BREVITIES

Will Beathe and family have moved back to their mountain farm from Athena.

Manager Harbour is getting the Weston brickyard in readiness for the season's run.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrison and G. S. Taylor drove in from the ranch Wednesday for a brief sojourn in town.

Earl G. Barnett, ex-service man, left Saturday for Portland to attend a technical school as a government student.

Hamp Booher, Cliff Culley and Ven Bell attended the Dokie ceremonial at North Yakima, and report a gorgeous time.

At the recent Free Methodist conference in Walla Walla, Rev. Geo. T. Klein was appointed pastor for Athena and Weston mountain.

Rev. J. W. Slaton of Dayton, Wash., will preach in the Baptist church at Athena next Sunday, April 25, both morning and evening.

Mrs. Chas. L. May and little daughter of Weston mountain are visiting at the J. E. Jones residence in this city. The girl is receiving medical treatment.

Chas. M. Schneider, formerly a substantial farmer of Weston mountain, has bought 23 acres of land between Mica and Valley Ford, Wash. Mr. Schneider and family have moved to their new home from Kahlotus.

Vernie O'Harra and Ray Jones are making good progress with their wood-sawing operations on the mountain, their new machine having proved to be a real worker. It sawed up a five-foot log in 12 minutes.

Frank Neild and family of Portland are visiting at the G. W. Staggs residence. They resided here some 16 years ago. Mrs. Neild was formerly Miss Minnie James, and was reared in the Staggs household. Mr. Neild is now a Portland contractor.

J. A. Lumsden has been indulging again in his favorite pastime of trading farm stock. He sold three head of work mules and soon afterward bought six head of horses, a wagon and harness. The latter was secured from J. E. Bowker, who is moving to the vicinity of Spokane, where he has bought a grocery store.

Mrs. Ida B. Callahan of Corvallis, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, is making a tour of Eastern Oregon and will be in Weston Tuesday afternoon, April 27, to address the members of the Saturday Afternoon club. The meeting will be held in the club room of Memorial hall and a full attendance is desired.

Jack Lutes and son Jim have arrived from their farm home near Molalla, Oregon, to work at the Weston brickyard, of which Mr. Lutes is a veteran employe. He bought not long ago a nice tract of land near Molalla containing 40 acres and could dispose of it at a good advance, but intends to make it his permanent home.

Miss Cornelia Marvin of Salem, state librarian; Miss Sabra Nason, county librarian, together with other librarians from Hood River, The Dalles, La Grande and neighboring cities, and a number of prominent Pendleton women, were in the city Tuesday morning inspecting the local library and Memorial hall. Miss Marvin gave a short address on the duties and responsibilities of library work in relation to civic welfare which was greatly enjoyed. Memorial hall and its equipment received much commendation and praise. Library board members who received the guests were: Mrs. W. S. Price, Mrs. James H. Price and Mrs. H. Goodwin. The Weston ladies feel it was indeed a rare privilege to meet this group of bright, forward-thinking women who are keenly interested in all activities making for the development and betterment of the state and its several communities.

Lloyd Killgore is back in Weston after an absence of three years, and is manifestly enjoying the renewal of his association with the old home town. He served two years and seven months in the United States navy, both on battleships and destroyers.

HERE'S A FARM FOR YOU!

My mountain farm is for sale or rent. I will give anyone—either buyer or renter—a bargain. Here's a snap that someone is sure to grab? Why don't you grab it first?

I will be in Weston Monday and will go to the farm for about ten days, and I want to make a deal while on the ground.

For other information see Mr. Fred Heath at Athena.

Mrs. M. A. Heuberger

He was in foreign waters on convoy duty during the war and visited Liverpool, England, and Brest, France. He was also in Brazilian and Cuban waters while on this side of the pond, and regards his naval experience as both valuable and interesting.

