

COLEMAN QUICK-LITE LAMPS AND LANTERNS

Make and burn their own gas, from common motor gasoline. Light with matches, no torch needed. No wick to trim—no daily trimming, cleaning and filling. Gives a light 300 candle power strong, more light than 20 oil lamps. Burn dry without harm. Can't spill or explode if tipped over. Most economical lamp you can use—cost to operate only a "penny a night for cheerful light." Let us show you.

The local hello station at the rear of the Ross furniture store was changed around a bit this week in a manner that it is thought will add to the convenience of the operators and the public. The platform was removed and the station lowered to a level with the store floor.

Free from ache or pain, Hamp Booher has returned from Hot Lake sanatorium, where in eight days he got rid entirely of sciatic rheumatism. Hamp is enthusiastic in his praise of that institution and of Dr. Phy. He says that 87 people are on a little late, but prospects are fairly good. Some ground will have to be re-seeded.

A special meeting of the Athena-Weston post of the American Legion will be held next Monday evening at Masonic hall in Athena. All the boys are expected to come, and especially those interested in baseball. "They may get a sandwich if they have lots of luck," is the rumor filtering from headquarters.

Patrons of the local telephone station are asked to kindly give the numbers wanted when calling for service. This is not only required by the company rules, but would be an especial help just now while the new operators are "learning the ropes."

For Sale—Timber ranch on Basket mountain; 34 acres tall timber; 6 acres cleared and partly cultivated; good water; good house and barn. Just the thing for wood cutters; consideration $1500. Inquire at this office.

Geo. W. Staggs took a little jaunt down into Morrow county last week to look the country over, but bought no land. He reports that crops are a little late, but prospects are fairly good. Some ground will have to be re-seeded.

The Bachelor Girls' club had a most enjoyable session Monday evening at the William Davis home on North Water street, Miss Elza Love acting as hostess for the event. The young ladies were sensible of the attractions of a glowing fire upon the hearth and gathered about it, indulging freely in merry conversation and feeling warmed, cheered and content with life and friendship. Toward midnight a delicious lunch was served by the hostess and caused the appetites of the guests to quicken joyfully. Those in attendance were: Misses Doris Barnes, Lurline Brown, Louise Rintoul, Edna Hollenbeck, Mabel Colvin, Jessie Davis, Esther Davis and Elza Love.

Diedrich Bischoff, aged 82 years, died in this city Friday evening, March 12, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Wurzer, with whom he has made his home for the last seven years. The body was taken to Walla Walla Monday and funeral services were held in St. Mary's chapel at 11 o'clock in the morning, Father Van de Ven officiating. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at Walla Walla. Seven children survive him—three sons and four daughters. Mr. Bischoff was highly respected by all who knew him, and sympathy is expressed for his daughter and her husband in their bereavement.

Mrs. Charles Price extended delightful hospitality when she entertained the Epworth league of the Methodist church at her attractive country home last Wednesday evening. A merry crowd of young people motored out for the event and spent a pleasant evening with games, music and charades, and making friends with the open fire which gave everyone a sense of being at home and at ease. Light refreshments were served during the course of the evening, and when the hour of departure arrived the guests unwillingly left the scene of happy entertainment.

Complimenting Miss Myrtle Hodgson, a recent popular bride-elect, local Eastern Star chapter and Bachelor Girls' club joined in a miscellaneous shower at Masonic hall last Friday evening. Many dainty and useful articles were presented to the honoree, who was required to remove them one by one from a line operated by pulleys. A social hour followed and congratulations and good wishes were showered upon Weston's fair young daughter. A delicious lunch was served at a late hour by Mrs. R. Morrison and the Misses Wavel O'Harra, Ruby Price and Doris Barnes.

Elder Hiram Smith of Ashland, Oregon, will conduct a series of afternoon and evening lectures next week at the Church of the Brethren, with special regard to Sunday school work. Plans contemplated in the Interchurch World Movement will also be discussed. Elder Smith's first talk will be given Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Brethren, and announcement will be made at the morning service of the week's schedule.

Heavy rains the latter part of last week greatly improved the crop outlook in this section and put a stop to foreboding over "the driest winter season ever known." The ground was just in the proper condition to receive the moisture, which practically all soaked in and may lead to one of the bumper crops that have made this country famous but which have been conspicuous by their absence during the season of high prices.

Typhoid-pneumonia is reported to have developed in the case of C. E. Fisk, whose continued serious illness has caused grave apprehension to his family and many friends. Dr. Keyor was called from Walla Walla Sunday in consultation with Dr. Smith. At last reports some improvement was noted in Mr. Fisk's condition.

A special meeting of the Athena-Weston post of the American Legion will be held next Monday evening at Masonic hall in Athena. All the boys are expected to come, and especially those interested in baseball. "They may get a sandwich if they have lots of luck," is the rumor filtering from headquarters.
