high, no low-but unites the hearts of all for service to fellow-men. The window service flag this year has one more The Year stripe than last year, indicating three Six Months years of membership in the Red Cross.

MOTHERS MUST NOT DIE. SAYS THE RED CROSS

Sixteen thousand mothers die childbirth every year in the United States of America, more than are thus sacrificed in any other country of im-portance in the civilized world. The American Red Cross has announced its belief that these mothers, the very flower of the womanhood of America and heroines every one, shall no longer die through ignorance or neglect, ff the public health nursing resources of the country can possibly be extended States of America, more than are thus the country can possibly be extended to give them the necessary care. This is one of the reasons for the Third Red Cross Roll Call which begins Sunday, November 2.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County. Hilda Love, Plaintiff, vs. William B. Love, Defendant.

To William B. Love, defendant above named

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF ORgon. You are hereby required to ap-pear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the above-entitled court and cause within six weeks of the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or be-fore Saturday the 29th day of Novem-(Read at the All American Festival in New York City.) T cannot be with you, and so all I can do is to wish you godspeed. There must be no sagging back in the fight for Americanism, merely because the war is over. There are plenty of per-angle of the court for the court dis-solving the bonds of matrimony new and heretofore existing between plain-tif and for the court for the court dis-solving the bonds of matrimony new and heretofore existing between plain-tif and for the court for the court dis-solving the bonds of matrimony new and heretofore existing between plainwar is over. There are plenty of per-son swho have alerady made the asser-tion that they believe the American people have a short memory and that they intend to revive all the forelgn associations which most directly in-terfere with the complete American-ization of our people. Our principle in this matter should be absolutely simple. In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here does in good faith become an American and assimilates himself to us he shall be treated on an exact equality with every one else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed or birth-place or origin.

RED CROSS HOUSE GIVES CHEER AT LE

For the Red Cross, the war did end with the armistice, and even yet there are thirty thousand soldiers and sailors still under treatment in army and navy hospitals. The Red Cross convalescent house at Camp Lewis stands next to home itself in the affections of hundreds of boys who, sick or wounded, looked forward to the day when they might leave the bare and cheerless ward in the base hospital and spend part of each day enjoying its easy chairs, its music, its books, its pictures, and its good cheer. Even now, a year after the armistice, there are overseas men, patients at Camp Lewis, not yet well enough to be discharged, who sit before the great fireplace these autumn days, thankful that The Greatest Mother is still mindful of them. The picture is duplicated in army hospitals all over the land, and wherever throughout the world American boys are still in Uncle Sam's serv-

HAS YOUR CLUB SET ITS RED CROSS DAY?

A series of Red Cross "club days" are to be held in all parts of the United States during October. Granges. Church Societies, Business, Commer-Fraternal, Woman's and other clubs, are being invited to set aside a regular meeting or a day for a special luncheon at which plans will be made for aiding the Third Red Cross Roll Call. to be held throughout the country November 2 to 11.

The clubs will call for volunteer workers, including prominent members for speakers, in the interest of enrolling members for the peace-time noses to the grindstone. program of the Red Cross. Many of the speakers on the war-time activities of the Red Cross will be former service men and women who came in field of action.
