port—since the average income of American workers is far less than $2334 a year. The Denver controversy presents only another phase of the age-old wage problem, which is just now assuming such alarming proportions in these United States. It will never be solved, perhaps, until some Adventist prophecy is fulfilled and this sad old world is lost in a monstrous cataclysm.

Oregon has marched too far on the road of political progress to tolerate a "straight party" ballot. This is a reactionary device put over during the special session by reactionaries, and impugns the intelligence of the Oregon voter. Governor Olcott is in touch with the times in announcing touch with the times in vetoing it.

Attorney General Palmer says that prices will drop during the year if the people stop buying and eating; but what will become of people who stop eating and where will they be when prices fall?

Henry VanDyke remarks that there is something mysterious about women's fancy work; it seems to have all the soothing charm of the tobacco plant, without its inconvenience.

A humorous man has been defined as one who has the gift of regarding an annoyance in the very stroke of it as another man regards it after the annoyance has long past.

The government is advised to go as far as it likes in the proposed melting of profiteering landlords, as they cannot be found in country towns.

Wets and dries are sure to differ as to whether the good liquor which sank with the steamer Yarmouth went down in the right place.

The Oregon legislature and The Portland Telegram have such a poor opinion of each other that we'd hate to think both are right.

The moonshine industry is increasing in the mountains of old Kaintuck—a rather anomalous illustration of still activity.

Daniel of old wasn't bothered by the lions, but a modern Daniels is being roughed up a bit by an old sea dog.

In attacking federal prohibition, little Rhode Island reminds one of the tail trying to wag the dog.

An Irish merchant in New York recently advertised: "Quart pails of all sizes for sale."

Something extra is coming to Bill Hohenzollern, and we hope he gets it in extradition.

At the Standard Theatre
 Another great picture of the super class comes to the Standard next Thursday night, January 29, accompanied by orchestra music and starring Geraldine Farrar and Lou Tellegen. Husband of this queen of the screen—his first appearance here, "Flame of the Desert" is a great picture and more! A massive spectacle and more! A wonderful romance and more! A vivid drama and more! A giant among big pictures and more! See it and hear the five-piece orchestra, which will play hereafter for all super pictures filmed at the Standard. Two shows, at 7:30 and 9:30.

"OVER THE HILL"

Mrs. Fred Gross has been ill at her home on Fifth street, but is better at present.

Win Burden has been in town this week from Toppenish, Wash., where he has been employed this winter.

Maurice Hill of Havre, Montana, who has been in Portland on business, will visit relatives in Athena for a few days.

A Federal Reserve charter has been granted to the Athena State Bank. Notice to that effect was received Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keen, Miss Zola Keen and Mrs. C. C. Clinton attended the San Carlo opera at Walla Walla Tuesday evening.

F. S. LeGrow recently sold the cottage on College street back of his residence to I. B. Phillips, who with his wife will make his home there.

On account of sickness in the Weston school the Athena-Weston conference basket ball game scheduled to be played at Weston tonight has been postponed.

Four cases of flu are reported in the home of C. E. Smith on the west side. The patients are Mrs. Smith, her daughter Savannah and Mr. and Mrs. Wilks.

Mrs. Roy Pambrun died yesterday morning at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, of pneumonia. She leaves her husband and three children. She was 32 years of age.

Mrs. Sam Haworth, who has been ill from nervous breakdown, has entered a Portland sanitarium for treatment. She was accompanied to Portland this week by Mr. Haworth.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts returned home Saturday evening from California. Homer Watts remained over in Medford for a few days' visit. He is now ready to figure income tax for his clients.

The Baptist revival meetings closed last evening, and Evangelist Bond left this morning for his home in Walla Walla. The meetings were successful and well attended. A number of conversions are reported.

Wednesday was an exceptionally interesting day in the Athena school. County Superintendent Green and all members of the board of directors visited the school and reviewed the work and school matters generally.

Miss Stasia Walsh, county nurse, is in the city today. Miss Walsh spent yesterday in Weston, where she organized assistance in event of a flu epidemic. She reports the appearance of flu in twelve families residing there.

Work has been resumed on the Athena-Weston-Milton section of the state highway. Grading of the road from Weston toward Milton is under way again. Mr. and Mrs. Crabill left Monday for Weston, where they will board the road-working crew.

Receipts from the American Legion benefit at the opera house Friday evening amounted to $67. A county campaign for Legion membership will be inaugurated shortly, during which every service man in the county will be asked to join one of its four posts.

The Willamette University Glee club has been secured by the high school to appear in the auditorium in concert on the evening of February 4. Advertising will appear soon, and a thorough campaign will be started by the school for a large attendance to greet the boys.

Frane Rolson is wanted here for skipping his board bill at the St. Nichols Hotel. Rolson, who is a sheep herder, owes the Athena hostelry $60 for cats, and Landlord Froome has sent descriptions of him to the officers with the intention of having him apprehended.

A letter to Athena friends from Mr. and Mrs. George B. Woodward, who are spending the winter in Honolulu, tells of the enjoyable time they are having there. Pictures enclosed give one the desire to be with them. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward express themselves as being well satisfied with their winter trip.

