

The Economy Event of the New Year
Begins Saturday Morning
January the 10th!

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

It is the call that begs you take advantage of the opportunity to make your home all that it should be.

If you expect to buy furniture this year, buy it now. This big January Clearance Sale has greater significance—means more to you—than any previous sale. We are quoting prices that represent a discount of from ten to fifty percent.

We want every home in this section of the country to profit by these extraordinary values. Hundreds of fine pieces of furniture, draperies, house furnishings, wares, etc., have been reduced.

The Davis-Kaser Co.

Complete Home Furnishing Department Store.
Pianos—Phonographs—Music.
10-20 Alder St. (Odd Fellows' Temple) Walla Walla, Wash.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County.
Elsie Ella Belashe, Plaintiff, vs. Granville P. Belashe, Defendant.

To Granville P. Belashe, defendant above named:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON. You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks of the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 6th day of February, 1920; and you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint or otherwise plead thereto within said time, the plaintiff, for want thereof, will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: for a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant and for other equitable relief.

This summons is published pursuant to an order made by Hon. G. W. Phelps, Judge of the Sixth Judicial District, State of Oregon, on the 23d day of December, 1919. The first publication of this summons will be made on Friday, the 26th day of December, 1919, and the last publication on Friday, the said 6th day of February, 1920.

Dated this the 23d day of December, 1919.

PETERSON, BISHOP & CLARK
Attorneys for Plaintiff.
Residence and P. O. address:
Pendleton, Oregon.

Stockholders' Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Weston Mercantile Company will be held Wednesday, January 21, 1920, at 2:30 p. m., in Memorial Hall, Weston, Or., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and to transact such other business as may legally come before the meeting.

J. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Butter Wraps at Lender office.

BREVITIES

Roy Read is assisting the selling force of the Weston Mercantile Co.

This locality is getting a maximum dose of the fog it escaped in December.

See what Mrs. Sidney Drew hath wrought in "Gay Old Dog," next Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price spent the holiday season with relatives and friends at Walla Walla.

Miss Lois Porter left for Walla Walla Monday morning to resume her studies at Whitman college.

Clarence Theony has returned to Portland to continue his studies at Behrke-Walker business college.

Brisk bidding for club wheat is reported at Pendleton at a price 23 to 24 cents above the government basic.

G. A. Hartman, cashier of The First National Bank of Pendleton, was in Weston Thursday on a business visit.

Mrs. Harry Sumption of Boise, Idaho, is enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

Bill Parsons will lumber up your digestive apparatus for Sunday dinner. Memorial Hall this Saturday night.

Dr. Kennard has sold a Light Overland Four to Lee Johnson of Athena, who is highly pleased with his acquisition.

E. W. Fehr and family have located in Pendleton, where Mr. Fehr has a position with the Eastern Oregon Motor Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood and son Clifford, and Mrs. Aleck Kirk, all of Athena were New Year dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Saling.

Dr. W. H. McKinney is taking treatment for rheumatism at Hot Lake sanatorium. Dr. C. H. Smith is looking after his practice during his absence.

Mrs. J. E. Walden has been suffering for two weeks with a serious case of blood poisoning in her right hand brought on by the removal of a sliver with a pin.

Mrs. Mary Ramirez, who has been in hospital at Pendleton following a serious operation, is reported to be covering, and will soon be able to resume her school work at Cayuse.

Members of Athena-Weston Post, American Legion, desire by this means to express their appreciation of the kindness of Jones & Jones in granting the post the use of their annex.—Adv.

It is feared that great damage has been done to fruit trees by the recent severe weather. The prevailing opinion is that the 1920 peach crop will be extremely light, if the trees themselves are not killed.

Mrs. Frank Smith of Coulee City, Wash., entertained the Bachelor Girls Monday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ella O'Harra. Formerly a Bachelor Girl, Mrs. Smith proved to be a most sympathetic and charming hostess. Mrs. Norma Sumption of Boise, Idaho, was present as a club guest.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Starmer. The new president, Mrs. Sarah Rowland, presided and appointed committees for the ensuing year. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Jones were received into membership. A short program was given under the leadership of Mrs. H. Goodwin, a pleasing feature of which was a piano solo by Miss Clara Starmer. During the closing hour refreshments were served by Mesdames Letha King, Hattie Wilsey and Bertha Sowers. Mrs. Ernest Ross will entertain the society February 4 at her home on Normal Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. York entertained recently with a very pleasant party at their country residence north of town. After a most bountiful dinner an amusement feature was a drawing contest for quite valuable prizes. The guests were: Pratt Mayberry, Ward Baker, Henry Beamer and wife, Ralph Badgett, Robert Lee and family, John Beamer and family, J. L. York and family, J. H. Beamer and wife, H. B. Lee and wife, M. A. Baker and daughter, J. H. Day and family, R. D. York and family; Misses Vivian Brinker, Florence Banks, Helen Dakin, Etta Camren, Daisy Lee, Lillian Jennings.

