

GREAT REMOVAL SALE

A MIGHTY MERCANTILE MOVE

We expect to move into our building on Main street early next month.

Before moving we have planned a monstrous sale to move every article from the old store possible—move it into money and move it into homes of people at prices they will appreciate.

Women's Coats, Suits, Dresses

CHILDREN'S WEAR, MILLINERY, SHOES, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, CORSETS, TRIMMINGS, BLANKETS
COMFORTERS, PILLOWS, SILKS, DRESS GOODS, LINENS, Etc.

EVERYTHING IN THE STORE INCLUDED—Except a few Contract Goods

Tremendous stocks will be here soon for the new building. Therefore this big sale in the old store must overshadow any of our past efforts.

SALE COMMENCES FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, AT 9 A. M.

A. M. JENSEN CO.

Walla Walla

Washington

BREVITIES

Royal Driskell spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mrs. S. D. Pedersen has returned from a visit at Portland.

Sam Caplinger was here last week from the Willamette valley.

We give you honest time and guarantee our work. Weston Garage.

A car of the new Overlands will arrive next week. Dr. S. L. Kennard.

The Weston Baths, Barber & Tailor Shop will close each evening except Saturday at 7 o'clock. R. L. Reynaud.

Mrs. R. G. Saling is leaving for Portland this week to compete her voice studies under Taglieri, the famous Italian master.

Rev. W. S. Payne has gone to Buxton, Washington, to conduct a revival meeting for the Methodist Episcopal Church. He will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. S. E. Powell has received a box of splendid Montana apples from her husband, who is stationed at Corvallis, Montana, as pastor of the South Methodist Church. Mr. Powell writes that he likes the climate in that part of Montana.

Sam Key has bought the Thomas Gould place on Basket mountain—part of the consideration being 25 acres of irrigated land in the Umpqua district. Mr. Key is said to have paid in addition $5000 for the mountain tract. It contains 160 acres. Mr. Gould will build a concrete garage in Milton.

The Weston Commercial Club got together Monday evening for the winter season and elected the following officers in good old town meeting style: Sim J. Culley, president; F. C. Greer, vice president; C. L. Pinkerton, secretary; S. A. Barnes, treasurer. The club will now meet every Monday evening at Memorial hall.

Floyd Fox trapped a big fat bear dressing 450 pounds near the Jim Jones place on Weston mountain. Floyd noticed where bruin had been flying on the remains of a dead horse, and there set his trap. He gave away much of the fat and then rendered out eight gallons. He sold the hide to Mrs. John Wickman for $36.00.

A round score of riders headed by J. P. Lieuallen, president of the Weston Stockmen's Association have been threading the highways and byways of the Blues in the wettest kind of wet weather, on the annual round up. In all some fifteen hundred head will be driven out of the Wenaha reserve to winter pasture in the lowlands. In some places the riders encountered wet snow a foot and a-half in depth.

Clad in a white apron and a welcoming smile, Preacher Storms is helping out in the local meat market during the illness of Mr. Sauer. Ed. DeMoss mistook him for a bartender.

Upon his return from the Baptist convention at Portland Rev. W. R. Storms was accompanied by his mother's oldest sister, Mrs. B. J. Tiffany of Camas, Wash., who is visiting him here.

Roy May has bought the John Stolp place consisting of 40 acres, on Weston mountain.

Cyril Proebstel, a former Weston soldier, has taken a position as deputy county clerk.

New Bank at Athena

The Athena State Bank is to be established soon by John F. Herr, who comes to this city from Baker county. Mr. Herr has heretofore been conducting a small bank at Richland, in Eagle valley.

The Athena State Bank will start with a capital of $25,000 and a surplus of $5000. The incorporators are Louis Hodgen, A. L. Swaggart, A. R. Coppock, O. H. Reeder, H. H. Hill and A. E. Shick.

The new bank will erect and occupy a one-story building of brick or concrete with a frontage of thirty feet, on the lot at the corner of Third and Main streets owned by the Kirk and Ladd estates. Construction will begin at once and will be pushed as speedily as possible.

Mr. Herr is a man of family and will make Athena his home in the immediate future. He has had ten years of practical banking experience and thirty years of commercial experience. Aside from conducting the Richland bank, he has been connected with the State Bank of Portland. The local bank will be under his immediate supervision.

As Athena already possesses one of the strongest banks in the state, its interests are certain to be well cared for in a financial way.

"OVER THE HILL"

Mrs. James Sturgis spent Tuesday with her parents here and visited her cousin, Miss Doris Earnes, who is ill in Weston. Mr. Sturgis left Monday night for a business trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Lillie Miller will embellish her living room with a rug made of a cub bear hide. John Myrick is similarly fortunate, save that in his case a grownup bear served to provide the rug. Both bears were shot by John Thompson from in sight of his house on the Umatilla river.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linnard of Pendleton were guests this week at the Charles McFarland home.

Miss Belle Pambrun will go to Walla Walla tomorrow to enter St. Paul's school for girls. Her sisters, Misses Ellen and Angie, are students at Whitman College.

Mrs. Isaac Phillips, who sprained her ankle about a fortnight ago by stepping off a broken sidewalk at the home of her daughter, is still suffering severely from the injury. She is confined to her home on High street.

John Keen and wife were over from their home near State Line during the week, visiting relatives in Athena and vicinity. They are on their way for a visit with relatives in the east, and will return later to Long Beach, California, to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Long came down from their home near Spokane and spent the day with Weston and Athena friends. They are en route to Long Beach, Calif., to spend the winter, and are driving through in their car. Mr. Long has promises of the heart of town. He is gradually adding to his holdings and perched in the Falls city, and has acquired a tract of land within ten days' ride to own 160 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton are living in Spokane and Mr. Long reports that Frank recently went on his annual hunt in the Coeur d'Alenes.