Grover Hodgen, cousin of Lou Hodgen, was here from Umapine for a short visit. Grover served in the Fifth regiment of the Marine Corps during the war, and when discharged was a member of the regimental band. He possesses a large collection of war photographs, which proved of much interest to those who saw them.

In honor of the birthday of her husband, Mrs. Carl McConnell was hostess Saturday evening to a number of friends, the evening being passed pleasantly at five hundred. Refreshments of delicious ices were served, with other delectables. The guests sharing Mr. and Mrs. McConnell's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Radtke, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. William Rice, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fisk, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prouditt, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Myrick.

Athena Residence Ransacked

When Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts returned to Athena Saturday evening from a fortnight's visit in California they found their home had been rummaged from cellar to garret by housebreakers, who had made a systematic pillage of the residence during their absence.

A queer circumstance attaches to the object of the miscreants, inasmuch as nothing of value was taken from the premises, but the contents of the house were left in a promiscuous, topay-turvy mess.

Entrance was evidently effected through the basement, in the opinion of Mr. Watts. Here matting had been removed from the floor and evidence of digging in the bottom of the cellar is seen. Jars of fruit were scattered over the cellar, and the only things taken from the house so far as known at the present time were several jars of fruit juice.

The china chest was rummaged, and that Haviland did not appeal to the thieves is attested by the fact the set was left intact. The motive that prompted so thorough a ransacking of the home without looting it remains a mystery. The only conclusion is that the thieves did not find what they wanted or that boys were the perpetrators.

It's up to Holland

Paris.—The supreme council's note to the Dutch government asking that the former German emperor be given up to the allies under article 227 of the Versailles treaty for trial, points out that if the former emperor had remained in Germany he would have been delivered up under the same conditions by the German government.

"Among so many crimes," the note recalls the cynical violation of the neutrality of Belgium and Luxembourg, the barbarous system of hostages, massed deportations, systematic devastation without military reasons, the submarine war.

It concludes by expressing the conviction that "Holland, one of the first to claim a place in the League of Nations, will not desire to cover by moral authority violation of the essential principles of the solidarity of nations, and that all are interested to prevent a return of a similar catastrophe."

Brussels.—Deep emotion has been caused in Holland by the allied demand for the extradition of former Emperor William of Germany, according to a dispatch. Belief is expressed at The Hague that measures will be taken with a view to inducing him voluntarily to place himself at the disposal of the allies.

Are Your Teeth Bothering You?

Nearly everybody has something the matter with the teeth, but keeps on postponing a visit to the dentist. Some people are afraid of pain, some afraid of the price, and some don't want to lose the time.

All these people should know about the Registered Dentists using the E. R. Parker System. First, there is no fear of pain when dental work is done under the E. R. Parker System. Second, the prices are moderate, and every patient is guaranteed full satisfaction. Third, fewer visits are required, and out-of-town visitors are given especial attention, so they need not call so often.

If your teeth are bothering you, remember that the longer you neglect them, the more you suffer and the more it will cost you in the end. There are twenty-four E. R. Parker System offices in different cities, the nearest office being at 755 Main St., Pendleton.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Umatilla County. Elsie Ella Belshe, Plaintiff, vs. Granville P. Belshe, Defendant.

To Granville P. Belshe, defendant above named: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks of the date of the first publication of this Summons, to-wit: on or before the 6th day of February, 1920; and you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint or otherwise plead thereto within said time, the plaintiff, for want thereof, will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: for a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant and for other equitable relief.

This Summons is published pursuant to an order made by Hon. G. W. Phelps, Judge of the Sixth Judicial District, State of Oregon, on the 23d day of December, 1919. The first publication of this Summons will be made on Friday, the 28th day of December, 1919, and the last publication on Friday, the 6th day of February, 1920. Dated this 23d day of December, 1919.

SOME TYPICAL INGALLISMS.
 We clip the subjoined observations from the Corvallis Gazette-Times. We assume that Brother Ingalls steeped his soul in vitriol and exchanged his pencil for a stick of caustic before proceeding to get them off his chest:
 A Portland pastor brands man as "nature's only fool." We guess the pastor is right, but if it were not so the said pastor might have to do something else for a living.
 About the only difference between the Buford which sailed to Russia with a load of Reds and the Oscar II which sailed to Sweden to get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas, is that the Ford bunch came back.
 Galli-Gurci got her divorce and the contemptible skunk she had married withdrew at the last minute his charges of infidelity. A man who will make a false charge of that kind against a woman ought to be skinned alive and made to devour his own epidermis.
 Oregon is using 40,000,000 gallons of gasoline yearly. Because of the gravity test law we are paying a cent and a-half a gallon more than anybody else, which is two-thirds of a million dollars a year. But it is worth the money. Look at the advertising we get as the chief freak legislation state in the world.
 We seldom go to the cemetery for a joke, but the public should know that Gifford Pinchot is lifting his head again and shaking his gory locks at the forest devastators. Since Pinchot saved the Alaska coal so that nobody can use it, he ought to go with Dr. Cook to the north pole and start a campaign to save the ice.
 If Henry M. Hansen of The Portland Telegram fights as fiercely as he writes, no Oregon solon will ever realize a cherished desire to trim him.