Gilbert E. Baker, district manager at Boise, Idaho, of the Berkowitz Envelope Co., was in Weston during the week, visiting his father, Merritt A. Baker, and boyhood friends. It is Gilbert's first visit to the old home town for nine years, and he nearly lost himself a time or two in its environs, which looked strange to him until he got his bearings. His family is still at Salt Lake City, as he has as yet been unable to obtain a house for them at Boise. He reports every southern Idaho town as busy and bustling.

J. W. Porter left Monday for Free-water to take a position as salesman in the Nordhoff & McKenzie store. His family will follow so soon as he secures a residence for them at Free-water. The departure of Mr. Porter and family from Weston is viewed with general regret, as they had endeared themselves to many friends in this city. As a useful and valued citizen, Mr. Porter will also be missed. During his residence here he was a member of the sales force of the Weston Mercantile Co.

Swas-Te-Ka Campfire was entertained at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Sarah Rowland, last Saturday afternoon. One new member, Miss Paul Davis, was received into the organization at this session. The afternoon was delightfully spent in discussions, transaction of business and the relating of an interesting story by each member. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held with Miss Blanche Thorsen, the afternoon of January 17.

One of the prettiest dinner parties of the season was that for which Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith were hosts at their home at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The table groaned with turkey and other delicacies peculiar to the season. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Harl Williams, Mrs. Curran McFadden, Mr. Dwight Porter, Mrs. Harry Sumption, Miss Gladys Smith and Rulon and Kendall Smith.

H. C. Curry, the competent eye-sight specialist, formerly of Walla Walla and now of Seattle, who has been making professional visits to Weston for 12 years, will make his next visit Wednesday, Jan. 14, for one day only, at City Drug Store. Eyes examined and glasses fitted at reasonable prices. All work guaranteed. (Adv.)

At the council meeting Wednesday evening C. W. Avery was appointed acting recorder, J. W. Porter having resigned. The council took favorable action on the request of Athena-Weston Post, American Legion, to use part of the city hall for club room purposes.

Many residents of Weston observed Twelfth Night, or "Old Christmas," as it is called in England. At this night homes are striped of their Christmas decorations; it is the night that really marks the end of the holiday season.

O. A. Adams of the Liberty Motor Co. sold new Ford roadsters this week to Charley Price and Newt O'Harra. Ford bodies were promptly applied by E. R. Hall, who also furnished one of these handy rigs this week to J. A. Lumsden.

Wenaha Encampment, I. O. O. F., has changed its meeting nights to the first and third Fridays in each month, in order not to conflict with month, in order not to conflict with the Tuesday motion picture show at Memorial hall.

L. W. Hebert has bought the W. M. Carter residence property on north Water street from H. G. Icekite of Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Hebert will continue in the hotel business at their new home.

Memorial Hall Shows

This Saturday night

THE FEAR WOMAN

YOU MAY DECIDE SATURDAY NIGHT WHETHER YOU ARE TO BE A DRINKER. "THE FEAR WOMAN" AT MEMORIAL HALL WILL TELL YOU. IT'S A GOLDWYN, AND BILLY PARSONS WILL BE THERE ALSO.

TUESDAY NIGHT -- "GAY OLD DOG"

A SURPRISE AWAITS YOU NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT AT MEMORIAL HALL. "GAY OLD DOG" IS A CLEAN AND HEART TOUCHING SYMPATHETIC LIFE STORY BY MRS. SIDNEY DREW.

DO NOT MISS THESE SHOWS

DEPENDABLE

Our furniture can be relied upon as being exactly what we say it is. For every dollar you pay us you get a dollar's worth of goods—and often more than a dollar's worth at the present market. We are careful buyers, with quality ever our watchword, and our patrons profit by the knowledge derived from our years of experience.

DeMoss Furniture

The Farmers Bank of Weston

Established 1891

WHAT DO YOU WANT?

Possibly we can help you; but if you don't make your wants known we have no opportunity. Have you plans for 1920 which require more cash than you have on hand? If so, why not talk it over with us. It is our wish to assist you in every way possible and it can do no harm to lay your problems before us. Possibly we can help you solve them.

AUTO TOP DRESSING and Dye

Water proof and will not fade.
Try a can. For sale by

Goodwin's Drug Store

We Advise the Public that The Weston Mills, with new management, continues the motto: "We Serve to Suit."

Rolling - Grinding - Cleaning

Hay, Rolled Barley, Oats, Wheat and Millfeeds. Chicken Feeds, including Corn, Wheat, Scratch Food, Bone, Shell, Grit, Meat Scraps and Egg Mash.

Try a Sack of our Popular Graham.

J. A. LUMSDEN - - Proprietor

Preston-Shaffer Milling Co.

Established 1865

Athens, Oregon • Waiatsburg, Wash.

American Beauty

and

Pure White

Flour

Made of selected bluestem in one of the best equipped mills in the Northwest.

Sold in Weston by

Weston Mercantile Company