Merritt A. Baker, government observer, reports the April precipitation to have reached a total of four and one-eighth inches for April—and those who were out in the numerous "April showers" can well believe the figures. The normal rainfall for April was considerably exceeded.

Mountain farmers have been taking advantage of the bright weather to do their spring seeding and to haul potatoes. Spuds have dropped, now that the mountain crop is available. One sale of a carload at $7.50 a sack is reported. Fred Henderson brought down a couple of hundred sacks which he sold two months ago at $5.00.

Frequent inquiries from would-be investors have elicited the information that it isn't a mine which Walt Webb and Chas. E. Hall are digging on Main street and C. W. Avery is superintending. A water main is being dug out and elevated so that it can be run across Pine creek above the surface of the stream. It has been under the creek, and was found to have burst.

Last Thursday afternoon Miss Helen Counihan conducted the last lesson in the Red Cross course on Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. Examinations covering the entire course were taken by the following class members: Mesdames Letha King, N. P. Bennet, W. S. Payne, S. J. Culley and H. Goodwin. A number of young women, students of the High school, also participated in the test.

The Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, held an interesting business and social meeting in the church parlors last Friday evening. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Theodore Walden; vice president, Mina Price; secretary, Walter Rayborn; treasurer, Mrs. Will S. Price. After the business session games and charades afforded merriment, and luscious appetites were appeased by a substantial lunch.

The home of Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick was the scene Saturday morning of a charming May day breakfast in honor of the Senior class of Weston High school and their advisor, Miss Lurline Brown, served by the Misses Edna Hollenbeck and Frank Harris Davis. Class colors of yellow and green appeared in house and table decorations, and were emphasized in the delicacies upon the bill of fare. Those present pronounced it a novel and delightful affair. At the conclusion of the repast, the class proceeded to Pendleton to witness the county athletic meet.

Joe Cannon of Athena went out this week with a combination truck and car of the Dodge manufacture, from the Weston garage.

Fred Henderson was down from Weston mountain Tuesday, attending to business errands.

At Memorial Hall Theatre

This Saturday evening, Louis Benison in "Sandy Burke of the U Bar U," a breezy western film drama of Goldwyn production. Prices 25-15.

Next Tuesday evening, Dorothy Phillips in "Paid in Advance," a splendid Universal super special in seven reels. This is a companion piece to "Back to God's Country," both by James Oliver Curwood, and is another real thriller. Prices 35-15.

Bright new comedies with both shows. Attend, and help buy new seats for Memorial Hall.

Notice, Horsemen.
Prince Albert II, No. 113661, will make the season in and around Weston. For reference, see Lafe McBride.
