

The Light 4 Overland

Power, service, beauty and comfort are what you may get out of this wonderful little car. No other car has ever been built with the three-point suspension cantilever spring which you will notice in the above picture. One hundred and thirty-inch spring base on an hundred-inch wheel base—that's what gives you the wonderful riding comfort over any other car. Select your own road and let me take you a ride. I will take you safely where no other car dares to tread.

If the world ends December 17, as predicted by an eastern professor, the fuel problem will have been solved for better or worse.

In these days of high prices one should be mighty glad that he can still purchase a few peanuts for a nickel.

"Talk Tires Poindexter," according to a newspaper headline; and we trust it will likewise retire him.

It distresses us to learn that the world will be annihilated so soon after installing our new "Merg."

According to Editor MacLeod, who doesn't run a newspaper but promulgates Up-to-The-Times Magazine, in which no word of what he complains is ever permitted to appear, "tons of trash, piffle and bunk are published in the newspapers these days. No end of impossible interviews appear from impossible men on all sorts of subjects. Men who were never known to work at anything expound on the labor situation; men who never have saved up as much as $500 write exhaustively on financial matters; men who never have nor never will pay any taxes explain in detail their endless and worthless theories on local, state and national taxes. Of course, and perhaps to keep posted on a few things, one must give the newspapers the once over; at least, all criminal and freak stunts must be noted; but if one would be a decent husband and father and also do any useful work in the world, he must be more and more discriminate in regard to what he reads in 'em. Apart from the waste of much valuable time, if one would swallow all that he sees in the public prints he would soon be eligible to join the Bugs of the most rampant Bugville on the map." We are led to assume that if one takes Up-to-The-Times and the Ladies' Home Journal and borrows an occasional newspaper from his lowbrow neighbor, he will be jolly well all right.

None of the great potato growing sections of the world—including Germany, Austria, England, Ireland, Maine, Colorado or Wisconsin—have advantages which cannot be duplicated in the Inland Empire, according to George J. Cannon, the "potato king" of Buckeye, Washington, who debated the question at the potato growers convention last week. He summed up the subject as follows: "I will venture to say that you may study the great potato centers of the world, paying special heed to the very centers of wheat are called the potato homes, and go where you will you'll find no spot of particular excellence which is not duplicated or surpassed right here in the Inland Empire."

On December 17 will occur one of the most remarkable astronomical events that has taken place since the beginning of the present era. Six planets will be in conjunction in a group in the morning sky. At that time Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Neptune will all come into line together, with Uranus on the opposite side of the sun, and the earth standing off at right angles. Some astronomers are predicting a phenomenon in the nature of celestial fireworks on the sun when the six planets swing into line together.

If Uncle Sam isn't a peace leaguer, neither is the Hun—and we trust he will find the latter more congenial than recent history would indicate.

Of kindly words and noble deeds it's very well to talk; but the man this country really needs is one who shovels snow from off his walk.

One writer tells us that Germany is exploiting Russia in order to supply the sinews for another world war. A second writer asserts with equal confidence that Germany realizes she is jolly well licked, is sick of war and yearns only for industrial rehabilitation. This paper doesn't know, but thinks the Hun will bear more careful watching than was accorded him prior to 1914.

A movement is on foot to conserve cigar ashes, which are worth as a fertilizer about $25 per ton. This does not mean, however, that the cigar smoker will be able to pose as a true economist.

The German mark has slumped from twenty-four cents to three cents. Still, it must be admitted the German hasn't been making much of a mark.

A musical critic has just announced that there are but two grades of music—classical and jazzical.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.
Irene C. Guyot, Plaintiff, vs. Ernest B. Guyot, Defendant.
To Ernest B. Guyot, Defendant above named:

In the Name of the State of Oregon, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks of the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before Friday, the 2d day of January, 1920; and you will take notice that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint or otherwise plead thereto within said time, the plaintiff, for want thereof, will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her said complaint, namely for a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant and for other equitable relief.

This summons is published pursuant to an order made by Honorable Gilbert W. Phelps, Judge of the above entitled Court, on the 17th day of November, 1919; and the first publication of this summons will be made in the Weston Leader newspaper published at Weston, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Friday the 21st day of November, 1919. The summons will be published for six consecutive weeks in said newspaper, the last publication to appear on Friday the said 2d day of January, 1920.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1919.

"OVER THE HILL"

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Goedeck of Pendleton, were guests this week at the Omar Stephens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chance Rogers were dinner guests Sunday at the Dean Dudley home west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden were hosts at a dinner Sunday at which Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and children were the honorees.

The sport of duck hunting lured Marion Hansell and Omar Stephens to the creeks Tuesday and they bagged several mallards.

Rev. Maloney has taken the pastorate of the Catholic church in the place of Rev. O'Hagen, who has been transferred to Ontario.

Grandma Hill, 84 years of age, fell and fractured two of her ribs one day this week. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns left on Wednesday for Vancouver, after several weeks visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Johns, near town.