Letters have been received by local residents purporting to be forwarded from Barcelona, Spain, and urging financial assistance in the release of a prisoner. It would appear that foreign bunco artists think Americans are rolling in money and are looking for ways in which to spend it.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metz, responsive to the warmth of April sun and the appeal of budding life, moved last week to their Weston mountain ranch, and will watch contentedly the miracles of spring occurring in their upland garden.

J. A. Lieuellen was in town the other day on his return from Yakima and is going to Wyoming for the wool harvest. He reports that Yakima sheepmen had cold weather for shearing and lambing and lost much of their lamb crop.

Rev. Mark A. Phinney has been relieved of pedagogical duties by the return of Mrs. Luella Pinkerton to the school room, and will henceforth devote himself to parochial interests. The minister's work as teacher was very satisfactory.

The ladies of the Saturday Afternoon club will serve luncheon after the motion picture entertainment Saturday evening, April 24. The proceeds will be used to put the park in attractive condition for summer use.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic McGrew motored in from their Pea Ridge ranch Tuesday to look into the political situation and comment upon the prosperous conditions prevailing in their neighborhood.

Till Taylor has filed for the democratic nomination for sheriff. His republican opponent will be Zoe's Houser, republican, and ex-sheriff of this county. Mr. Houser resides at Echo.

Trajan Tucker, one of the enterprising reservation farmers, was in town Monday exchanging views on current topics with local merchants. Mrs. Tucker accompanied him.

A fine assortment of choice fruits, flowers and foliage was received this week by Mrs. N. Loveridge and Mrs. Frank Price from Mrs. C. M. Pierce of Hollywood, California.

Mrs. O. T. Douglas is quite ill at her home in this city. Mrs. James Ashworth and Mrs. Ella Lavender have been nursing her during the past week.

Reunion Dates and Committees

Friday and Saturday, June 4 and 5, were fixed as the dates of the next annual meeting of the Oregon Pioneers of Umatilla county, at a meeting Monday held in the directors' room of The Farmers' Bank of Weston. M. L. Watts, president of the association, came over from Athena to preside, and started the subscription ball rolling with an encouraging momentum by an offer of $50, which generous boost was no doubt felt that the forthcoming reunion will prove to be the most successful of the many successful annual gatherings of pioneers held in this city.

President Watts announced the appointment of the following committees:

Grounds—J. M. Ashworth, W. H. Gould, L. R. Van Winkle.

Finance—L. B. Davitt, Nelson H. Jones, W. A. Barnes.

Tail of Cold Wave.

This county has been experiencing results from the tail end of the cold wave that struck Colorado and the middle west last week. Rain, snow and wind has been our portion, with cold nights on the side, for several days.

Election notices have been posted in the precincts of the county calling attention to the primary nominating and special referendum elections, to be held on Friday, May 21.

June 4 and 5

are the dates set for the

Pioneer Picnic

Not too early to begin thinking of wearing apparel for the splendid occasion. This year the Picnic is to be the biggest and best in its history and we want to look our best.

Whether a spring coat for the ladies or a dainty dress or suit, we would advise you to make your selection while the line is full.

MILLINERY IN ABUNDANCE

This is the marvel of our customers---dainty, transparent creations---handsomely tailored hats---hats with the touch of artistic beauty, becomingly shaped, all for your inspection. An immense line this season---priced lower than you had expected. Customers from a distance remark that they can save one-third on millinery. This is a worth-while saving.

Fellows, Why Not a Born Suit?

Let us have your order now and have it ready for the picnic.

Shoes Shoes Shoes

From our sale we have several hundred pairs of short ends of stock that we shall continue to close out at the sale price. Splendid values and the styles all you could desire, but the price means a saving of two to four dollars per pair over present prices. They are on the table and are a choice lot.

Our opinion is that at least for the year to come

Prices Will Tumble

just like sugar and overalls prices are tumbling. Disregard these reports and buy now, for every indication points to firm prices for a year to come and possibly longer.