Tonight at the Pythian hall the local lodge of Knights will hold an open session at which their families and invited guests will be present. A literary and musical program is being arranged and refreshments will be served in the well known hospitable manner for which Pythian lodge is justly famed.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Woodward and their children, Delpha and Donald, will leave Sunday with Honolulu as their objective. Mrs. Annabel Heishman will accompany them, as will also Miss Eva Woodward and Mrs. Laura Woodward from Walla Walla. At Portland the party will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Stone from Thornton, Wash., and they will go to San Francisco, where they will take the boat Lurline for the Hawaiian Islands and will spend the winter there with John Stone and family.

Miss Bertha Murdock of Leslie, Michigan, recently arrived here and is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Louis Keen, northwest of town. Miss Murdock is an experienced high school teacher and will seek a position in Oregon. She is substituting at the Union school north of town during the temporary absence of Mrs. Dobson.

Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of McKenzie Chapter, O. E. S., a pleasant social hour followed the business session. Cards and other games furnished entertainment and a two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Henry Dell and Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scott came up from Pendleton and met with the chapter. It was proposed that the ladies reorganize the O. E. S. Club, and a meeting for that purpose will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of the worthy matron, Mrs. R. B. McEwen.

O. O. Stephens has completed extensive alterations in his Pure Food Grocery. New shelving has been put in at the rear of the storeroom, and the whole of the interior has been painted. The new shelving affords additional room for the big stock of cereals carried by the Pure Food Grocery. Rearrangement of the entire grocery stock is being made, with the result that extensive improvement is noted.

Friends here have received news of the ill health of W. H. Hawley, formerly well known here and lately residing in Montana. Mr. Hawley was recently taken to California in the hope of improvement. Mrs. Hawley—formerly Josie Danner—accompanied him. Mr. Hawley has become a successful stockman of Montana.

Neil McFadyen has returned to The Dalles, after a visit here with his father, Donald McFadyen, and other relatives.

Letters received from Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wilmot give the information that they have arrived at Long Beach, California, after being 13 days on the road in their Dodge car, having had fine weather for the trip. Mrs. Wilmot is slightly better than when leaving Athena. They have purchased a home at 1056 Gladys avenue, Long Beach, where the Press will reach them. Letters from friends will be welcome.

Henry Barrett, local chairman of the Roosevelt Memorial fund, reports that Athena raised $100 in the recent drive—which he considers very satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas and daughter will leave this week for a winter sojourn in California—joining the Woodward party in Portland Sunday. From Portland the journey will be made together, and the Woodward party will embark on the steamer Lurline for Honolulu.

W. E. Dobson left yesterday for Portland, where he expects to remain during the winter and may invest in acreage property. He will stop en route at The Dalles to consult Dr. A. B. Stone and may remain in hospital there awhile. Mrs. Dobson accompanies him, making the trip in their Ford car.

Mrs. Joseph Forrest has purchased a lodging and boarding house in Walla Walla, and will take immediate possession. The property is near Main street in an advantageous position and is said to be doing very well. Mrs. Forrest will leave the farm in the hands of her sons and will be assisted in her business in Walla Walla by her three daughters.

Miss Alice Gaines, who some time ago underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Medford hospital, has had a relapse and is in a serious condition, so friends here are informed, and has been in a serious condition.

Henry Barrett returned Wednesday from northern Idaho, where he went to look after a band of sheep he is wintering there. During the recent snows a number of the band were lost in the storms and only a part of them were recovered.

Little Emory Rogers was struck by the fender of a Ford car at Athena Thursday and painfully although not seriously hurt. The accident was not due to careless driving.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Preston of Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Preston's brother, Joe Payant.

WESTON SCHOOLS

The student body election was held Friday afternoon and the following pupils were elected:

President—Woeth Watts.
Vice-President—Jessie Davis.
Secretary—Eva Lundell.
Treasurer—Harvey Lundell.
Sergeant at Arms—Cuden Lucas.
Student Council—Anna Lavender, Eldan McIntyre, Esther Davis, Athletic Council—Eugene Smith, Walter Rayborn, Pauline Rayborn.

A Roosevelt Memorial service was held Monday afternoon. Mr. Fitzpatrick gave an interesting talk on the life of Mr. Roosevelt.

After the Memorial service another student body meeting was held and Anna Lavender was elected to fill the vacancy in the student council.

William Van Winkle an alumnus, was a visitor in the high school Monday afternoon.

The eighth grade room surprised the freshmen by sending them an invitation to a Halloween party given Friday afternoon in the eighth grade room.

Friday evening the assembly room was the scene of a ghost party given by the high school faculty. All came dressed like ghosts and much merriment prevailed. After playing many games suitable for Halloween refreshments were served by the high school faculty. After two weeks of patient waiting the guests found out who the mysterious witches were who sent the invitations. It proved to be the most successful party thus far.

Emma Thoemy, Minnie Thoemy and Ora Webb have returned to school after some days of absence, because of illness.

Liberty Bell medals were awarded this month to Ada Calder, Oma York and Clarence McGibbon of Miss Colvin's room because each had received a hundred percent in spelling.

Eighth grade teacher—What are the slugs?
Pupil—A disease.

The pupils of the 2d, 3d and 4th grades are delighted with the new supplementary readers, which have just arrived.

Armistice Day

Governor Olcott has declared Tuesday, November 11, the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice, a legal holiday. Plans are being perfected for an appropriate observance of the day at Weston to be held Tuesday evening at Community hall. Everybody is urged to be present to demonstrate our appreciation and gratitude for the services rendered by our army and navy men in the recent great war.