Mrs. George Gerking went to Lewiston, Idaho, Sunday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Chester Davis, who is ill at her home there. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are living on a fruit farm near Lewiston.

A. M. Meldrum came down from Spokane Sunday in the interests of the Spokane Christian College, of which he is president. Mr. Meldrum preached at the Christian church, where he was formerly pastor.

Unable to secure transportation to Honolulu at this time, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mr. H. L. Watts, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shaffer of Watsburg will forego their projected trip to the Islands and will after the holidays go to Pasadena and other points in California, instead.

Charles M. Brogerton, for many years a resident of this community but of late years residing at Dayton, died at his home in that city Tuesday, after a long illness. Interment was made in the family lot at Athena cemetery yesterday afternoon. The deceased is survived by his wife, three sons and one daughter.

Pendleton will be one of eight cities in Eastern Oregon where competitive examinations will be held December 15 for Annapolis and West Point. Congressman Sinnott will have an opportunity to designate from this examination a larger number of appointments than ever before to both the military and naval academies.

The Athena Gun Club is looking forward with pleasant anticipation to its great turkey shoot, which will be held on its grounds here all day December 21. It is expected that 135 turkeys will furnish the targets for keen sportsmen who will assemble in Athena from Pendleton, Walla Walla and intermediate points. The birds were obtained chiefly from Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Tharp returned home after an extended stay in Southern Oregon, where they went to look after the orphaned children of Mr. Tharp's brother, the late Jeff Tharp, whose widow died at Marshfield. They visited at Bandon, and on the return at Salem and Portland. They bring one young nephew, aged eleven years, to make his home with them for the present.

Shelley Jones died at his home in Pendleton last Saturday evening and was buried Tuesday. He lived in Athena in his early boyhood with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Jones. He was nearly 45 years old and is survived by his wife; his mother, now Mrs. W. P. Caviness of Eugene; a brother, Abe Jones, and two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Saling and Mrs. Florence Boynton of Pendleton.

A delightful afternoon was passed Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. A. Barrett, when she was hostess to the Eastern Star club. Other than club members, Mrs. Robert Proudft and Mrs. M. M. Johns were guests. Mrs. Barrett was assisted in serving by Mrs. R. B. McEwen and Miss Lucile Barrett. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Hazel Burton, on Adams street.

Mayor Barrett, who recently lost 25 head of sheep when a dog entered the corral at night, is interested in the licensing of all canines by city and state. Athena has a dog license ordinance, and all dogs in the state of Oregon over eight months of age will have to pay state licenses after January 1, 1920, according to a law passed by the 1919 legislature. The county clerk issues the licenses for all dogs in his county.

Mrs. William Kilgore died at St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, Wednesday morning, after a few weeks' illness—a victim of the rare disease, sleeping sickness. She was taken to the hospital a couple of weeks ago from her home near Athena. Mrs. Kilgore was aged 60 years. She leaves her husband and two sons to mourn her loss. A son, Edward Kilgore, died of pneumonia week before last.

GILBERT ELLIS, Manager

At the Standard Theatre

Owing to scarcity of fuel and restrictions placed upon the sale and distribution of coal, beginning with Saturday night December 13th, only two regular programs will be shown at the Standard Theatre each week. These regular programs will be screened on Saturday and Sunday nights and until further notice only one show will be screened each evening, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp. This change is made to conserve on consumption of fuel and at the same time afford Athena an amusement enterprise within the limits of the fuel restrictions. Tuesday and Thursday night programs have been annulled for the winter and the only shows other than the regular ones on Saturday and Sunday nights, hereafter, will be the big super special pictures already contracted at this time. The dates on which these specials are to appear will be announced.

It will be well to remember that only one show an evening will be given hereafter, and that the starting hour will be 8 o'clock on Saturday and Sunday evenings. For the super specials, if two shows are to be given, announcement to that effect will be made, otherwise one showing of the picture will prevail and the time of beginning will be 8 o'clock, as on Saturday and Sunday nights.

For Saturday night, December 13, at 8 o'clock sharp, Douglass Fairbanks in "Mr. Fixit" is the offering, with a two reel Sennett comedy, "She Loved Jim Plenty."

Sunday night Billie Burke comes in "Let's Get a Divorce," the sensational society drama. Also a Pathe News and a Lloyd comedy.

A Bit Chilly in the Suburbs

(Athena Press.)
The mercury dropped at a rapid rate Thursday afternoon. At eight o'clock last evening the thermometer in front of St. Nichols hotel, Athena, recorded 22 degrees below zero. At seven o'clock this morning the same instrument recorded 28½ below— which some old residents say is the coldest weather ever known in this locality since it was first settled. With the coming of the sunshine today the temperature became a trifle more moderate.

Other Athena thermometers did not indicate so high a temperature as the one at the St. Nichols, which is a spirit instrument.
